THREATEN GAG RULE TO SPEED NAVAL TREATY

Watson Moves to Limit Debate.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., July 16.—[Special.]—With the intimation that cloture will be invoked, if necessary, to speed ratification of the navy limitation treaty, Senator James E. Watson [Rep., Ind.], majority leader, proposed today a unanimous consent agreement to restrict debate.

The Watson proposal, made to Senator Hiram W. Johnson [Rep., Cal.], leader of the treaty opposition, was that beginning at 11 a. m. next Tuesday debate be limited to ten minutes on each amendment and reservation and on the treaty itself, and that each senator be allowed to speak but once on each.

Senator Johnson told Senator Watson that he could not return a definite answer to the proposal pending the return of Senator George H. Moses [Rep., N. H.], another treaty opponent who desires to speak against the measure. Senator Moses was called away by a death in his family and will not return to Washington until tomorrow night.

Hoover Against Gag Rule.

Although President Hoover is understood to be opposed to the application of cloture, the administration leaders have prepared a cloture petition signed by the requisite 16 senators which they plan to present if endeavors to procure a limitation of debate by unanimous consent should fail. There was some talk today that the petition would be presented tomorrow so that it could be voted on Saturday. It takes a two-thirds vote to apply cloture, which consists of a limitation of debate to one hour for each senator.

Senator Kenneth McKellar [Dem., Tenn.] offered a reservation under the terms of which Great Britain would be required to dismantle her naval bases off American shores on the ground that they constitute a menace to the United States.

Text of Reservation.

The text of the reservation follows:

"Whereas, Great Britain and the United States are the two largest English speaking nations; and

"Whereas, The United States was at one time a colony of Great Britain and secured its liberty by revolution after a long war; and

"Whereas, A second war was fought with Great Britain in 1812-14; and

"Whereas, Since the conclusion of peace in 1815 the two nations have been on the friendliest and most cordial terms; and

"Whereas, The two nations are not only tied together by racial and family ties and ties of kinship, but their business and commercial relations are so interwoven that a war between the two is unthinkable; and

"Whereas, The Dominion of Canada, a British dominion bordering more than three thousand miles on the northern line of the United States, and the United States have set a good and peaceful example by erecting no forts or other warlike protection on either side of said border; and

"Whereas, It is conceded that the erection or maintenance of a fort or naval station close to the territorial waters of a foreign nation is a menace or a threat to such nation near which such naval station is erected or maintained; and

"Whereas, Many years ago Great Britain established a number of naval stations close to the territorial waters of the United States, several in the Atlantic and one in the Pacific; and

"Whereas, It is unthinkable that Great Britain desires to continue the maintenance of these naval stations so close to the shores of her friends and kinspeople in the United States; now,

What McKellar Desires.

"Therefore, be it resolved by the senate, That it is specifically understood and agreed in the ratification of this treaty that during the treaty period between the ratification hereof and the 31st of December, 1936, that Great Britain will, in the interest of peace and concord between the two nations and as an assurance of the oft repeated statement of many of her leading statesmen that war with the United States is unthinkable, unman and, after said date of Dec. 31, 1936, not maintain the following naval stations or bases contiguous to the territory of the United States: Halifax, Bermuda, Jamaica, Trinidad, Esquimalt, and will not build other naval bases in the vicinity of said territorial waters, and that before this ratification becomes effective this reservation will be agreed to in writing by the government of Great Britain."

Senator McKellar offered also the

Seek India Truce; May Free Gandhi

PLAN TO INVITE "HOLY MAN" TO LONDON PARLEY

Secret Negotiations by British Bared.

Turmoil in the East

Mahatma Gandhi will call off revolt in India, London reports, and will be released from cell and invited to participate in London round table conference Oct. 20.

Viceroy Lord Irwin picks nine princes and five ministers, including two Britons, to represent Indian states at the round table conference.

Britain rushes warships to Egypt, where fourteen were killed in riots Tuesday. A mob yesterday paraded through Alexandria with the bodies of 13 riot victims.

Rioting in French Indo-China again breaks out. Three leaders of the mob were killed by troops.

BY JOHN STEELE.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, July 16.—Mahatma Gandhi, imprisoned generalissimo of India's revolt, will soon call off his civil disobedience campaign, will be released from his cell at Poona, and, to cap the climax, will be invited to London to attend the India round table conference opening Oct. 20.

This information was received by THE TRIBUNE tonight from authentic sources.

Secret "unofficial" preparations are now said to be progressing both here and in India to bring about at least a temporary conciliation, or truce. As soon as India's "holy man" commands his disciples to cease their disobedience tactics the Labor government plans to seize the gesture as a pretext of inviting him to the London parley, it is learned.

Row Over Simon Report.

It is also stated that although Prime Minister MacDonald and his colleagues are eager to shelve the Simon report they may be forced to face it at the round table because of the determination of certain Indian delegations to have the report accepted as a basis of discussion.

The government is seeking to toss the report aside for practical purposes, but it is now likely that it will be placed before the conference as one of the many documents to be used as sources for information and will be followed or put aside, as the conference desires.

In the meantime the India office expresses its encouragement over "improving conditions in India," although it is without illusions over the reason why.

"Cause of Unrest Still There."

An India office official said today that the dying down of civil disobedience is satisfactory as far as it goes, but it doesn't mean that the cause of unrest has been removed. The improvement, he says, is partly due to the hopes of Indians over what they may gain at the round table conference, as well as government measures by jailing leaders of the civil disobedience movement.

"We must recognize, however, that the Indian people are now united in their demand for an equality status in some form or another, and we can't deny it to them," this official said. "We have only two courses—either to find out what they want and give it to them, or institute a régime of stern repression. The latter alternative is impossible in this year of the world.

Can't Defy World Opinion."

"We are living in 1930 and not in 1830, and we can't defy the opinion of the world. It is our duty, as a nation which has been responsible for India, to reconcile her differences and give her what she really wants. In that spirit we are going into the conference, and in that spirit we hope that the Indians will meet us."

It is hoped by the government that preliminary steps will be taken at the parley for the framing of a bill for the future government of India, which will be sent immediately to parliament and given its first two readings. When it reaches the stage of joint committee sessions in parliament Indian representatives will be invited to help in amending and putting it into final shape. It is hoped in this way that an agreed measure, satisfactory to all parties in both

NEW BRIDGE HOURS BECOME LAW; URGE ENFORCEMENT NOW

The new bridge closing ordinance, sponsored by the council bridge committee to keep the downtown spans down during the periods of peak street traffic, became effective yesterday at the close of the council session. The measure already has received the approval of Secretary of War Hurley and the new closing hours can be placed in effect immediately, according to Benjamin F. Goldstein, attorney to the committee.

Ald. William A. Rowan [10th], chairman o fthe subcommittee that worked for nearly two years on the ordinance, announced that he will write to Commissioner of Public Works Wolfe, asking Wolfe to inform the bridgetenders to observe the new hours at once.

The present hours and the new hours for keeping the bridges closed are as follows:

PRESENT.	NEW.
7:00 to 9:30 a. m.	7:30 to 10:00 a. m.
4:30 to 6:30 p. m.	4:00 to 6:30 p. m.

The passage of the ordinance was considered a victory for Attorney Goldstein as well as for the aldermen.

FIND BODY OF GRAHAM, FLYER LOST IN STORM

Salt Lake City, Utah, July 16.—(AP)—The correspondent of the Salt Lake Tribune tonight reports over long distance telephone that the body of Maurice Graham, missing air mail pilot, had been found near Cedar City, Utah.

No details were immediately available, the correspondent saying that the searching party had just returned with the body.

Graham, a Western Air Express pilot, became lost in a storm last Jan. 10 and the first clew to his whereabouts was discovered about a month ago when his wrecked plane was found in the Kanarra mountains 22 miles southeast of Cedar City.

Reichstag Defied; Tax Law Decreed

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, July 16.—Dictatorial power to govern Germany without the help or control of parliament, which was conferred on him by President von Hindenburg under article 48 of the German constitution, was made use of tonight by Chancellor Bruening to put through the "emergency finance law."

The law includes an increase in income tax, enforcement of a tax on bachelors and spinsters, a head tax and a special new tax on food and liquor served in inns and restaurants.

Rioting Is Feared.

Reichswehr garrisons have been reinforced in the main industrial districts, especially near the Ruhr, where it is feared the population may start rioting as a protest against the new taxes. Some politicians claim the law may force many plants, which are now in a shaky condition, to close down.

On the strength of the emergency clause in article 48 of the constitution the president of Germany is entitled to empower the chancellor to proclaim laws without the help of parliament. These laws, however, must be repealed if parliament votes against them. The chancellor, when he failed to get the necessary reichstag majority for the finance law, made use of the extraordinary powers entrusted to him by President von Hindenburg, and proclaimed the taxes, which, he hopes, will end the government's deficit. The government budget is short $300,000,000.

May Dissolve Reichstag.

The Socialists informed the government tonight that they would demand repeal of the emergency taxes on Saturday. To this Chancellor Bruening replied with a threat to dissolve the reichstag. President von Hindenburg has given the chancellor power to dissolve the reichstag if he deems it necessary.

Only in the days of financial chaos in 1923 has Germany ever been governed by emergency rule. The inability of Chancellor Bruening and his friends to govern without the aid of the dictatorial power has deeply disappointed the Republicans in Germany and was declared tonight to have strengthened the position of the Fascists and other reactionaries, who are prepared to exploit the situation for their own purposes.

Reasons for Crisis.

The crisis through which Germany is now going is blamed on the fact that the government raised the salaries of state officials in 1927 and inaugurated a vast jobless insurance plan, two huge expenditures, which disjointed the country's budget until it verged on bankruptcy. The masses realize this acute situation's origin and hatred of state officials is sweeping the country, it is declared.

HOUSE OF LORDS DEFEATS BILL TO ADMIT WOMEN

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, July 16.—Great Britain's noble lords decided, after considerable polite oratory today, that they are not willing to allow the women folk, however noble, to sit officially in their company. The vote was close, 53 to 49.

It was Viscount Astor, the ardent feminist, who revived the motion, which has already been defeated more than once in the house of lords. England possesses 18 peeresses in their own right, and Lord Astor argued that they had equal right with the lords to sit in the upper house, especially since women are now permitted in almost every position in the country.

Lord Hanworth, after reviewing the history of the house of lords, said it had not been created by statute and therefore women could not be admitted by a simple measure in parliament. He pooh-poohed Lord Astor's motion as a "small and picayunish effort." The earl of Birkenhead was also a sarcastic opponent.

Plane to Bring Widow of Auto Crash Victim

FRED J. ROBINSON.

An airplane took off from Sky Harbor airport yesterday for an island summer resort in the Georgian Bay district to bring back Mrs. Kathleen Robinson 5555 Everett avenue, whose husband, Fred J. Robinson, an advertising executive, was killed when his auto struck a safety island and overturned earlier in the day at 51st street and the outer drive.

Mrs. Robinson and her 10 year old daughter, Joan, have been vacationing at a summer cottage near Little Current, Ont.

Charles Walgreen, drug store official, offered the use of his Sikorsky amphibion, and Pilot Carl Vickery took off for the resort at 3 p. m. He was accompanied by Eugene McDonald, yachtsman, who will act as navigator. They plan to return to Chicago today.

Robinson was western manager of the Chilton Class Journals Publishing company of Philadelphia. He was formerly in the advertising department of THE TRIBUNE.

Boy Killed by Truck.

Melvin Wexler, 5 years old, 3839 Bernard street, was crushed to death last evening when a truck swerved to avoid a speeding auto and overturned at Bernard and Byron streets. Melvin's playmates, Howard Longfellow, 6 years old, 3830 Bernard street, and Robert Hodgkins, 5 years old, 3828 Bernard street, was pinned under the truck with him and their legs were factured. Henry Albach, 32 years old, 4220 Bernard street, driver of the truck, was held for the inquest, and the driver of the speeding auto, said to be an 18 year old youth, is being sought.

These deaths and one other yesterday raised Cook county's motor toll for the year to 518. The other victim:

Joseph Gillman, 40 years old, 4818 North Sawyer avenue, a chauffeur. Killed when his machine collided with another car at Ashland and Belmont avenues. John Kelleher, 3763 Osgood street, driver of the other car incurred a fractured skull.

GEORGE E. COLE ILL; IN HOSPITAL FOR OBSERVATION

George E. Cole, noted civic leader in Chicago for forty years, was taken to the Evanston hospital yesterday for observation. Mr. Cole, who is 85 years old, was stricken by a heart attack in his rooms at the Union League club last Sunday night. His condition was reported not critical, but physicians decided to place him under observation. He may be taken later to the North Shore Health resort for the summer, according to his son, Munroe Cole, of Winnetka.

Mr. Cole was one of the founders of the Municipal Voters' league and the Legislative Voters' league. He was the first president of the former organization. He was also president of the Legislative Voters' league and for four years was president of the Citizens' association.

He became prominent in the public eye in 1917, when he conducted the campaign that induced the assembly to adopt the joint resolution preceding the referendum by which the people of the state voted for the 1920 constitutional convention. This convention adopted a new constitution which was voted down in 1922.

Six months ago Mr. Cole urged that the general assembly be persuaded to call a new constitutional convention.

LESTER SITS IN ASH CAN, THEN ON SOFT CUSHION

Lester Jacobson, 13 years old, 1517 57th street was worsted in a wrestling match last evening with Irving Sattler, 14 years old, 5636 Lake Park avenue, and it took two policemen to pry him out of an ash can where his opponent threw him.

When Lester boasted of his wrestling ability Irving offered to stick him in the ash can. They wrestled up and down the vacant lot at 57th street and Blackstone avenue, and finally Irving raised Lester off the ground and sat him down hard in the can. His head, shoulders and legs stuck out, so he could yell, wave his arms and kick, but that was about all.

Police Sergeants George Bevan and Art Connors started in with acetylene torches, but the treatment was too hot for Lester. Finally after much rolling on the ground, hammering with chisels and pulling and tugging they got him loose. At the Illinois hospital they put some liniment on him and sent him home on a soft cushion.

MRS. M'CORMICK WANTS FOE TO TELL OF CHARGE

Roused by Story of Million Fund.

BY PARKE BROWN.

Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick made a formal request yesterday that her Democratic opponent for the United States senatorship, James Hamilton Lewis, be called to tell under oath what he knows about her expenditures in winning the Republican nomination for that office.

Her demand was made upon Senator Gerald P. Nye of North Dakota as chairman of the senate committee created to investigate primary campaign expenditures. It came during the third day of Chicago testimony concerning her own primary contest. The hearing is being held in the federal building.

From the witness stand she asked that former Senator Lewis be subpoenaed because of a newspaper statement ascribed to him in which he was quoted as saying, she asserted, that she had spent $1,000,000 to gain her nomination last April.

Decision Due Today.

Chairman Nye, who has been conducting the hearings alone, announced the request would be given immediate consideration. Later he told newspaper men he would announce his decision this morning.

Mr. Lewis, when told of the request, said he would be willing to testify if he were subpoenaed, but expressed doubt that Chairman Nye would summon him.

"Mrs. McCormick," he said, "probably referred to my statement that it cost $1,000,000 to win the Republican nomination. From developments it increasingly appears that most of that sum was spent by Mrs. McCormick."

The newspaper article to which Mrs. McCormick alluded was a Springfield dispatch published in the Rockford Register-Gazette, which is owned by Lieut. Gov. Fred E. Sterling.

Says Article Makes Charge.

"According to this article," she said, "a definite charge has been made that $1,000,000 was spent in my campaign. It has been made by a prominent Illinois citizen. Then he must have knowledge of expenditures of well over $700,000 more than I have included in my accounting. He should be subpoenaed if he has any knowledge of that sort."

Mrs. McCormick had taken the witness stand upon her own initiative for another purpose. That was to amplify a part of the testimony given during her absence from the morning session by Col. Robert R. McCormick, her brother-in-law.

As one of the first witnesses of the day, Col. McCormick produced four checks representing his donations to the Republican cause in recent years. One of these was a check for $10,000 payable to Mrs. McCormick and indorsed by her. It was dated April 1, 1930, exactly one week before the senatorial primaries.

The witness said he had sent the check to Mrs. McCormick without solicitation. He also said the money had not been used in her campaign because of its late arrival. In reply to a question from Senator Nye, he said the money had not been returned to him. And there the examination concerning this check came to an end.

Retained for Fall Campaign.

Mrs. McCormick asked permission to add to this information. She said she had notified Col. McCormick when she received the check for $10,000 that she had covered out of her own purse all the expenses of her primary battle, and that it was agreed she would retain Col. McCormick's contribution for use in her fall campaign against Mr. Lewis.

She said that inasmuch as the money had not been used in the primary she had not included it in her statement to the committee. Then she added that she had received two other checks that were late arrivals for the interparty fight. One of these was from Joseph Medill Patterson, another relative, and the other was from Mrs. George F. Porter, widow of a Bull Moose days associate of the late Medill McCormick. She did not name the amounts.

The earliest of the three other checks about which Col. McCormick testified was one for $2,000 to Mrs. Bertha Baur for the Illinois Republican Women's clubs. It was dated April 5, 1928, and his first testimony was that he had given it to aid Mrs. McCormick's senatorial fight. After he had finished his testimony newspaper men called his attention to the fact that when the check was written Mrs. McCormick was a candidate for congressman at large and he returned to the stand and corrected his earlier statement.

The other two checks were for $3,500 each. One was made out to the Ruth Hanna McCormick Volunteers and the other to Mrs. McCormick, who had it turned over to the Illinois Young People's Republican clubs. They are both said to be included in the accounts of those two organizations, which are in Chairman Nye's hands, and in the $67,214.10 raised by those two organizations and the Voters' Progress club, according to Mrs. McCormick's report.

In mid-afternoon, after two witnesses, Robert E. Crowe and Morris Eller, had been excused until today, Chairman Nye ran out of material and adjourned the hearing until 10:30 this morning. It was announced that about fifteen new subpoenas were in the hands of deputy marshals for service and it was disclosed that two of them were for Edward J. Doyle and James Cunningham, president and assistant treasurer, respectively, of the Commonwealth Edison company.

No official statement concerning the cause for summoning these men could be obtained, but there was a rumor that Chairman Nye intends to ask them if the Commonwealth Edison company made any contributions to the campaign funds of Mrs. McCormick or any other candidate for the senatorship.

Will Call Deneen Men Later.

Questions by reporters when the list of witnesses was exhausted brought from Chairman Nye a statement that while participants in the renomination campaign of Senator Deneen will be called for examination there probably will be none subpoenaed during this series of Chicago hearings. He also said he had not subpoenaed the Rev. Elmer L. Williams, as urged by a member of Mrs. McCormick's staff, Fred A. Smith, from the witness stand.

Most of the day was taken up with the examination of Chairman B. W. Snow of the Republican county central committee and other members of the committee. The latter included Charles V. Barrett, 21st ward; Le Roy Milliner, 41st ward; Eden T. Brekke, 37th ward, and William S. Finucane, 11th ward.

One after another they answered in the negative Chairman Nye's questions whether they had received any contributions for their campaigns from Mrs. McCormick or any one representing her. The same testimony came from County Commissioner Joseph P. Carolan, who said he raised his own funds for a country towns commissioner ticket of his own, and from President Howard W. Elmore of the sanitary district, who in the primary had his own slate of five candidates for the drainage board.

Snow Describes His Campaign.

Of this group Chairman Snow was examined at the greatest length, Mrs. McCormick, making use of the permission granted her to cross-examine witnesses, joining in the questioning at the finish.

The county chairman, who said that it would cost $200,000 to conduct a full county campaign "right," testified that he had only $130,000 or $140,000 to use this year, that he had solicited no funds, and that his total came from the contributions of candidates and from a $100 dinner, the latter bringing in $52,500. He said it cost his organization $97,000 to man the polls on primary day, the average allowance being $30 a precinct, and that the shortage of funds kept him from publishing the usual campaign booklets, from conducting any mail campaign, and from holding massmeetings, including theater meetings at noon.

"After it became apparent that there was a wave of sentiment for Mrs. McCormick," he replied to one question, "I assumed the responsibility for marking our sample ballots for her in all wards where the committeemen did not object. I thought it would help our ticket and I believe it worked both ways. She received a lot of votes from us and our candidates benefited by our indorsing her."

"At any time," asked Mrs. McCormick, "did I ask you to mark your sample ballots for me?"

"I had only two interviews with Mrs. McCormick during the campaign," answered Mr. Snow. "The first was in the fall of 1929 when she called at my office to notify me because of my official position that she intended to be a candidate. She said she was not asking for my support.

"The only other time I can recall was when I told her that I intended to mark my ballots for her in my own territory (the Seventh ward)."

Chairman Nye read a letter from County Treasurer Harding, who is on his way to Europe. Mr. Harding acted as campaign treasurer for the Snow organization and wrote that Mrs. McCormick had made no contribution toward its expenses.

POLL WATCHER IS QUIZZED BY DEFENSE IN MAGUIRE HEARING

E. C. Arthur of the Eureka hotel, 733 South State street, poll watcher and former employé of the Better Government association, was the only witness examined yesterday before County Judge Jarecki in the hearing on the petition to oust Fred V. Maguire as chairman of the board of election commissioners. Maguire is charged with permitting persons with police records to serve as election officials.

Questioned by Attorney Albert Fink, representing Maguire, Arthur told of using the name of Athey. He said he did that not to escape debts, but because he had moved from the Drexel Arms hotel to a community he did not believe to be desirable. He admitted having left a $200 unpaid bill at the hotel.

Regarding a list of questionable voters he had submitted to the board, Arthur said he had done it only because he felt such action to be his duty. The hearing was continued until this morning.

GEORGE BARKER HELPS A FRIEND AND GETS BIFFED

Policeman's Fist Ruins His Debonair Air.

George Barker, ex-convict who is business agent for the coal teamsters' union, went to the state's attorney's office yesterday afternoon to see about his business associate, William (Three Fingered Jack) White, also an ex-convict business agent. White was arrested on Tuesday night in Riverside, where the police said he was intoxicated, disorderly, and armed with a .45 caliber revolver.

Barker was attired in an expensive light tan summer suit, a fancy 'kerchief peeking from the pocket, a white silk polo shirt thrown open at the neck, and white and tan sport oxfords. Few persons recognized the well dressed man as one of the 28 public enemies listed by the Chicago Crime commission.

Barker Walks Out Again.

Half an hour later Barker walked out of the state's attorney's office with the coat of his expensive suit ripped up the back, his hair disarranged, and a red spot prominently showing on his nose.

The red spot indicated where Sergt. Neil Kahler, who is temporarily in charge of the prosecutor's detectives, had planted his right fist. The exit from the prosecutor's office, which Barker had entered in jovial spirits, was between two uniformed policemen, to whom he was handcuffed.

Ask Indictment of White.

When Barker made his entrance White was being questioned by Assistant State's Attorney Richard Jackson. He confessed that he has been drunk for two weeks, but as to how the revolver came to be in his possession he could not explain. He said he thought perhaps the police put it in his car. This morning, prosecutors said, the grand jury will be asked to indict White for carrying concealed weapons, a crime for which he is now waiting trial on an indictment several months old. He is also listed as a public enemy.

James (Fur) Sammons, another public enemy named by the Crime commission, was also found intoxicated and armed by the Morton Grove police last week, after he had run his automobile into that of William Tooke. He was indicted on Tuesday. Sammons also is an ex-convict.

Barker went to the state's attorney's office to see what "it was all about." He wanted to help Sammons with a bond and to see if he could be of assistance to White. Attorney W. W. Smith was preparing schedules for Sammons' bond.

"What are you doing around here?" asked Sergt. Kahler as he noticed Barker at the door of the room where White was being questioned. "I place you under arrest and I'm going to search you for a gun."

"You ——— cop," Barker is reported to have replied to Kahler. The sergeant put his hand on Barker to escort him to the police room. Barker tried to shake him away and a scuffle started. From the mixup the policeman's right fist emerged and landed on Barker's nose.

Judge Rebukes Sergeant.

Attorney Smith went to Judge Daniel P. Trude's court and sued out a writ of habeas corpus. Barker was taken into court. Sergt. Kahler told the judge that he arrested Barker for being around the prosecutor's office and because he is a pal of White.

"You know this will develop into a disorderly conduct charge," said Judge Trude to Kahler. "This man, even if he is Red Barker, is entitled to exactly the same constitutional rights as any other man."

"If it is illegal to arrest men of this character I'm going to continue to make illegal arrests and I'll make a lot of them," said Sergt. Kahler after Judge Trude finished his observations and had discharged Barker on the writ.

CAMPAIGN FINDS HOOVER BACKING WET TO BEAT DRY

That's Status of Senate Race in Montana.

BY ARTHUR CRAWFORD.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 16.—[Special.]—The Hoover administration is to lend its support to a wet senatorial nominee against a dry present senator in Montana. This is the situation brought about by yesterday's nomination of Albert J. Galen, associate justice of the state Supreme court, as the Republican candidate for United States senator. Justice Galen will oppose Senator Thomas J. Walsh, who was renominated by the Democrats without opposition.

While President Hoover took no part in the primary contest in which Justice Galen defeated O. H. P. Shelley, a dry and former prohibition enforcement officer, he is expected to aid all party nominees in the election campaign. The Galen forces are certain to capitalize the President's vacation visit to Montana, where he plans to spend a week or ten days in Glacier National park.

Although he is declining most invitations to make addresses, the President has tentatively given assurance that he will be present and speak at the dedication of the Roosevelt arch, where the Roosevelt highway crosses the continental divide in Montana. The date of the dedication, which originally was to have taken place this week, is to be fixed to suit the President's convenience.

Galen for Modification.

The Republicans think they have a real chance to defeat Senator Walsh with Justice Galen, who is a former attorney general of the state and has been a member of the state Supreme court since 1921. Justice Galen is a war veteran, having served as judge advocate of the Eighth division and later as judge advocate general of the A. E. F. in Siberia. Like Senator Walsh, he is a Catholic.

Justice Galen has made it known that he is for modification of prohibition laws and that he will follow the sentiment of the voters as expressed by their repeal of the state enforcement act. Senator Walsh, who is serving his third term in the senate, and has become one of the most influential members of the minority, has been an active dry, although in recent months he indicates a willingness to abide by the result of a referendum vote.

Backed by Dixon.

Joseph M. Dixon, now a member of the Hoover "little cabinet" as assistant secretary of the interior, is one of Justice Galen's backers. Mr. Dixon, a former governor and United States senator from Montana, and in 1912 the Bull Moose campaign manager, was an unsuccessful senatorial nominee against Senator Burton K. Wheeler [Dem.] two years ago.

Mr. Dixon said today that it should be a "horse race" between Galen and Walsh.

SMUGGLE FOSTER HERE TO ESCAPE GANG AVENGERS

Secrecy Veils Departure from Los Angeles.

$55,825 IN REWARDS.

Rewards totaling $55,825 are offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the slayer of Alfred Lingle, Tribune reporter. Of the $25,000 reward offered by The Tribune, $10,000 will be paid to any person who will give confidential information identifying the slayer of Lingle. All information should be sent to the headquarters established by State's Attorney Swanson in Room 503 Temple building, 77 West Washington street. Telephone State 3729.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 16.—[Special.]—Frank Foster, indicted for the murder of Alfred Lingle, was spirited out of Los Angeles late this afternoon and is now speeding toward Chicago on a transcontinental train, the name of which was not divulged. He should arrive in Chicago by Sunday.

Extraordinary precautions were used to guard against Foster's assassination by gangland enemies. He had been held incommunicado overnight in an outlying jail, his whereabouts known only to officials of the Los Angeles police department and to the two representatives of State's Attorney Swanson of Chicago, Detective Sergeant John Scherping and Investigator Edward Dudley.

Smuggled Out of Los Angeles.

So secretly was Foster's departure handled that newspaper men here did not learn of it until three hours afterward. He was put in a closed car and a dash was made to a nearby city, presumably Pasadena. There it was believed he and Scherping and Dudley boarded the train for Chicago.

It was regarded as problematical tonight whether Foster and his guards will remain on the train for the entire trip, or leave it somewhere along the line and complete the journey by airplane.

Before their departure Dudley was reported to have expressed a real concern for the safety of his prisoner on the journey to Chicago. It was understood that he and Scherping had debated the advisability of permitting Foster to don a bulletproof vest, but what decision they reached was not learned here.

REESE STILL MYSTERY

The whereabouts of Leland H. Reese, gangland reporter for the Chicago Daily News, was somewhat of a mystery yesterday, as conflicting reports were received by investigators.

Although two weeks have gone by Reese has not given the police in Chicago any information on the gang attack made upon him on July 4, which he described in a signed article in the Daily News. Reese asserted that gangsters trailed him for ten miles as he was driving near De Kalb, and that finaly the gangsters' car forced Reese's automobile from the road into the ditch. The police reported yesterday that they have received no account of the attack from Reese.

Neither has Reese divulged to the police the source of the death threats which he said had been made against him, the investigators learned. In his article Reese said that he believed Julius Rosenheim, paid informant for the Daily News, was murdered by members of the Capone gang in an attempt to intimidate the News' editors, but as yet he has given no evidence to the police to support his belief.

Rumors were current yesterday that Reese has definite information as to who were the killers of Rosenheim. Rosenheim was shot to death on Feb. 1, on the street near his home and the new reports on his activities are that he was extorting money from vice mongers and speakeasy operators under threat that he would expose them in the Daily News.

Grand Jury Call Expected.

It was considered certain that although Reese has made no report of these happenings to the police he will be called before the grand jury. This led to reports that he had left the city, but later reports, regarded as authentic, indicated that Reese has been secluded in a near north side hotel under the protection of his bodyguards.

Indications that other employés of the Daily News also have information which may shed light on the killing of Rosenheim were seen yesterday in reports that definite complaints of the activities of Rosenheim and of Reese had been made some time ago, even before the murder of Alfred [Jake] Lingle, TRIBUNE reporter.

One rumor was that reports had been investigated by the Daily News that Rosenheim was involved in racketeering activities, but that no verification was found.

Shortly afterward, Rosenheim was murdered. At the time of the murder the fact that Rosenheim was employed by the Daily News was not made public. Investigators declared yesterday that there might be a likely motive for the murder of Rosenheim in the effort of racketeers to halt Rosenheim's reported extortions.

It was reported that the grand jury, after receiving the testimony of Harry T. Brundidge, staff reporter of the St. Louis Star, who made charges of racketeering against certain Chicago newspaper men, will summon Reese and possibly other employés of the Daily News in an effort to develop all possible clews leading to a solution of the Rosenheim murder.

Other reports were that the grand jury plans to call witnesses in the Lingle murder case, but it was pointed out that a well organized staff of State's Attorney Swanson, headed by Assistant State's Attorney Charles F. Rathbun and Pat Roche, chief investigator for Mr. Swanson, is now actively engaged in that investigation. Mr. Rathbun and Mr. Roche, it was pointed out, have called hundreds of witnesses before them, from whom have been developed facts upon which it is hoped to bring about a full solution of the Lingle murder.

It was also stated that the grand jurors by a vote promised State's Attorney Swanson that they would call no witnesses the questioning of whom might embarrass the investigation of Mr. Rathbun and Mr. Roche. Despite this, reports were spread from some quarters that it was planned to call former Police Commissioner Russell, Corporation Counsel Ettelson, former Chief of Detectives Stege, Scarface Al Capone, and others, and to go over some of the ground which has already been covered by the prosecutor's office.

Free Milk Handed Out to Hundreds of Children

Penny Week O. K.'d

A resolution requesting Mayor Thompson to issue a proclamation setting aside July 21-27 as Penny week to raise funds to buy milk for the city's underprivileged children was passed yesterday by the city council. The action followed the petition of the Chicago Babies' Free Milk Fund, Inc., of which Mrs. E. R. Graham is president.

"A booth has already been established at 44th street and Ashland avenue," explained Mrs. Graham yesterday. "We have been distributing a pint of milk each to 500 children daily.

"From the proceeds of Penny week hope to start a fund to establish thirteen booths in the congested districts."

10TH MAN SLAIN AS DETROIT GANG WAR CONTINUES

Four More Marked to Die, Police Say.

Detroit, Mich., July 16.—[Special.]—Detroit's tenth gangster killing in two weeks occurred early this morning, when two women, aroused by shots under their windows, hastened outside and found the huddled body of David Overstein, former member of the "Purple" gang, in an east side alley. Unlike previous victims, Overstein had been "taken for a ride." The others had been shot down where found.

The present series of killings began with the murder of Gasparri Scibilio and Sam Parrino in Scibilio's fish market May 31.

This was followed by the double slaying of William Cannon and George Collins of Chicago on July 3 as they sat in an auto in front of the La Salle hotel on Woodward avenue, Detroit business street.

Four days later machine gunners invaded the gas station of Joseph and Sam Gaglio, east side bootleggers, and mowed them down.

July 9 Lotis Candea, a beer runner, was shot down and Henry Topancey, an east side gangster, was shot to death July 12 as he sat in his car at Field and Jefferson.

ALCOCK COMMANDS CAPTAINS TO REPORT PROGRESS ON CRIME

Acting Police Commissioner Alcock's recently announced policy of holding captains responsible for crime in their districts was put into operation last night with the issuance of an order that they submit reports by 9 o'clock tomorrow morning of all murders, robberies, burglaries, rape cases and bombings committed in their districts between July 1 and July 16, inclusive.

The captains are ordered not only to list the progress of investigations in all cases, but to particularize on how the work was done, and by whom. Also in every instance where they have not obtained a solution, Alcock wants to know why.

In the original announcement of the new policy Commissioner Alcock said that captains who did not reduce crime in their districts would be taken before the trial board on charges of inefficiency and neglect of duty.

CITY GETS $1,200 LOEB-LEOPOLD EVIDENCE BILL

A reminder of the Loeb-Leopold case was presented to the city council yesterday in the claim of Frank Ropke, who has a boathouse at 91st street and the Calumet river, for $1,200 for the use by the police of a boat, equipment and a diver. The equipment was used in June and July, 1924, in diving for the typewriter to be used as evidence in the trial of Loeb and Leopold for the murder of Bobby Franks. The claim, presented by Ald. William A. Rowan [10th] was sent to the finance committee.

COUNCIL ADOPTS 'BABY BUDGET'; O. K.'S BOND SALE

Will Act on July 29 on New Tax Levies.

The city council yesterday adopted supplementary appropriations, known as the "baby budget," totaling $7,399,369. It was the last legal budget of this kind. The money for the appropriations was obtained under provisions of the relief bills passed at the recent special session of the legislature, one of which took away the power of the aldermen to make additional appropriations at the mid-year.

The aldermen also took a step toward rehabilitation of the city's financial structure. Ordinances authorizing the sale of bonds, without a referendum as provided in the relief bills were adopted at the same time as the "baby budget."

Ordinances for Bond Sale.

Among these ordinances were those authorizing the sale of $12,000,000 in bonds to set up the city's working cash fund, which is designed eventually to establish the city on a cash basis; $12,500,000 to set up a similar fund for the school board; $7,000,000 to take up the deficit of 1928 and an ordinance authorizing the sale of 1929 and 1930 tax warrants now held in special funds of the city.

In an appropriation of $47,200 to Corporation Counsel Ettelson the aldermen included an item of $25,000 which he is instructed to use in the condemnation of land for the opening of a subway under the Illinois Central tracks at 47th street. Only $5,000 is expected to be necessary this year for the opening of the street, which will be the south entrance to the World's Fair grounds.

In the midst of the financial deliberations word went out that the police and firemen, whose salaries for a month were due yesterday, will be paid for two weeks tomorrow. The salary money was collected by City Treasurer Peterson from the miscellaneous revenues paid in recently and by borrowing $500,000 from special funds.

The budget was approved unanimously by the council by a vote of 45 to 0. Mayor Thompson indicated that he will sign it if the corporation counsel's office does not find any flaws. Allowing for the ten days that the budget must be published before it becomes a law, the aldermen set their next meeting for July 29, at which time the tax levy ordinances will be adopted and the council will adjourn for the summer.

$2,877,800 for Interest.

Interest payments on tax warrants, the appropriation for which amounted to $2,877,800, composed the major item of the budget. Other large sums turned over to city departments included $1,444,145 for the police department; $626,000 for the fire department; $566,400 for the department of gas and electric light; $500,000 for street cleaning, and $160,220 to the health department.

Acting Commissioner of Police Alcock expressed gratification late yesterday afternoon when reporters informed him that the council had authorized a salary of $12,000 a year for him while he is acting police commissioner, effective from the time he took over the position. As first deputy, his civil service rating, Alcock received $8,000 a year. The salary for the commissioner's position in the regular budget is $10,000.

Other Measures Postponed.

Besides the "baby budget" and the bond ordinances, three other important measures were taken to the council—the new telephone company franchise, the city's lease of 585 acres of school board land for use in developing the municipal airport, and the amendments to the meter ordinance, which order the meterization of every water consumer in Chicago. Action on these was deferred to the July 29 meeting.

The meter amendments provide that Commissioner of Public Works Wolfe shall ask for bids within thirty days for the purchase and installation of 400,000 meters at an estimated cost of $16,000,000, the installation to take place over a period of five years. While this program is pending the council authorized Wolfe to purchase approximately 3,000 meters for $47,500.

The sale of city property at 117-119 North Franklin street, where a fire company is situated, to the Illinois Bell Telephone company for $146,000 also was authorized by the council. The company is to lease space to the city in a proposed new building on the site for the use of the fire department.

Catch 30 Putting Slugs in Telephone Coin Boxes

Detective Sergeants William Lawler and William Smith, maintaining an all day vigil yesterday at the twenty telephone booths in the Uptown elevated station, arrested 13 men for putting slugs in the coin boxes. Seventeen women were caught, but were released after reprimands.

COUNCILMEN MIFFED OVER AIRPORT LEASE; HIT AT SCHOOL BOARD

In retaliation for the rental and conditions imposed by the school board in the city's lease of 585 acres of school land for development of the municipal airport the city council yesterday directed Ald. Dennis A. Horan [21st], chairman of the committee on streets and alleys, to charge the school board for any privileges granted to it by the city in the future.

"The school board has received numerous grants and privileges in the form of free street and alley vacations, free water and free permits of various kinds," said the resolution introduced by Ald. Horan and passed by the aldermen. "The city has repeatedly gone out of its way to aid the board through the advancement of funds which enabled the board to pay its employés.

"But the airport lease, in the judgment of a number of the members of the council, reflects a distrustful attitude on the part of the board toward the city and militates against the best interests of the aviation industry which the council is endeavoring to serve."

PATRICK HENRY HAS HIS DAY IN THE CITY COUNCIL

His Ancestry? Well, Ask the Aldermen.

Ald. Sheldon W. Govier [9th] and Ald. Thomas F. Byrne [15th] had a debate in the council meeting yesterday on the antecedents of Patrick Henry. Ald. Byrne closed the debate with an echo of the famous words of the revolutionary orator, "Give me liberty, or give me death."

The two aldermen talked at the same time and continuously for approximately ten minutes. An occasional sally, however, broke out above the din and was greeted by a gallery audience with applause and cheers that seemed to favor Ald. Byrne.

A Question of Descent.

"When you found out that Patrick Henry was Scotch you wouldn't mention his name," shouted Ald. Govier, who boasts of his Scotch ancestry to Byrne, the Irishman.

"That's not so," retorted Byrne. "If a man is born in a stable that does not make him a horse." And warming up to his subject he continued:

"This makes us play a second fiddle to England. George Washington and Thomas Jefferson said to keep out of entangling alliances. We got out from under the rule of England once, but it seems that she will dominate us again. [Applause.] People have bled and died for freedom. This is the greatest country in the world."

Foes of Treaty Win.

The subject of this debate was a resolution introduced by Byrne and signed by Ald. Terence F. Moran [16th], A. J. Horan [29th] and John J. Hoellen [47th], urging Senators Deneen and Glenn to prevent the approval of the London naval treaty by the senate. Questions of parity and the size and elevation of guns were not mentioned. Three aldermen, Charles S. Eaton [5th], Govier and John A. Massen [48th] went on record as voting "no" as the council adopted the resolution.

GUARD W. S. FINUCANE VILLA.

William S. Finucane, vice president of the board of local improvements, has a police guard stationed at Gaynor villa, his summer estate in St. Joseph, Mich., following three attempts to rob it.

'BABY' BUDGET SAVES POLICE RADIO SYSTEM

Acting Police Commissioner Alcock declared yesterday that the installation of the police radio system would be completed and in operation in time to prevent a revocation of its allotted wave length.

F. H. Schnell, chief of staff of the Radio and Television institute, had informed Alcock that the permit for use of the wave length will expire on Aug. 1 and there was danger of its not being renewed unless it were actually being used.

Alcock explained that completion of the radio system had been held up by depletion of the department's appropriation for that purpose, but that the city council, in passing the "baby" budget yesterday had approved an item of $25,000 which was considered sufficient for the work. "We'll go right ahead now," he said.

Mr. Schnell said there were applications from fifty to eighty police departments for wave lengths and there were not enough to go around so that Chicago should take all precautions to keep what it has.

Alcock said three transmitters have been planned, one of which already has been set up at the Warren avenue station. The others are to be at the Town Hall and Wabash avenue stations. Two hundred receivers to be put in squad cars have been purchased and are ready for use.

It was estimated that the cost of installation and maintenance for one year will be $92,935 and Alcock said the money is at hand.

JESSE JAMES III., KIN OF OUTLAW, ARRESTED IN BANK

Jesse James III., 29 years old, grandson of the notorious robber of a former generation, was arrested yesterday in the First National bank at 33 South Dearborn street after he tried to obtain a book of blank checks without having an account at the bank.

Sergt. Joseph Mallow of the detective bureau took him into custody. He had told the clerk his name was E. M. Mahoney. He told Sergt. Mallow he had been sent to get the checks for John Travis, owner of a restaurant at 54 East 18th street. Travis admitted he knew James, but denied sending him to the bank.

"I'd like to change my name," said James.

COUNCIL PICKS ENGINEER FOR SUBWAY DESIGN

Fisher Named Attorney for Committee.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

The city council yesterday selected the nucleus of a staff for subway construction and authorized the surface and elevated lines to spend $12,000,000 on improvements and extensions before consolidation.

Ald. McDonough, chairman of the local transportation committee, informed the council that engineers estimate it will require four months to prepare plans and specifications for the first subway. Robert Ridgway, chief engineer of the New York transit commission, will boss the job as consulting engineer. He will be paid $2,500 a month.

Kelker to Be Chief Engineer.

R. F. Kelker Jr. will be chief engineer at $100 a day. He will also be a member of the advisory subway engineering commission, which will have these additional members at $1,500 a month each: George M. Wisner, George C. Lenth, Edward J. Noonan, and David A. Wallace. They are directed to "proceed with all practicable speed." Ernest R. Graham was selected as consulting architect. He insisted upon donating his services.

Walter L. Fisher was appointed as chief counsel with a compensation of $5,000 a month for himself and assistants in his office plus any actual cash outlay in performance of duties.

Maj. Kelker's compensation is limited to time devoted to subways, but the $1,500 a month each for Messrs. Wisner, Noonan, Wallace and Lenth is not so restricted nor are they required to devote their entire time to subways in the resolution adopted.

Albert Warns Against Pay Roll.

"Let me warn you against building up a huge pay roll for experts," commented Ald. Albert. "Wallace and Noonan have been on the pay roll a long time and haven't been doing much lately so far as I know. Some of our experts go to the municipal reference library, copy out stuff from reports of previous investigations, and send in their bills."

"We are getting our help at less cost than New York pays," said Ald. McDonough, "and the aldermen may have a statement of expenditures each month."

The string was untied from the $500,000 appropriation for subways and $78,000 was given President Faherty of the board of local improvements to spread the special assessment which will pay part of the cost of subways. Another $78,000 was appropriated from the corporate fund to Mr. Faherty for the purpose of widening North State street. It is too narrow for a four track subway.

Praise Work of Fisher.

The council expressed appreciation of the "invaluable services so conscientiously rendered" by Mr. Fisher in the transportation negotiations. It also expressed its thanks for the services of James Simpson, Col. A. A. Sprague, Charles M. Thompson, Joseph R. Noel and John A. Carroll of the citizens' transit committee and their lawyers, Sidney S. Gorham and Allan T. Gilbert.

The ordinance permitting the present transportation lines to proceed with $12,000,000 of improvements received unanimous approval. It stipulates that the money spent shall be part of the $65,000,000 pledged to be expended in the first three years after consolidation. Attorney Fisher had the transit committee amend the preamble so that the council would not proclaim that there is going to be a delay in the consolidation because three surface line companies are in the hands of receivers.

Hail "Civic Victories" in Car Plan, Relief Bills and Seaway

Prominent Chicagoans met yesterday at the Hotel La Salle to celebrate three recent accomplishments hailed as "civic victories." The meeting was attended by 500 business, professional and industrial leaders at the call of the Chicago Association of Commerce.

The three achievements were listed as the adoption of the traction ordinance providing for a comprehensive unified local transportation system; enactment of the citizens' committee relief bills, designed to solve the city's financial problems; and passage of federal legislation providing for completion of the Illinois waterway and appropriating $7,500,000 for it.

Says Ordinance Marks History.

"Passage of the traction ordinance by the voters of Chicago is destined to take its place alongside of three other great epochs," said Dean Charles M. Thompson of the University of Illinois, a member of the traction settlement committee. He named the other epochs as the opening of the Illinois-Michigan canal in 1848, the great fire of 1871 and subsequent clearing of the way for new city planning developments, and the World's Fair of 1893.

Chicago hitherto has been in the position of an otherwise healthy and ambitious athlete trying to give his best despite a badly strained vertebrae, Dean Thompson said. With the transportation settlement, the city has been returned to a complete use of its power, he declared.

Silas H. Strawn, chairman of the citizens' relief committee, declared that Chicago should be back to normal tax conditions by the end of 1934.

"Relief Bills Restore Order."

"That date may seem like a long way off," he said. "But to collect five years' taxes in four years will be rather an outstanding achievement for a city of such size and complex problems as Chicago. Enactment of the committee relief bills has brought order out of the financial chaos which threatened Chicago and Cook county."

William R. Dawes, president of the Mississippi Valley association, discussed the Illinois waterway.

"Congressional action in taking over the Illinois waterway system as a federal project and authorizing the use of water from Lake Michigan for navigation purposes reopens to the people of Chicago the markets of the Pacific coast and South America, which have been closed to local merchants and manufacturers since the completion of the Panama canal," he said.

City Council Resolution Urges Hiring of War Vets

The city council yesterday adopted a resolution introduced by Ald. William D. Meyering [8th] and Ald. A. J. Horan [29th], both veterans of the world war, to designate the week of July 21 to 28 as "Veterans' Employment Week." The resolution urges that employers of labor in Chicago and the United States help those who helped the country in time of war by "hiring a vet" and that veterans be given a preference over nonresident labor in the construction of world's fair buildings and the subway.

Erosion

Along the banks of the Mississippi, the current is known to play amazing tricks—cutting off one man's property; building up another's. This is one case in a million. In the great majority of instances land has all the attributes of safe and remunerative investment and none of the disadvantages accruing to speculation. Land is the basis of all wealth.

EVANSTON WIFE TO GET THIRD OF FLAGLER ESTATE

Fortune Estimated to Be Nearly $15,000,000.

New York, July 16.—[Special.]—Two nephews and a grand niece share equally the estate of Mrs. Ida Flagler, divorced wife of the Standard Oil millionaire and railroad builder, estimated at twelve to fifteen million dollars.

They are: Mrs. Ruth Taylor Pontius of Evanston, Ill., wife of a medical student; William W. Taylor, a lawyer of New York City, and George W. Taylor, contractor and builder, of Los Angeles.

Letters of administration have been granted in Surrogate's court in Orange county, New York, to William W. Taylor, C. N. Cavenee of Chicago, and Albert Ely of New York. The latter two are lawyers who for years represented the other two heirs.

Received $20,000 Annually.

Other and distant relatives of Mrs. Flagler who have been receiving annuities for several years will receive nothing from the estate. The annuities ceased with Mrs. Flagler's death last Saturday.

Each of the three heirs to the estate has been receiving $20,000 annually from Mrs. Flagler's income, and although their annuities also ceased with her death all are well to do.

Mrs. Flagler had been mentally incompetent for twenty-one years, a patient in a sanitarium at Central Valley, N. Y.

Valued at Nearly $15,000,000.

The estate Mrs. Flagler left had grown from a $2,000,000 fund which her husband, Henry M. Flagler, set aside for her in 1909. It consisted of stock of the old Standard Oil company. None of it ever was sold, all rights were exercised, and on Jan. 12, 1930, it had grown to $15,275,000.

Since that time the stocks have increased in value and now are estimated to be worth something between $12,000,000 and $15,000,000 at the market.

Mrs. Flagler had made no will before she lost her reason, so under the law the estate must be divided among her brothers and sisters or their direct descendants.

THREATEN GAG RULE TO SPEED NAVAL TREATY

Sen. Watson Moves to Limit Debate.

following reservation providing for freedom of the seas:

"Whereas, Section 5 in an act of congress approved on Feb. 13, 1929, provides as follows:

"'1. That the congress favors a restatement and recodification of the rules of law governing the conduct of belligerents and neutrals in war at sea.

"'2. That such restatement and recodification should be brought about, if practically possible, prior to the meeting of the conference on the limitation of armaments in 1931; and

"Whereas, the American delegates to the London conference failed to carry out this express direction to them by the congress to consider the question of the freedom of the seas at said conference, as shown by the statement of Senator David A. Reed on page 111 of the Congressional Record of July 11, 1930; now

Restates Congress' Mandate.

"Therefore, Be it resolved by the senate, that as a condition to the ratification of the foregoing treaty by the United States, it is understood and agreed that hereafter the high contracting parties, in both times of peace and of war, will respect the rights of all neutrals to the absolute freedom of the seas outside of territorial waters; and it is further expressly understood and agreed that each and all of said high contracting parties will guarantee among themselves, and as far as they can to other nations, the natural rights of all neutral nations and their nationals to ship their goods, wares and merchandise on the high seas, in times of peace and of war, to and from all nations, belligerents or neutrals, without interference or molestation or injury, and before this ratification becomes effective this reservation will be agreed to in writing by each of the other signatories to said treaty."

Hoover Opposes Both Riders.

The administration has turned thumbs down on both these reservations, despite the fact that President Hoover proposed to Prime Minister MacDonald of Great Britain the dismantling of British bases off our shores and that the senate unanimously adopted the freedom of the seas proposal last year. The Tennessee senator twitted Senator William E. Borah [Rep., Idaho] on his opposition now to the freedom of the seas proposal, of which he was the author in 1929.

"I want to say," said Senator McKellar, "that I have not only a great admiration for the senator from Idaho [Mr. Borah] but I have a real and genuine friendship for him. I respect his attainments, his honesty, and his sincerity, and how he can, in the face of his record and the record made here last Friday by Senator Reed, when he admitted the American delegates refused to even consider the question of the freedom of the seas, when they had been directed by law to do so and when Senator Borah was responsible for that law, it is inconceivable to me that he would vote for this treaty and I will have to see him cast his vote that way before I will believe it."

Senator Key Pittman [Dem., Nev.] indicated in a speech that he will vote against the treaty because of the refusal of President Hoover to submit the secret documents bearing on the negotiations.

"Drunkenness Is a Disease and I Can Cure It"
—Leslie E. Keeley, M. D., LL. D.

THE EDITOR of a powerful Chicago Newspaper before his death, challenged this statement of Dr. Keeley that "Drunkenness is a disease and I can cure it." He defied Dr. Keeley to cure the men whom he would send to the Institute. The results were so convincing that, through his great newspaper, he was personally responsible for thousands of men and women taking The Keeley Treatment for Liquor.

Dandruff Destroys Hair —Get Rid of it

On every scalp there is constantly forming a scurf; this is commonly called dandruff. This fills up the pores of the scalp so the hair cannot breathe—result: the hair loses its life, becomes dead and falls out. Get rid of the dandruff and you will soon overcome this. Soaps and shampoos only partially help—the safe, surest and quickest way to get rid of dandruff is to wash the head every day for a few days with liquid Calonite. This will dissolve away every particle of dandruff and leave the pores of the scalp free and your hair will soon stop falling, regain its life and lustre. Then once a week will keep it in wonderful condition. Get some liquid Calonite from your druggist and try it today.

TAKE YOUR NOSE OUT OF BAEDEKER
(A thought for those who dread guide book-travelling.)

STATISTICS are dull but Europe is swell. Don't read about dead things, do live ones.

For instance, eat your way brightly around succulent Paris where food is food, where every side street has a pearl among restaurants... where all the "a la's" on the a la carte or table d'hote menu at the Country Club were invented. Drive to one of the restaurants in the Bois and eat in the truly grand manner. It's supposed to be expensive, but it won't cost you half of what you pay right here at home.

After you've had your fill of Paris, fly across the Channel to London.

SEE THE CITY WHERE MAN IS STILL KING

The orderly shops along Piccadilly which ignore women and display socially accepted neckties, fancy braces (suspenders in America), and the right kind of socks. Watch the pictorial soldiers changing guard at Buckingham Palace. See a drawing-room comedy acted at its best.

As a preface to all this jollification, get in a smiling mood. Go in a big ship where you have staterooms with beds, plenty of baths, oceans of room, a menu a mile long, soft-mannered, swift-footed stewards at your beck and call. Which means the Aquitania, the Berengaria, the Mauretania.

93 CITIES IN U. S. HAVE POPULATION OF OVER 100,000

25 Added to This Class Since Last Census.

Washington, D. C., July 16.—(AP)—An upward leap of population that has carried 25 additional cities over the 100,000 mark, making a total of 93 American cities of this class, was shown today by complete Associated Press census compilations for the larger municipalities.

A careful count of the inhabitants of these cities has reached a total of 36,393,221, or more than one-quarter of the nation's estimated population.

15,000,000 in Five Cities.

In five cities alone more than 15,000,000 persons were shown to dwell. Led by New York, with its nearly 7,000,000 inhabitants, the four other cities in the million class in order of their size are Chicago, Philadelphia, Detroit and Los Angeles.

The California metropolis is a newcomer to the "largest cities," having jumped from tenth place in the list by virtue of an increase of 113.59 per cent over the 1920 census.

Cities Are Listed.

TEXAS' POPULATION IS 5,810,683; GAIN OF 24.62 PER CENT

Dallas, Tex., July 16.—(AP)—A compilation of figures released by census supervisors, completed today by The Associated Press, shows that the 1930 population of Texas is 5,810,683, an increase in the last decade of 1,147,455, or 24.62 per cent.

All sections participated in the growth, but the greatest increases were in the Panhandle, West Texas, the Rio Grande valley and a number of coastal areas.

Petroleum developments in the western area apparently was the chief reason for it's great growth, as most counties in which fields were brought in during the decade more than doubled their 1920 census. Similar increases were noted in the Rio Grande valley and along the gulf coast.

Rhode Island Has 687,020.

Washington, D. C., July 16.—(AP)—Revised census figures give Rhode Island a population of 687,020, an increase of 82,623, or 13.7 per cent.

U. S. Marine Plane Crashes in Dense Nicaraguan Woods

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, July 16.—(AP)—A United States marine Corsair plane crashed today while making an aerological flight near Tecuantepe, 10 miles south of Managua. It was reported tonight that one of the two occupants had been killed. The crackup occurred in a densely wooded section. A relief party of marines was sent to the place. Semi-official reports said the surviving flyer had been critically injured.

F. GOLDSBOROUGH, HURT IN PLANE CRASH, IS DEAD

Young Pilot Who Hit Tree Fails to Rally.

Bennington, Vt., July 16.—(AP)—Frank Goldsborough, 19, holder of three junior transcontinental flight records, tonight joined his father, Brice Goldsborough, also an aviator, in death.

Unconscious since brought to a hospital here, hours after his plane had crashed into a fog hidden tree Monday, Goldsborough died as his stepmother hastened to his bedside.

Father Died in 1927.

The Dawn, Mrs. Frances Grayson's trans-Atlantic plane, in 1927 carried his father to death in one of the unsolved mysteries of attempted trans-Atlantic flights.

The youthful flyer died in a coma that had enshrouded him sixty hours before when his plane struck a tree while flying in a fog. Goldsborough had shown no improvement since he had been extricated from the wreckage of the plane, which had pinned him down for 18 hours while an army of men searched for him.

Crash Into Trees.

With Donald Mockler of New York, Goldsborough was on his way to Keene, N. H., Monday when they encountered a thick fog. In an effort to get below the fog Goldsborough dropped to a level of 2,500 feet only to crash into the trees of a mountain. Mockler was slightly injured and tried to extricate the unconscious Goldsborough from his pilot's seat. For an hour he worked, but on failing he set out in search of aid.

For five hours he wandered through strange country before reaching this village. A posse was started out into the gathering twilight led by Mockler. Throughout the night the men searched and finally they found the wreckage with the young flyer still alive.

AUTO PLATES FOR 1931 ARE TO BE BLACK, GREEN

Springfield, Ill., July 16.—(AP)—Illinois automobile license plates for 1931 will bear black letters on a field of light green, Secretary of State William J. Stratton revealed today in announcing the award of a contract for manufacturing the plates.

The contract was let to the W. F. Robertson Steel and Iron company of Springfield, O., on its low bid of approximately seven and nine-tenths cents per pair. This price is almost one-half cent cheaper than the cost of the plates a pair last year.

Secretary Stratton in announcing the award explained that the cost of registration per car in connection with the issuing of the plates will not cost more than three and a half cents.

U. S.-BUENOS AIRES FLYERS, LOST IN FOG, SAVED BY PARACHUTES

Monroe, Ga., July 16.—(AP)—The proposed nonstop refueling flight of the monoplane K of New Haven from New York to Buenos Aires ended near here today, when the ship crashed and the crew of three leaped to safety in parachutes.

The flyers, Garland Peed, Jimmy Garringan, and Randy Enslow, were lost for eight hours in a fog. With her gasoline tanks empty, the K went out of control. Peed ordered his men to leap, and followed them.

They landed without a scratch a mile from Bostwick, which is 15 miles from here. The ship plowed into the ground about one-half mile away and was demolished.

CHICAGO FLYER KILLED IN PLANE CRASH IN EAST

Roy Ahearn, well known Chicago aviator, who for the last two years had been one of the operators of the Red Wing flying service at Ware, Mass., was killed near Ware yesterday when the wings of his plane collapsed while he was attempting an outside loop at an altitude of 10,000 feet. The ship crashed into a field and Ahearn was crushed to death in the wreckage.

He was 26 years old and had been a pilot for several years. In 1927 he announced plans for competing for the $25,000 Dole prize for flight from San Francisco to Honolulu, but his plane did not start. While he was a resident of Chicago Ahearn lived with his sister, Mrs. W. F. Terrell, at 4831 Crystal street. Besides Mrs. Terrell, he is survived by his widow; another sister, Miss Ruth Ahearn, and a brother, John Ahearn, both of Chicago.

That Nice Husband of Yours

He's very clothes-conscious and not a bit color-blind

By DOROTHY DIX

A talk with women of CHICAGO

CLOTHES-CONSCIOUS? Of course he is—that nice John, Richard, Harry, you've taken for better or worse.

Don't you believe he doesn't notice the FROCK you have on. He may not be able to describe the exact style, but he knows whether YOU look well in it and he knows, too, what COLOR it is. He's not the least bit color-blind.

Men Love Color

Don't think you must wear the very latest thing the moment it comes out. There is all the ALLURE in the world in a simple little blouse or dress if its COLOR is becoming to you—and if it has lost none of its original freshness and charm. For it's COLOR that takes a man's eye!

Clever wives invariably follow two very simple rules—

FIRST: they are careful to select colors that are becoming.

SECOND: they keep the colors unfaded, undiminished in their alluring, vital charm.

"But how can we keep colors as alluring as new?" women ask me. "Washing so soon leaves them faded, lifeless."

It is true that just ordinary "good" soaps take some of the color out along with the dirt, but the famous Lux is especially made to keep colors appealing—fresh—vital. It cleanses without disturbing the most delicate flower-like tint, any more than plain water will.

In Your Home, Too

Not only your clothes—but your home, everything associated with YOU—should seem charming to your husband.

Your dainty curtains, table linens, slip covers—Lux will keep all these lovely, with the inexpressible charm of fresh, vibrant color. DOROTHY DIX.

Perfect! (Left, above) Sample washed 12 times in Lux. The color has all the thrill of new—when you wear it the emotional power of color adds its magic glamour to you!

Disappointing! (Right, above) Sample washed 12 times with ordinary "good" soap—undeniably faded. Not actually ruined, but the color has lost its original lovely appeal.

If it's Safe in Water,
It's just as Safe in LUX!

MOVE FOR TRUCE IN INDIA; PLAN TO FREE GANDHI

Will Ask Revolt Leader to London Parley.

Great Britain and India, will be obtained.

A bitter struggle is being waged here between the government and the two opposition parties over the composition of the British delegation to the round table conference.

Under the original terms, the reference to the British representation at the conference was "his majesty's" government, and the Laborites hold that this means that all members of the delegation must be members of the government party. Both Conservatives and Liberals claim the question of India is far too important to be settled by one party alone, and are insisting on their right to share in seats at the parley.

VICEROY PICKS DELEGATES

BY CHARLES DAILEY.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BOMBAY, July 16.—Viceroy Lord Irwin today named nine princes and five ministers, including two Britons, as representatives of the Ipdian states at the round table conference in London Oct. 20. The choosing of delegates from the provinces and presidencies presents many difficulties. The various minorities are demanding a larger voice, while nationalist congress members continue to shun the conference preliminaries until assurances are given that Mahatma Gandhi and other jailed leaders will be freed.

The governor, in opening the conference, said present conditions could no longer continue, because trade and business has become paralyzed.

Bengal Riots Continue.

CALCUTTA, India, July 16.—(AP)—Four rioters and eleven other persons have been killed and five government officers and two natives injured in disorders at Kishorenanj.

MAN SHOT TO DEATH, 2 HELD IN RUM BATTLE

Hampton, Ia., July 16.—(AP)—One man was shot to death and his two companions, a man and a girl, were arrested following a gun battle between alleged rum runners and federal agents near here late tonight.

Harland Peterson, 35, was the victim. His companions were Louise Wheeler, 26, and Cecil Vinton, 25, both of Waterloo, Ia.

Six officers, including federal agents and Hampton authorities, drove to a lonely spot about 10 p. m. where one of the federal officers had arranged a meeting with Peterson with a fake "order" for alcohol.

Peterson drew up in his automobile and alighted with a gallon can under his arm, the agents said. He walked over to one of the officers, who then displayed his badge.

Peterson dropped the can, drew his gun, and fired once, missing, officers said. The agent drew his own weapon and fired, killing Peterson.

Shanghai Under Martial Law; Reds Stage 3 Riots

[Copyright: 1930: By the New York Times.]

SHANGHAI, July 16.—All zones in Shanghai are under martial law tonight as a precaution against further outbreaks by communists, who today launched three serious riots in Nanking road, the main business thoroughfare. Tram cars and foreign owned automobiles were stoned and store windows smashed.

EGYPTIAN MOB PARADES WITH 13 RIOT VICTIMS

Bodies Given Up After Hospital Is Stoned.

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, July 16.—(AP)—The bodies of thirteen victims of yesterday's rioting in Alexandria were carried through the streets of the city today in a great demonstration by Nationalists.

During the late afternoon several thousand Egyptians assembled outside the government hospital and began pelting it with stones. The police, commanded by Fitzpatrick Bey, who was injured in yesterday's rioting, had great difficulty in restoring order.

The reason for the attack on the hospital was an announcement that the procurator-general had refused to allow the removal of the bodies of the victims of yesterday's clashes until post-mortems were held. The mob agitated to get the bodies so as to give them public burial.

Carry Biers Shoulder High.

The bodies finally were handed over to the crowd after the formalities of the post-mortems had been completed. The biers then were carried shoulder high by members of the crowd. The procession was quite orderly. Frequently the demonstrators shouted: "Long live Nahas." Nahas is former premier and leader of the Nationalists.

During the day a communique was issued stating that in all fourteen persons were killed in yesterday's clashes, thirteen of them natives. The other was an Italian, who died from heart dispase, although he had been knocked on the head in a clash between strikers and police.

Britain Sends Two Warships.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, July 16.—Prime Minister MacDonald in the house of commons today made it clear that while Great Britain has no intention of intervening in the quarrel between the Wafd party and King Faud in Egypt, it will insist on the fullest protection of foreigners, and that for this purpose has already sent two battleships to Alexandria to watch events. The ships are the Queen Elizabeth and the Ramillies, both carrying eight 15 inch guns.

Two Pay for Crimes in Oklahoma Electric Chair

State Penitentiary, McAlester, Okla., July 17 (Thursday).—(AP)—Tom Guest, 47, convicted murderer, and James E. Forrest, 23 year old Negro sentenced for an assault upon a white woman in Stephens county, paid with their lives in the electric chair here early today.

TROOPS BATTLE INDO-CHINA MOB OF REDS; KILL 3

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, July 16.—The sinister thunder in the east, which is still rumbling in India and which yesterday signaled bloody riots in Egypt, has been heard again in French Indo-China.

Hearing that communists were running wild in the village of Tan Thuan Tay, in the province of Sadec, the French administrator sent a detachment of twelve native soldiers to restore order.

The troops were met outside the village by a mob of 500 natives, drunk from rice wine. The mob was armed with clubs and coupecoups—a curved knife on the end of a long pole which is capable of lopping off the head with one stroke.

The officer ordered the mob to disperse. The answer was a howl of rage, and he gave the order to fire. Three leaders of the mob were killed.

Quarry Pool Yields Body of Missing Aurora Lad, 9

Nine year old James Kissell, son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Kissell of Aurora, who had been missing for two days, was found drowned yesterday in a stone quarry pool near his home. It is thought he fell in while fishing.

When Pain Comes

Two hours after eating

What many people call indigestion very often means excess acid in the stomach. The stomach nerves have been over-stimulated, and food sours. The corrective is an alkali, which neutralizes acids instantly. And the best alkali known to medical science is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained the standard with physicians in the 50 years since its invention.

One spoonful of this harmless, tasteless alkali in water will neutralize instantly many times as much acid, and the symptoms disappear at once. You will never use crude methods when once you learn the efficiency of this. Go get a small bottle to try.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 25c and 50c a bottle—any drugstore.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.

Don't worry, Madam, Gold Dust will clean it up like magic!

WHEN anything STICKY or GREASY gets on your kitchen floor, it's always best to clean it up RIGHT AWAY. There's a soap that's MEANT for such dirty jobs as that. It's Gold Dust, the PEPPY cleaner that cleans things CLEAN.

EXPENSIVE CHIPS and FLAKES are fine for lingerie and linen. GRITTY CLEANSERS have their place for scouring pots. But to clean tile or porcelain, floors or woodwork, Gold Dust is the soap to use.

GOLD DUST contains more REAL SOAP. That's why you don't have to RUB and SCRUB the way you do with ordinary cleaners.

If housework has been a DRUDGERY to you, if you're WORN OUT from trying to keep your house NEAT and CLEAN, you're going about it WRONG.

Gold Dust makes housework EASY. Takes all the BACKACHE out of scrubbing. Gold Dust DISSOLVES the dirty dirt and WASHES it away. So to save yourself WORK and TROUBLE get a package of Gold Dust from your grocer TODAY. It comes in two convenient sizes.

FOR DIRTY DIRT USE GOLD DUST

Woodwork washed with expensive flakes or chips looks gray and smudgy, not quite clean.

Harsh cleansers are so likely to scratch and mar. And they leave unsightly deposits of grit.

SAFELY DRIVE TWICE AS FAR WITH THIS GREAT NEW OIL

CAR OWNERS REPORT

NOW you can buy a better-refined oil that is good for twice the mileage that you can safely use ordinary oils. The New Waxfree Havoline is the first 100%-distilled unblended paraffin-base oil ever refined for summer use.

Produced by the revolutionary new Govers Process, it contains no volatile elements to "go up in smoke"—no wax to turn water-thin with heat! Its summer grades possess greater heat resistance—remain oily longer—than any other oil of the same body at high motor temperatures.

Because Waxfree Havoline doesn't "break down" with heat like other oils, it gives your motor far better protection. You can use it longer, and your motor will run "sweeter." Just add a quart when necessary—critical motorists are finding it still too good to drain after 1500 miles.

Drain and refill with the proper grade for your car—today! At 35c per quart it is the most economical oil per mile you can buy.

ASKS TO DIVORCE HUSBAND MISSING FOR FIVE YEARS

Vanished on Ship; New Evidence of Suicide.

New York, July 16.—[Special.]—Mrs. Grace Pomeroy Hendrick Patterson today asked the Supreme court to dissolve her marriage to George W. Patterson Jr., missing since 1925, under the so-called "Enoch Arden" law.

The court action probably marks the end of a tragic mystery that five years ago startled New York social circles. Patterson, who had been voted the man "most likely to succeed" by his fellow graduates of the class of 1914 at Yale, disappeared.

Later, a note was found tucked behind a bureau in his bedroom, in which he deplored his failure to live up to his classmates' prediction, and announced his intention to commit suicide. Mrs. Patterson was an expectant mother at the time and, while a country-wide search was being made for Patterson, she gave birth to a daughter, Joan, who now is four and a half years old.

Evidence of Actual Suicide.

Mrs. Patterson's father, Ellwood Hendrick, expressed the belief that Patterson had killed himself by jumping overboard from a steamship, but the papers filed for the first time brought out evidence that the young man actually had done so.

On Feb. 18, 1925, the papers state, Patterson told W. R. Thompson, who is not further identified, that he was depressed.

"They voted me the man most likely to succeed when I was at Yale," the papers say Patterson told Thompson, "and look at me now. I've wasted the last ten years."

The following day, according to Mrs. Patterson's application, he sailed aboard the liner President Monroe on a trip around the world. He was last seen on the deck of the liner on the night of Feb. 20.

Had Inferiority Complex.

Patterson was a son of Prof. George W. Patterson of the University of Michigan. He served with the French foreign legion during the war and was shell shocked. His wife and family, at the time of his disappearance, expressed the belief that his war injuries caused the "inferiority complex" from which he suffered.

The Pattersons were married July 4, 1924, at Simsbury, Conn., where the Hendricks have a summer home. Miss Hendrick had been one of the most active members of the younger set in New York society, and the wedding was one of the events of the season.

Patterson had been married once before, to Miss Susan Ryerson of Chicago, who died several years before his wedding to Miss Hendrick.

WAR VET OUT OF JOB OFFERS HIS EYES TO SCIENCE TO GET CASH

Bridgeport, Conn., July 16.—(AP)—Two of Bridgeport's unemployed, neither with immediate prospects of finding work, are willing to gamble with their eyesight for sufficient funds to carry them through the present business depression.

They are: Chester Taylor, 35, married world war veteran, and Hormidas Pelliter, 29, formerly of Lawrence, Mass. The hazard they invite, inoculation with the dread trachoma germ, is one recently declined by Woo Dak Sen, Chinese convict in New Mexico, in exchange for commutation of his death sentence.

Taylor isn't sure just what trachoma is, nor does he care.

"If the disease kills me," he said, "I'll die content knowing that I've provided well for my wife."

Mrs. Ruth Bromley Taylor, his wife of eleven years, is opposed to her husband being the subject for the test regardless of how much money he might gain that way.

Girl's Guest Killed by Fall from Porch of Her Home

Walter De Lia, 19 years old, 617 Beloit street, Forest Park, was killed last night when he fell to the ground from the rear porch at the home of Miss Dorothy Boehm, 18 years old, 400 Lathrop avenue, Forest Park, where he was visiting. The porch railing gave way when De Lia leaned over it to retrieve a burning cigaret stub which had fallen to a ledge.

HUSBAND CHOKED HER, MRS. CONDON SAYS IN COURT

Thomas Condon, head of Condon Industries, Inc., and his wife, Mrs. Mary D. Condon, of the Sherwin-on-the-Lakes apartments, yesterday exchanged charges of cruelty and drunkenness in Superior Judge William's court. Mrs. Condon's suit for separate maintenance is being contested by Condon, who spent three days in jail last month for trying to strike his wife's attorney in court.

Mrs. Condon testified that the most recent instance of her husband's cruelty occurred last June 1, at her apartment. The couple separated in September, 1928.

Condon took the stand late in the afternoon and repeatedly asserted that his wife became intoxicated several times each week, but when questioned he could not give specific dates. He made a blanket denial of his wife's charges of cruelty and then admitted he had slapped her during the argument last month in her apartment.

Lavine to Leave Jail If He Provides $15,000 Bond

Los Angeles, Cal., July 16.—[Special.]—Morris Lavine, newspaper reporter, today won a ruling by Superior Judge Rey Schauer permitting him to leave the county jail pending outcome of his appeal against conviction for attempted extortion provided Lavine meets certain conditions. Judge Schauer fixed bonds of $10,000 for Lavine's reappearance and the court also notified him he would have to post bond or cash for $5,000, which is the amount of the maximum fine imposed as part of Lavine's sentence.

HOPE TO PAY SCHOOL TEACHERS TOMORROW; $620,000 IS NEEDED

Lacking only an approximate $620,000 to pay all the overdue salaries of school teachers and other school board employés, President Caldwell of the board of education announced last night a hope that sufficient money would be raised today to issue pay checks tomorrow.

Certified public accountants labored over the school board books last night to prepare an official report with which it is hoped to obtain financial assistance from the banks today through the sale of tax warrants. The statement showed a total of $3,325,820 in cash on hand with a pay roll of $3,945,999 to be paid at once.

After a conference on the advisability of paying the checks on a prorata basis, the trustees decided against this step. The teachers and other employés should receive their full checks and not partial payments, it was agreed.

Trustee L. E. Myers was not as hopeful as President Caldwell. He expressed the belief that no sales could be concluded this week.

Some of the trustees pointed out that $332,000 in pay has been owed to civil service employés since June 30, and that many of them were in just as desperate straits as the teachers.

BOY, 3, ON 949 MILE TRIP ALONE TO SEE MOTHER

Robert Davis Jr., 3 years old, left on a North Western railway train last evening for Winnipeg, 949 miles away, where he will visit his mother, a British subject temporarily detained in Canada by the immigration laws.

Blackeyed and vivacious, Robert embarked with no fear of making the journey alone. He was placed in the custody of Conductor G. G. Davies by his father, a commercial artist living at 1440 Harding street.

FARMERS TOLD TO FEED CHEAP WHEAT TO COWS

East Lansing, Mich., July 16.—(AP)—Agricultural experts at Michigan State college offer a new form of farm relief to those who are worrying about the price of wheat.

Feed it to live stock, says a statement issued by four department heads. At present prices wheat is worth $5 more a ton as a dairy feed than as a commercial cereal, the experts assert.

3 shades in 3 days

"Years ago I started seeking a way to remove the ugly yellow from my teeth and keep them sound.

"Nothing I used could lift the veil of ugliness. Stain and tartar shamed me. Decay caused pain and dentist's bills. I decided to try Kolynos with its Dry-Brush Technique. A revelation!

"After the first brushing my teeth were whiter. Then I saw them whiten—3 shades in 3 days!"

If you want whiter, sounder teeth, switch to Kolynos. This double-strength dental cream does what no ordinary dentifrice can do... It removes the cause of stain, discoloration, tartar and decay—Bacterial-Mouth. That is why it whitens teeth so quickly.

Everyone who breathes has Bacterial-Mouth. Germs swarm into the mouth and attack teeth and gums. Kolynos gently removes this condition by killing the germs that cause it.

As it enters the mouth, Kolynos multiplies 25 times and becomes a surging, antiseptic foam that permits the famous Dry-Brush Technique.

You can feel this foam work. It gets into every pit, fissure and crevice. It kills germs... neutralizes acids and dissolves tartar ...purifies the entire oral cavity and quickly restores teeth to their natural whiteness, without injury. For 3 hours after each brushing this foam continues to clean teeth and combat germs that cause Bacterial-Mouth.

Make This Convincing Test

Try Kolynos. A half-inch on a dry brush, morning and night. Within a few days teeth will look whiter. Gums will look pinker and firmer. Your mouth will tingle with delightful freshness. Get a tube from any druggist.

CITY LOOKS INTO OLD QUARRIES AS WATER RESERVE

May Be Used to Increase West Side Supply.

City Engineer Loran D. Gayton started a survey yesterday to determine whether abandoned quarries on the west side of the city might be used as reservoirs to hold large reserve supplies of water. A map is being prepared showing the location of the quarries and their elevation above the lake and surrounding territory.

A remedy is being sought by Mr. Gayton for low water pressure areas on the west side during warm weather. The increased demand on the water supply in the summer for lawn sprinkling and household uses reduces the pressure at times so that occupants of upper apartments cannot draw water.

Would Relieve Pumps.

Mr. Gayton thinks the reservoirs might be filled late at night and allowed to feed the water mains during the period when the pumps are being forced the hardest.

The lake water is carried to the west side through large tunnels. In the hot weather, when faucets are turned on in nearly every home, additional pumps must be operated to force water up into the homes.

Plan May Not Work.

"It appears at first glance that the topography of Chicago is against the plan," said Mr. Gayton. "The quarries on the west side probably are not much higher than the lake and therefore the additional pressure exerted by the reservoirs would be slight. If the survey shows this is true the pressure from the reservoirs would not justify the expense of buying the quarries and lining them with concrete."

TRUCE REACHED IN LINCOLN PARK TRAFFIC STRIFE

Judge Delays Arrest of Six Policemen.

A temporary truce in the controversy between judges of the Municipal court and the commissioners of Lincoln park over the jailing of minor traffic law violators was in effect last night. Judge Frank M. Padden continued until July 30 the cases of seven park policemen, for whose arrest he issued warrants on the complaints of six business men. The ruling of the park board requiring a cash bond of $25 in speeding cases was suspended for investigation by the board.

Clash Over Bail Ruling.

Both actions followed a two months' war between the court and the park board during which Judge Padden has discharged all minor traffic law violators who have been held overnight in the park lockup. To make a test case the six citizens appeared in court yesterday and signed false arrest complaints against the policemen. None of the warrants were served pending action by the park board.

Under a court ruling of Jan. 6 all minor traffic violators must be released on their own recognizance when they establish their identity and show they are responsible citizens. The park board has refused to comply.

Olson Warns of Contempt.

"The park has no judicial powers," Chief Justice Harry Olson said. "They must bring their cases to the municipal courts and abide by court rulings. Issuing of bail is a judicial privilege and the park board may be held in contempt if the present course is continued. I will not stand for the jailing of citizens over mere technicalities."

The park board issued a statement in which it expressed a desire to cooperate with the municipal court and indicated that a conference will be held between Col. William Beckman, attorney for the board, and Judge Padden in an effort to solve the difficulty. The police department was instructed to obey the municipal ruling until further orders.

LONDON REPORTS ENGAGEMENT OF MARSHALL FIELD

[Copyright: 1930: By the New York Times.]

LONDON, July 16.—Mrs. Dudley Coates, known as one of the most popular figures in London society, has become engaged, according to the Daily Sketch, to Marshall Field, grandson of the Chicago department store founder. The wedding is planned to be held here in August.

Mrs. Coates was Miss Audrey James, and was considered the most beautiful debutante of her year. She was married in 1922 to Capt. Coates, whose death at the age of 29 was largely due to war wounds. She has been a frequent visitor to the United States.

FIELD IS IN EAST.

Marshall Field III. was in New York City last night but could not be reached for comment on London reports of his engagement to Mrs. Dudley Coates. Mrs. Marshall Field, the former Evelyn Marshall of New York, whom he married in 1915, has been in Reno since the first of May where, it is reported, she will bring suit for divorce after she has established six months residence. There have been previous reports that Mr. Field and Mrs. Coates plan to wed after Mr. Field is divorced.

Get RID of it!

New, pleasant way to remove

Dandruff in 3 days

Dandruff, whether dry or oily, should always be regarded as dangerous. Unchecked, it may lead to serious scalp infection, falling hair, and even baldness.

Dandruff is a condition brought about by over-activity of the sebaceous or fat glands which expel white globules called sebum. Many dermatologists assert that this over-activity is a result of infection.

Actual tests by thousands of men and women show that full strength Listerine used as a part of the regular shampoo, or independent of it, is highly successful in getting rid of loose dandruff and improving the condition of the scalp. In hundreds of cases, one or two treatments were found sufficient. In other cases three days were required. And in stubborn cases, ten days or more.

You simply douse Listerine on the scalp and massage vigorously till the entire scalp tingles. The massage is important as it increases the circulation of blood to the hair roots.

Listerine dissolves and removes the thick, greasy, repellent scales known as dandruff. It stimulates the skin around the hair and soothes and cools the entire scalp. Moreover when infection is present it instantly combats it. For Listerine, as you know, is a marvelous germicide and antiseptic.* (See below.) Lambert Pharmacal Company, St. Louis, Mo., U. S. A.

*Though safe to use in any body cavity, full strength Listerine kills even the Staphylococcus Aureus (pus) and Bacillus Typhosus (typhoid) germs in counts ranging to 200,000,000 in 15 seconds (fastest time accurately recorded by science).

that helped thousands find their favorite ginger ale...

There are three types of ginger ale flavor . . . Golden, Pale Dry and Sec (extra dry). To know which one exactly suits you, we urge that you make the "Taste Test" described below

Clicquot Club
GINGER ALES

Hear the famous Clicquot Club Eskimos every Friday night at 9 o'clock over WEAF and associated stations.

THERE are three types of ginger ale flavor sold today. And Clicquot Club makes all three. All are different, all are delightful.

But one of these ginger ales is sure to suit your taste better than either of the other two. And because it is not generally known that ginger ale comes in three different flavors, we are urging people everywhere to test their tastes and find which flavor suits them best.

As a result of making this simple test, thousands of people now get greater pleasure than ever before from drinking ginger ale. They have found the flavor that suits them perfectly.

The Test—To make this test you go to your dealer and get a bottle of Clicquot Club Golden, a bottle of Clicquot Club Pale Dry and a bottle of Clicquot Sec. Sample them all, one by one. Note the mellowness that is characteristic of them all. And note the difference in their flavor.

Clicquot Club Golden has long been known as a delightful health beverage . . . Clicquot Club Pale Dry is famous for its flavor either in recipe drinks or alone . . . and Clicquot Sec for that luscious "drier" flavor. You are sure to find, in one of these ginger ales, exactly the flavor you have always been looking for.

Same Quality Ingredients—Pure table sugar, fine Jamaica ginger root, real fruit flavors and pure water from deep rock springs . . . these are the ingredients that go into all three Clicquot Club Ginger Ales. The difference in flavor comes from the difference in blend, for each of these three has its own exclusive formula.

As a further evidence of their goodness and purity, all Clicquot Club Ginger Ales are put up in clean, new bottles. That means Clicquot Club uses only bottles which have never been used before. It is a safeguard of purity.

Aged Six Months in the Making—The rare, distinctive mellowness for which Clicquot Club Ginger Ales have long been famous comes from ageing six months in the making. This process is a secret with the Clicquot Club Company—a carefully guarded secret known to the makers of no other ginger ale. That is why you can never expect to duplicate Clicquot Club flavor, never find it in any ordinary ginger ale.

Therefore we urge you to go to your dealer and make the "Taste Test" today. It will show you beyond all question which ginger ale best suits your taste.

CHARGE CUSTOMS RACKET COST U.S. MILLION IN YEAR

2 Admit Passing Watches as "Earthenware."

BY TOM PETTEY.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, July 16.—[Special.]—The practice in customs circles of making "a little extra money on the side" has cost the government more than a million dollars in the last year in unpaid duties and has resulted in the smuggling into this country of millions of dollars of merchandise, it was charged here today in federal court.

A three-cornered plot involving crooked customs inspectors at the docks, examiners in the United States appraisers' stores, and importers who bribed them was revealed to Federal Judge Henry W. Goddard by Assistant Federal Attorney Alvin Sylvester.

Pass Watches as "Earthenware."

The charges were made during the arraignment of Samuel Stansfield and William F. Gilroy, former customs examiners, who recently pleaded guilty to picking up a bit of extra cash—about $14,000 they say—from passing a million dollar shipment of Swiss watches as "earthenware." The watch dealers who contributed the "extra cash" and already have departed for Atlanta prison have sworn they paid $140,000 to have the watches mislabeled.

Judge Goddard today deferred sentence for two weeks on the two ex-customs men and advised them to "come clean" as to the higher-ups in the government service if they knew what was good for them. Later today a shipping clerk in the appraisers' store was arrested.

U. S. Is Investigating.

The federal prosecutor said an investigation by treasury department agents was being continued in the hope the smuggling ring would be uncovered and broken up. He admitted they had failed to uncover the principals in the government service.

Eight customs men have been involved in smuggling exposés since January. In the watch case both Stansfield and Gilroy worked in the earthenware and pottery division of the appraisers' store.

"How did you get into these dishonest practices?" asked Judge Goddard.

"It is a general custom in the appraisers' store to make extra money," the men are said to have replied.

In the last year, federal authorities said, more than $2,000,000 worth of watches and watch parts alone had been smuggled into this country. It was intimated that other merchandise was coming in unpaid on an equally wholesale basis.

Big Stockholder is Bankrupt; Bare 2 Million Bank Shortage

Cincinnati, O., July 16.—(AP)—Shortly after Frank J. Dorger, majority stockholder in the closed Cosmopolitan Bank and Trust company, today filed a petition in bankruptcy O. C. Gray, state banking superintendent, said a $2,000,217 shortage existed in the bank.

The institution closed five weeks ago as the alleged result of the $1,000,000 check kiting operations of A. W. Shafer. Examiners also found Dorger's bank accepted $623,000 in fake securities from Shafer.

Gray's audit of the bank's books revealed liabilities of $9,131,024 and assets of $7,130,806.

May Liquidate in 5 Years.

The bank had 37,000 depositors. As a result of the $2,000,000 deficit bankers estimated depositors may receive about 78 cents on the dollar. Gray said it might take five years to liquidate the bank because some mortgages ran that long.

Common Pleas Judge Stanley Strubel said he would consider a contempt of court charge against Dorger and his daughter, Martha, who also filed bankruptcy proceedings, because the state last week was granted a temporary injunction restraining the Dorgers from disposing of their personal assets.

Bank Withstands Run.

Millbury, Mass., July 16.—(AP)—A rumor of a shortage in accounts precipitated a run of depositors on the Millbury Savings bank which continued throughout the day. Depositors were steadily paid and State Bank Commissioner Roy E. Hovey expressed the opinion the bank was sound.

The entire town police force and state troopers were required to keep order among those seeking to withdraw their accounts. About 200 persons still waited in a line at 3 p. m., the regular closing hour. The bank officials said, will be opened at the regular hour tomorrow morning.

Three Florida Banks Fail.

Tallahassee, Fla., July 16.—(AP)—Failure of three state banks and approval of a charter for a new banking institution were announced today at the office of the state banking department.

The first bank of Lake Worth, Fla., the Bank of Canal Point, Fla., and the Reddick State Bank of Reddick, Fla., failed.

ROBBER SLAIN, OFFICER SHOT; $60,000 STOLEN

Canton, O., July 16.—(AP)—Police tonight were holding James Romeo, 27, for investigation, as a result of the holdup today of two bank messengers in which one of a trio of robbers was slain, a bank messenger was wounded seriously, and $60,000 in currency was stolen and later recovered.

Charles Williams, alias Charles Kish, 25, of Cleveland, was shot to death in a pistol battle with Charles M. Riblet, former Canton police chief and chief of the protection service of the First National bank, who was wounded by two bullets from the robber's pistol.

Romeo was arrested in a raid on an obscure hotel in which police said they found a black satchel in which Riblet and J. S. Morris, chief teller at the bank, were carrying the money, and which contained $59,500. They reported finding $400 in the hotel room and $100 in currency in Romeo's pockets.

Riblet and Morris were accosted by two of the bandits in front of the post-office in the downtown business section within a block of the police station. When the robbers seized the money bag, Riblet drew a pistol but was shot down by Williams. As he fell Riblet fired twice, one shot striking Williams' right hand and the other his head, causing instant death.

Bandit Victim May Recover.

Willmar, Minn., July 16.—(AP)—Mrs. Hemil Johnson of Willmar, wounded by bandits who robbed the Bank of Willmar Tuesday, was "resting easily" tonight in a local hospital. Although her condition still is serious, hospital attaches said she had improved slightly during the day.

Two of the bandits are believed to have been wounded in the exchange of shots with townspeople.

The total loot obtained by the bandits was placed at $70,000 by Edwin Selvig, a vice president. This includes $42,000 in cash. An undetermined amount of nonnegotiable bonds were taken also, but the bandits will not be able to realize any money on these. The entire amount is covered by insurance.

MORGAN PARTY TO CROSS SEA ON NEW YACHT

New York, July 16.—[Special.]—J. P. Morgan, accompanied by four men friends, will leave for several months' stay on his 600 acre estate at Wall Hall, 26 miles from London, Friday, on his new $2,500,000 yacht, Corsair. The party will board the yacht in Long Island sound and will sail past the eastern tip of Long Island and across the Atlantic to England.

The Corsair, launched in April in Bath, Me., is 343 feet long, the largest yacht built for a private owner in America. Her average speed is 18 miles an hour. Capt. W. B. Porter and a crew of 56 will handle her on the ocean voyage. This will be Mr. Morgan's first eastward crossing of the Atlantic by yacht in years. He has been staying at his East Island estate since this spring.

ROB RACE FANS IN DAYLIGHT HOLDUP IN CANAL STREET

Three Chicago real estate men, returning yesterday from the Arlington race track, were robbed in a daylight holdup in Canal street, near Roosevelt road. They are J. C. Wilkinson, 6719 Ridgeland avenue, who lost $300; E. W. Altman, 7046 Stony Island avenue, $60, and Abraham Bernbach, 8157 Chappel avenue, $40. Two armed men in a sedan, believed to have trailed them from the track, forced their car to the curb, quickly took the money and sped away. They overlooked $1,000, Mr. Wilkinson said.

The Chance of a Lifetime to get plus value in Tires

The majority of people who read this advertisement are going to need tires this season; the time to buy them is right now.

Crude rubber is cheap; as a result tire prices are the lowest in history.

You can actually buy at this time the world's best tires for no more money than you used to pay for inferior or unknown tires.

You can buy Goodyear Tires on an extreme low-cost-mileage basis, and that is exactly what smart buyers are doing.

The special advantages to be enjoyed from Goodyear Tires are due to definite Goodyear superiorities in both tread and carcass, the two main parts of a tire.

The Goodyear All-Weather Tread is superior in traction, and everybody wants sure-footedness underwheel.

The Goodyear Supertwist Carcass is superior in vitality and long life, and this means economy and freedom from trouble.

These superiorities are not imaginary; they are real.

Any Goodyear Dealer will be glad to demonstrate the facts.

And the facts unmistakably are: Goodyear Tires do give greater value.

That's why Goodyear sales are going ahead at a rate surpassing any previous record.

That's why impartial investigation shows a nation-wide preference two-and-a-half to thirty times as great for Goodyears as for any other tire.

That's why Goodyear builds annually millions more tires than any other manufacturer in the world.

That's why more people ride on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind!

The dominance enjoyed by Goodyear Tires is not temporary or new—it has flourished for fifteen years strictly on a basis of superior quality.

If you want Goodyear value at bed-rock prices: now is the time to get yours!

BRITISH BASES IN AMERICAN WATERS.

Senator McKellar of Tennessee says he will propose, after his reservation for the freedom of the seas, a condition to the naval treaty requiring the disuse of the British naval bases in American waters, specifying Halifax, Bermuda, Kingston, Port Castries and Esquimalt. The precedent, if one is needed, is the provision of the Pacific treaty, a corollary of the Washington naval agreement, protecting Japan from American fortifications in far eastern waters.

The United States has never been able to make even a satisfactory beginning of negotiations with Great Britain relating to these naval bases and it is strange that they should be regarded as exempt from all tranquilizing agreements. President Hoover discussed them with Mr. MacDonald when the prime minister was in this country, but if there was any serious thought of doing anything about them it quickly disappeared out of the negotiations.

The United States has made it a point of policy to remove foreign contacts, particularly in the southern waters. That is consistent with the Monroe Doctrine. It has been done by purchase and by war, by displacing remnants of old European imperialism and by warding off new aggressions. The purpose has been the greater security and tranquility of the whole region. The justification has been the comparative peace of the lands involved. A diversity of interests and authority, drawing in various powers, would be dangerous.

The exception to this general rule has been the British territory, and for that there has been no warrant in the past and there is none for the future. There is merely an assumption that what holds good in every other respect does not hold good for the British.

Mr. McKellar's proposal is altogether pertinent to the agreement the United States is asked to make with Great Britain. It should have been pressed through the London conference. It should now be attached to the treaty if the senate ratifies it.

GANG EXECUTIONS.

Short but general newspaper notice has been given the fact that Detroit had ten gang murders in nine days. The police commissioner said that the city could reasonably hope for four or five more very shortly. There seemed to be an official satisfaction with gang justice as a substitute for legal justice, it getting to the same deserved mortuary results. Other communities have discovered that the substitute is not satisfactory, there being nothing, when law abdicates, to confine the executions within the gangs. No one perceives that more quickly than the gangsters.

The raiders who machine-gunned women in robbing the bank at Willmar, Minn., probably were not in other respects law abiding citizens whose conduct was dependable except when a small town bank proved an overstrain on their character.

Immunity from law in one respect breeds contempt in others. A dead gangster may be regarded as a community asset, but his killers are increased liabilities.

CHICAGO AND THE COUNTY.

Citizens of Cicero and Berwyn are said to be planning a campaign for annexation to Chicago. We wish them well. All of Cook county should be in the municipality. That would raise the political character of the city and help to mitigate and in many cases cure some of our most difficult problems. And it would do so without injury to the incoming communities in the long run. The interdependence of all parts of the county is inevitable. It is becoming more important and comprehensive as time goes on, not less so. The county towns can maintain a certain administrative independence of the city, but they are unavoidably concerned in the solution of the problems with which the city is confronted, its social, governmental, its physical and moral problems. The policy of the suburbs in trying to escape these responsibilities while enjoying all advantages from the business and social resources of the city is not only selfish but shortsighted.

There are over 600,000 citizens in Cook county outside of the city. They cast at the last presidential election over a quarter of a million votes, or about one-fifth as many votes as were cast in Chicago. They could be, if they chose, a decisive reënforcement of the forces of good government in the great community whose welfare is essential to their own. The business prosperity of Chicago, its credit in the world, its competent government, its dealing with health, crime, vice, roads and communications, education and citizenship are all of vital consequence to every one within the borders of Cook county and far beyond them. Some day we trust there will be a metropolitan district effectively organized, but meanwhile all of Cook county should come within the municipality and work directly for its progress and well being.

THE TELEPHONE FRANCHISE.

A new telephone franchise ordinance has been approved in committee by a vote of 10 to 6 and is shortly to come up for a vote in the council as a whole.

It is unthinkable that the city council can accept the ordinance in its present form.

The grant under which the company has been operating provided that it must pay the cost of relocating its wires along subway routes should subways be built. That provision has been in the ordinance for twenty years, and if the company did not reckon its depreciation accordingly, as an attorney for the company says it did not, the fault does not lie with the city.

The relocation of the utilities is going to be an expensive business, running into many millions of dollars. The city council is now asked to make a gift to the telephone company of its share of the cost. Had subways been built five years ago there could have been no question of the obligation of the company to pay the cost of moving its wires, and we can see no justification for any alderman's exonerating the company of this responsibility now that subways are nearer reality.

We repeat, acceptance of this ordinance in its present form is unthinkable.

CANADIAN RECIPROCITY.

THE TRIBUNE'S correspondent in Ottawa thinks that the Canadian government desires to terminate the tariff reprisals which were instituted after the passage of the Hawley-Smoot act. He quotes from a number of the campaign speeches of Mr. Charles A. Dunning, the Canadian finance minister. Mr. Dunning has said on several occasions that as soon as the United States shows a willingness to make concessions to Canada, Canada will make concessions to us.

This is all to the good. The fact is that Canada has been by far our best customer abroad and we have been Canada's principal export market. These trade relations cannot be explained wholly on the ground of our proximity. They derive more particularly from the fact that there is such a thing as a North American civilization and a North American standard of living which both countries share. Our products have been exchanged freely because our habits of life are more nearly identical than those of any other two nations in the world. A tariff is not needed to protect American industry against the competition of cheap labor in Canada, and vice versa.

We do not blind ourselves to the fact that the farmers of this country are alarmed at the possibilities of competition from Canada. It is that rivalry which has brought about the Canadian reprisals with resulting injury to the business of each country. We do believe, however, that a way out may be found which will be mutually acceptable and we are convinced that the two governments should explore the possibilities in this direction with as little loss of time as is possible.

FOOTNOTE ON THE RAPACITY OF UNCLE SHYLOCK.

The Brussels correspondent of the London Statist, a financial journal, writes as follows in the edition of June 28:

"Foreign loans are flatly in opposition to the policy of the [Belgian] government and the national bank, which consider that the domestic market is well stocked with idle funds and that it is quite unnecessary to burden the trade balance of Belgium with loan interest and refunding charges. This theory was expounded in December last when the city of Antwerp managed to float in New York a loan of ten million dollars. A few weeks ago Antwerp again tried to borrow 400 million francs on the American market, but the proposal was vetoed by the government after sharp resistance by the city, which alleged that the terms on the American market were much less onerous than those offered by the Belgian banks. The government kept to its point and the city of Antwerp issued its loan in Belgium. . . ."

AD FOR THE RED UTOPIA.

The disposition of the soviet foreign agents to stay abroad indefinitely is giving some amusement in Germany as well as some irritation at Moscow, where it has transpired that the diplomatic service is to be strengthened by a more careful selection of personnel. There have been several not inconspicuous cases in which soviet emissaries have refused to return to the joys of life under the dictatorship of the proletariat, and a Berlin newspaper estimates that the number now has passed 200. This is a poor sort of advertisement for the one and only working Utopia and it becomes worse as investigated. Several of the unfaithful are merely embezzlers, but more are proletarians who, having saved enough to live on under the evils of capitalism, prefer to endure them permanently rather than return to the benefits of communism. They strike a sour note for the drive in America for an uprising of our proletariat, now under investigation by Congressman Hamilton Fish.

Editorial of the Day

AGAINST THE INCOME TAX.

[Akron, O., Beacon Journal.]

Ohio's industrial and business interests are organizing to resist adoption of the income tax as a measure of raising revenue for Ohio. Their arguments against this tax are sound. They show that it would place Ohio in a field of taxation already exploited to the last degree by the federal government, and that it would have the effect of driving industry to states where this double levy is not practiced.

There is no disputing the fact that industry and business already pay heavy taxes upon their tangible property. They pay besides several forms of taxes for the privilege of doing business. As individuals their owners or shareholders pay personal and property taxes, supplemented by the special levies made upon them as owners of motor cars. The income tax has been suggested to the legislature simply because it is a simple and convenient way of causing millions more of tax revenues to flow into the state treasury, where they will remain as a constant temptation to officialdom to go ahead with extravagant plans for spending.

In suggesting that the tax reform most needed in Ohio is that of balancing and reducing state and local budgets the committee representing these taxpayers has gone to the heart of the tax problem. But this alternative of reducing public expenses as a relief to taxpayers is a thing never thought of. It is not popular with interests which depend upon overstuffed public treasuries for profits derived from wanton spending of the public money.

ONIONS AND ANEMIA.

ONIONS played a part in the defeat of Mayor Mitchel, running for a second term as mayor of New York. His first term had included a period of hard times during which the mayor and his cabinet had run a series of "at cost" markets. At the time onions were expensive and apples were cheap. These markets carried apples by the carload, but no onions were offered for sale.

When the man was a candidate for reelection men broke up his meetings [or tried to] with wild cries, "We want onions." Of course, there is the possibility that the vociferation came from men paid to shout the slogan, and the rank and file cared not a whoop. Nevertheless, the slogan, "We want onions," is entitled to a place in a history of New York City politics.

Now there comes scientific proof that too much onions can do harm to those who eat them. Dr. W. H. Sebrell has proved that dogs on a heavy onion diet become very anemic. The membrane of the mouth becomes very pallid. Since a dog has no complexion, in the sense humans use the term, the only rough way of judging anemia is by the color of the membrane of the mouth. Blood tests confirmed the suspicion that the dogs were profoundly anemic. However, in all other particulars the dogs acted as though they were normal.

The anemia developed quite rapidly in dogs eating an abundance of the vegetable. The tendency was for the blood to return to normal later on. The amount of onions fed to these dogs was large, ranging from 75 grains to ½ ounce for each two pounds of the dog's weight.

The advocates of onions will claim that people do not eat as much onions as were fed to these dogs and that the conclusions therefore should not be applied to human beings. It is true Dr. Sebrell was investigating the possibility of producing black tongue by a heavy onion diet and that in this he failed. It may be that the onion advocates will prove that onions in the amounts eaten are not harmful. However, as the records now stand the next step is up to the onion advocates.

HEAT STROKE AND PROSTRATION.

G. M. T. writes: What is the difference between a heat stroke and heat prostration and the treatment for the different cases?

REPLY.

Sunstroke is due to exposure to sunlight. In sunstroke the fever is very high. There may be convulsions. Some use the term heatstroke as synonymous with sunstroke. In heat prostration the skin is cool. There may be no fever. At any rate, the fever is not high.

Sunstroke, or heatstroke, is treated by cold baths or applications of large quantities of ice to the head, principally.

In heat prostration ice baths should not be used, though tepid baths may be indicated. Treatment consists in the use of mild stimulation. Rest is of service.

TUMOR AND RADIUM USE.

Mrs. M. W. A. writes: 1. Can a tumor be dried up by radium? 2. Where the patient is weak is such treatment dangerous? 3. Can a tumor develop into cancer?

REPLY:

1. Many tumors are successfully treated with X-rays and radium.
2. No.
3. Cancer is one form of tumor. A few tumors begin as something else and end in cancer. That, however, is not the rule.

HOW TO GAIN WEIGHT.

Miss M. E. writes: I am 16 years old, 5 feet 7 inches tall, and weigh 105 pounds. I have been told by a nurse that I am 29 pounds underweight. What can I do that I may gain weight?

REPLY:

Go to bed every night at a regular hour. Sleep nine or ten hours. Take life easy. Avoid worry. Don't fidget. Watch well nourished people eat. Follow the example. Eat a bowl of milk and sugared rice or crackers just before retiring to sleep.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE EFFECTS.

Mrs. L. M. J. writes: How does a person suffer who has Bright's disease? Is there any cure for it? What should this person eat?

REPLY.

Urinalysis gives the only certain proof of this disease. Among other symptoms sometimes present are: night urination, frequent urination, dropsy, shortness of breath, heart murmurs, high blood pressure, anemia, disturbed vision, headaches, convulsions. The diet depends on whether the disease is acute or chronic and whether or not dropsy is present. We have a booklet on this subject which you can get by sending ten cents and stamped, addressed envelope.

FRIEND OF THE PEOPLE

Letters to this department must be signed with names and addresses of writers.

MINORITY A DEFENSE.

Chicago, July 14.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—Some time ago, while I was a minor, I signed what I thought was an identification card for an older brother who was buying some clothes on the installment plan. Now I find that the company from whom the clothes were bought has garnisheed my wages without any notice or explanation to me whatsoever. Keeping in mind the fact that I was a minor at the time I signed the card, and furthermore did not know that it was anything but a certificate of identification, can this company make me pay the bill run up by my brother? R. Q.

Your minority is a defense. Your employer should ignore the notice.
TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

MADE TEMPORARY STAY PERMANENT.

Chicago, July 14.—[Friend of the People.]—Is it possible for a man who entered the United States five years ago for a temporary stay to obtain his first naturalization papers now and become a citizen? He married a year ago and his wife is a citizen of this country. O. T.

No.
FRED J. SCHLOTFELDT,
District Director of Naturalization.

CLAIM FOR INJURIES.

Chicago, July 14.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—In the case of an accident, how long can a person wait before filing a claim in court? J. K.

The limitation period for personal injuries is two years.

DOWN ON THE OLD CINDER PATH.

How times do change, to be sure, as Cleopatra remarked to her boy friend, Marc Antony. Now, when we were young our most beloved spot was the old swimmin' hole. How the sunlight used to filter down through the grand old trees that inclosed it, and how cool the water was, and how dismal to our ears were the hoarse, raucous shouts of "CHAW BEEF!" as two or three young demons tied our shirt sleeves in bow knots! The "chaw beef" yell meant that we would have to use our teeth in untying the Gordian knot. But we loved the ole swimmin' hole, and no matter how old we grow, we'll always think back to the days when we ran all the way out there in the summers of long ago, spurred on by the slogan, "Last one in's a yaller dog!" Of course we have bathing beaches today, but they haven't got the gentle charm possessed by boyhood's most loved spot, th' ole swimmin' hole.

But wait a minute! There does seem to be a place right in the very heart of this great crowded city (see last census report) that has something of the peace and serenity of the ole swimmin' hole after all. It's the old cinder path. What, whats you, is the cinder path? Well, it's just a big open field, maybe ten, maybe twenty acres (we're not very good at estimating acreage), that some kind hearted park commissioners set apart for those ambitious souls who wish to learn or to practice driving a motor car. You get far away from the noise and tumult of Chicago when you glide around and around on the old cinder path. You don't have to bother about traffic, there's never very many cars there; and, besides, all the cinder path people have a sort of lodge or brotherhood of their own and regard each other with a kindly sympathy. The only rule seems to be for everybody to mind his own business and not go barging around all over the place, but to keep traveling round and round and round in a dignified, leisurely fashion.

And we're all sorts and conditions of men and women on the cinder path. There goes a woman in one of those imported chariots dolled up like a truck horse on the Fourth of July and with a haughty chauffeur in uniform sitting by her side. She's taking time off from counting her millions by learning to drive a car. She's perfectly harmless on the cinder path, but God help the women and children when she drives down to the loop. And there are girls being taught by their boy friends and women being taught by their husbands. It's easy to tell which from t'other; as one car slowly sweeps by we hear a masculine voice saying, "I wouldn't try to shift the mean old gear, dearie, without throwing out the clutch." Now, that would be a boy friend and his sweetie. But from the car following behind a gentleman's voice is saying: "Hell, it hain't a-goin' to go if you don't put your hoof on the accelerator. What's the big idea, anyhow?" That, of course, is a gentleman instructing his lady wife.

And the young man who waves his hand and points at your car as he goes by and kindly says, "Hey, feller, your back door is swingin' open, better shut it," and then ducks down in his car as though he thought some one was going to take a shot at him, is probably training to get a job driving a car for bandits, hijackers, or rum runners. But nobody bothers you or gives you a dirty look or yells: "Learn to drive, why don't you? Want to be a farmer all your life!" For you're not supposed to be a finished driver down on the old cinder path.

You just go on, round and round, or stop and reverse, or practice starting, whatever you like, and just the hum of the motors breaks the stillness, and so you whirl pleasantly on and on and on. And somehow it all seems so sort of far off—so like a place 'way down in the country—that you rather listen for waterfalls, the tinkling of cow bells, or the hooting of owls from the belfry of the village church. And night slowly steals on, and still you spin around the old cinder path and you wonder if somewhere in the world there are really hoarse voiced motor cops that bellow: "Hey! where you think you're a-goin'? Where's the fire?" Ah, nothing but sweetness, calm, and the peace that passeth human understanding come down on the old cinder path.

WISELY, BUT HOW WELL?

He who looks for surfeit wisely,
In the cool champagne of life,
Has no need for balm or bromo
In the morning-after strife.

He who sanely sips with Bacchus,
Straightly walks the prudent path,
Never suffers cosmic migraine
In the mourning aftermath.

He who does his misbehaving
Carefully, lives long, we're told;
As for us (by your permission):
We would rather not grow old!

OWEN PETERSON.

OH, ANNOUNCERS! It is with deep grief that while idly turning the dial on our radio yesterday an entirely unforeseen and most unfortunate incident occurred. One of your number was relating news happenings in this busy world and was endeavoring to pronounce the word "cham-pi-on," and he did it thusly—"champeen." Oh, tck, tck, tck! Again we say through muffled sobs: "Oh, English language, what crimes are committed in thy name!"

LAGNIAPPE.

THE NEW CENSUS reveals that New York has 250 farms within its city limits. Pooh! 'Snuthin'! Loz Onglaize has whole mountain ranges, long lovely valleys, wheat fields, orange groves, great gobs of the Pacific ocean, a desert or two, and large areas of the republic of Mexico within its city limits.

CHICAGO had real summer resort weather yesterday, but it is not a real summer resort, because it has no mosquitoes. A real summer resort must have big, ferocious man-eating mosquitoes and a fat man wheezing along every few feet saying, "Gosh durn 'em, they told me there was no hay fever in this damn place!" H. H. L.

FROM THE TRIBUNE'S COLUMNS

65 YEARS AGO TODAY

JULY 17, 1865.

CAIRO.—The steamer Niagara arrived with New Orleans papers of July 10. They reveal that the march of Gen. Merritt's cavalry through northern Texas has created the utmost consternation, as they are the first federal troops ever seen there. Planters of Brazoria county held a meeting and agreed to divide 5 per cent of the proceeds of their crops among all Negroes who worked faithfully, besides giving them rations, medical attendance and two suits of clothes. The planters also are to take care of the young and infirm.

NEW YORK.—A Texas letter to the Herald states that a treaty has been entered into by Col. Matthews of the United States army and Gen. Waite of the Cherokees by which all tribes formerly allied with the rebels will return to their homes and keep peace with the United States.

NEW YORK.—The Herald's special says that no appointment has been made to fill the Supreme court vacancy caused by the death of Judge Catron. The succession appears to be between Attorney General Speed and Horace Maynard.

CAIRO.—Such a large number of Negroes has accumulated at Memphis that Gen. Tillotson has been compelled to issue orders for them to return to their masters under pain of being arrested as vagrants, but assuring them that he will certainly protect them in all contracts made for their labor.

CHICAGO.—Harry L. Stouffer and Miss Annie Kendall were married at Trinity church by the Rev. Dr. Burroughs. George Marston, Esq., and Miss Mary C. Reilly were married at the home of the bride's parents on July 15. Henry Roe of Chicago and Marie W. Breedlove of New Orleans were married at the home of the bride's brother in the latter city by the Rev. Mr. Guion.

30 YEARS AGO TODAY

JULY 17, 1900.

LONDON.—The allies were repulsed in the desperate battle with the Chinese at Tientsin on July 13, in which the Americans sustained heavy losses. Rear Admiral Remy in a dispatch to his government at Washington confirms the reports from other sources. From his dispatch it appears that the following is an incomplete estimate of the casualities: Russia, 100 men, including an artillery colonel; Americans, more than 30 men, including Col. Liscum and several other officers; British more than 40; Japanese over 50, including a colonel; and the French, 25 men.

WASHINGTON.—It is China against the world, and war to the knife. That is the opinion of the best posted military and diplomatic men here. They look for a long period of warfare, marked by shocking butchery of foreigners all over China. The partition of China may not come, but the destruction of the present dynasty is believed to be inevitable. President McKinley is on his way back to Washington from Canton, O., to take personal control of the situation.

NEW YORK.—Clinton Page, manager of the Havemeyer estate at Mahwah, N. J., testified at the informal inquest that he saw Mrs. Natalie Havemeyer Mayer shoot herself. Members of the dead woman's family, however, insist that the shooting was accidental and the coroner is of the same mind.

NEW YORK.—As was expected by good judges of fighting, Terry McGovern defeated Frank Erne of Buffalo, inside of three rounds, at Madison Square Garden.

10 YEARS AGO TODAY

JULY 17, 1920.

LOS ANGELES.—Four earthquake shocks, three of them of unusual severity, were felt in Los Angeles and vicinity. Many persons were injured and extensive property damage resulted. There was a general emptying of buildings in Los Angeles, and thousands sought safety in the open spaces. Serious panics in stores and moving picture houses were narrowly averted.

SPA.—The Germans signed the allied protocol on coal tonight. The allies made no material concessions in the original proposals. The Germans must deliver 2,000,000 tons of coal a month, the allies paying 70 gold marks a ton, of which 35 gold marks are for a mining credit for Germany to purchase food and raw materials.

AGAINST THE BAR ASSOCIATION'S REFERENDUM.

Chicago, July 15.—As a member of the American Bar association may I express my disagreement with THE TRIBUNE editorial, "The Bar and Prohibition," relative to the action of the executive committee of the association in submitting to the members a referendum on the repeal of the 18th amendment? It says: "Lawyers do or ought to know the nature and limitations of political action and municipal law." They do; and they know that the 18th amendment was added to the constitution after the manner prescribed therein, and that the Supreme court has so held. Therefore its legality is no longer a question. Hence the referendum goes outside the domain of law and into the domain of social science, in which lawyers do not claim to be experts. The executive committee might as appropriately have referendumed the members on the doctrine of evolution or the desirability of birth control.

Moreover, a vote by the A. B. A. against the 18th amendment would not express the view of the lawyers of the country, for only one-quarter of them belong to this association. The A. B. A. is largely a paper organization. The greatest number ever attending any of these meetings was 1,574, at Memphis last year.

Like other men, lawyers will undoubtedly vote on this question accordingly as they want a drink or not. But as lawyers they should vote against the referendum and against repeal, if for no other reason than that no other profession, except possibly that of journalism, was more cursed by the liquor habit in the old days.

The editorial also says: "We realize that in later years legal education has been defective in this field"; viz., constitutional law. To the contrary; in latter years the constitution in law schools has been studied more than ever before in its history.

EDWARD T. LEE,
Dean, the John Marshall Law school.

MARKSMANSHIP.

Chicago, July 12.—It is logical to assume that under the traction ordinance recently adopted there will be considerable improvement in our local transportation service. However, it is my claim that there is one phase of the service in which there could be very little, if any, improvement, and that is in the marksmanship of the street car conductors. It has been my observation that some of these gentlemen are quite diligent tobacco chewers and that not infrequently, as a street car slows down to take on passengers, they will lean out to view their prospective patrons and then, as the car draws to a stop, withdraw into the vestibule of the car and expectorate a large quantity of tobacco juice. Whether this is done to show disdain for their patrons, or for amusement, or simply for relief, I do not know. It seems to me that their idea is to see how near they can come to the heads of people without actually hitting them, and if that is their purpose I must say that they succeed admirably. Having spent some time in the artillery of the United States army in France during the war, I feel competent to recognise first class marksmanship, and it is my conviction that some of these gentlemen of our street cars have no superiors anywhere. For instance, their calculations for wind drift border on the marvelous. Even in very high winds I have never seen any one hit, but there have been some unbelievably close calls. Our street car service is not now, and perhaps never will be perfect, but I am a citizen who believes in placing credit where credit is due, and these marksmen are certainly worthy of mention. W. R. O.

A SWINDLE.

Highland Park, Ill., July 11.—For the last two months a middle aged woman, gray haired, has been making home to house calls posing as a nurse employed at Highland Park hospital, claiming to have left her purse in the auto of a friend and asking for a loan of enough money to take her back, as she had to report for night duty. Sums from 62 cents to $1 have been loaned by many people, who have called the hospital and also have written to inquire.

This woman has given the name of Alice Simmons, Alice Smyth, Ines Waite, and Inez Wendt.

She is not, nor never has been, employed by us, and we hope she may be apprehended, as she is securing money from people who can ill afford to give it.

LENA M. JOHNSON,
Superintendent Highland Park Hospital.

HAIRY CHESTS.

Chicago, July 14.—Saturday I shoved myself down to the Clarendon beach. And what a sight I beheld there! Talk about nature unadorned! Whee! I certainly got an eyeful.

No, I'm not prudish. I used to think nature was beautiful, but I've changed my mind. Can any one tell me what beauty there is in a lean, hungry looking male with a hairy chest, hairy arms, and hairy legs, exposed to the public gaze? To me there is only ugliness to be seen, sheer, unadulterated ugliness!

Why don't men shave their arms and legs if they desire the beneficence of the sun's rays? Who can see beauty in a hairy ape? Not me.

RHODA RUTH AARON.

DIRTY LIQUOR.

Joliet, Ill., July 13.—Last week it was my opportunity to inspect an alcohol still shortly after its discovery by the authorities. This particular one had a tremendous daily capacity. If the smart set of cocktail drinkers and gin inhalers—who are so demanding and particular about their personal affairs, so fastidious about their eatables—could only have accompanied me! They would have seen the filthy, dirty, sickening manner in which the alcohol was distilled—as well as the slobs attending the brewing mess. W. J. B.

COUNTY CALLS FOR BIDS ON 14 PAVING PROJECTS

Take Action on First of 1930 Program.

BY HAL FOUST.

Cook county today is advertising for bids for fourteen paving projects totaling 12.7 miles, which will cost approximately $675,000. Bids will be opened on July 29 and contracts awarded within ten days thereafter.

This will be the first work under the $7,500,000 program of 104 projects prepared by a citizens' advisory committee for construction in 1930. Only a small part of the program will be built this year. Explanations for delays have included legal technicalities, right of way difficulties, and finances. By Aug. 1, half of the 1930 paving season will be history.

President Cermak of the county board, after telling of today's advertisements, also announced eighteen projects on which bids will be received next month. County Highway Superintendent Quinlan reckoned that all thirty-two jobs, with the exception of three bridges, can be finished before frost halts work.

The cost of the thirty-two jobs is estimated at $1,994,000.

The forty foot pavements included in the July 29 opening of bids are as follows:

95th street—Cottage Grove avenue to Yale avenue, 1.6 miles.
26th street—1st avenue to Des Plaines avenue, 0.5 of a mile.
Dixie highway—Holbrook to Flossmoor, 0.3 of a mile.

The other projects, twenty foot pavements, are as follows:

Ashland avenue—113th street to 119th street, 0.5 of a mile.
Kedzie avenue—Granville avenue to Devon avenue, 0.2 of a mile.
Kedzie avenue—Rexford road to Wireton road, 1 mile.
Gunnison street—Nagle avenue to Mason avenue, 0.5 of a mile.
Gunnison street—Nagle avenue to Harlem avenue, 0.6 of a mile.
Cicero avenue—Elston avenue to Devon avenue, 1.7 miles.
Cicero avenue—22d street to Roosevelt road, 1 mile.
Oakton street—3,000 feet east of River road to Rand road, 0.7 of a mile.
Oakton street—Rand road to Milwaukee avenue, 1.9 miles.
Busse highway—Miner road to Lundgren road, 1.1 miles.
Southwest highway—Will county line to Wolf road, 1.1 miles.

On Aug. 11, the county will receive bids for two forty foot paving jobs:

Ashland avenue—119th street to 123d street, 0.5 of a mile.
Southwest highway—111th street to Ridgeland road, 2.1 miles.

Bids for the following widening projects will be received at the same time:

Central avenue—Grand avenue to Higgins road, 3.5 miles.
95th street—Hamlin avenue to California avenue, 1.2 miles.
Lincoln avenue—Jarvis avenue to Carpenter street, 0.9 of a mile.

This batch of bids will also include twenty foot pavements for the following:

67th street—Cicero avenue to Crawford avenue, 1.1 miles.
Union avenue—47th street to 44th street, 0.4 of a mile.
Devon avenue—Canfield road to Avondale avenue, 0.5 of a mile.
Foster road—Busse highway to Ballard road, 1.1 miles.

On Aug. 25, bids will be received on the following twenty foot pavement jobs:

55th street—Millard avenue to St. Louis avenue, 0.1 of a mile.
Avenue L—106th street to 130th street, 1.3 miles.
Torrence avenue—138th street to 130th street, 1 mile.
1st avenue—Ogden avenue to 28th street, 1.5 miles.
Joliet avenue—Joliet road to 45th street, 0.3 of a mile.
Avenue L and O—130th street to 114th street, 1.2 miles.
Avenue O—C. & C. T. railroad to 130th street, 2.1 miles.

Late in August, bids will also be received on a Chicago avenue bridge over the Des Plaines river, a 1st avenue bridge over the Des Plaines south of Fullerton avenue, and a 1st avenue bridge over Salt creek near 40th street.

POLICE OF GARY, PRESS HUNT FOR MISSING WOMAN

Gary police continued to search yesterday for Mrs. Helen Edge, 21 years old, who disappeared from her home on June 17. Her husband, Edward Gerald Edge, 28 years old, a Gary druggist, is ill of pneumonia in a Gary hospital. The police are awaiting his recovery in order to question him on his wife's disappearance.

Neighbors yesterday said that Edge and his wife quarreled frequently since a year ago when Mrs. Edge intercepted a letter sent to Edge by another woman asking support for a child the woman said was his. According to Mrs. Vincent Jevicky, owner of the two flat building where the Edges lived, the couple had a serious quarrel the night before her disappearance.

Several days after she left the husband said his wife had gone to Detroit on a vacation, according to the landlady.

THE BEGINNING OF THE FULFILLMENT OF A PROMISE!

SEVEN months ago, when announcing the formation of the RCA Radiotron Company, Inc., the Radio Corporation of America said:

"The unification of vacuum tube development, manufacture and sales in the new company will undoubtedly enable it to meet fully and effectively the responsibility of leadership which rests upon the founders of the Radio industry in America . . . It will make possible added economy in merchandising and manufacturing . . ."

The new RCA Radiotron Company regarded this as a promise to produce and sell a product which would give good value to the public . . . a radio tube of the highest quality at the lowest cost . . . a promise to be fulfilled.

Now, the RCA Radiotron Company, Inc., is able to announce the beginning of the fulfillment of this promise.

Prices Reduced!

On July 17, 1930, the prices on four popular types of RCA Radiotrons will be reduced as follows:

Type of Tube	Old List Price	New List Price	Your Saving
224	$4.00	$3.30	$ .70
227	2.50	2.20	.30
245	3.50	2.00	1.50
280	3.00	1.90	1.10

These reductions make RCA Radiotrons available at lower prices than ever before.

RCA Radiotrons are—

The radio tubes that are recommended by leading set manufacturers.
The radio tubes that are the choice of leading engineers.
The radio tubes that are the standard of quality.

Give Yourself a Treat

Buy a new set of RCA Radiotrons today. They will help you to enjoy more the countless good programs which are on the air every day. Hear the finest artists just as though they were performing right in your home. You can get RCA Radiotrons at your nearest dealer.

THE HEART OF YOUR RADIO SET

"GLAND" DOCTOR TRIED BY STATE BOARD IN KANSAS

Claims Impossible Cures, It Is Charged.

Tokepa, Kas., July 16.—[Special.]—Dr. E. S. Edgerton of Wichita, president of the state medical society, was the principal witness in the "goat gland" hearing before the state medical board today.

The hearing was brought before the board by physicians of the state in an endeavor to revoke the license of Dr. John R. Brinkley, "gland specialist," of Milford.

Brinkley is accused of claiming impossible cures, of unethical actions in broadcasting his claims from his wireless station, KFKB, and of other practices injurious to patients and to the medical profession.

Rejuvenated 12,000, He Says.

Brinkley, in his radio talks, claimed he has rejuvenated 12,000 men and women. The medical association produced as witnesses a number of those he claimed to have helped. Physicians said these exhibit-witnesses were infected with diseases, some of them incapacitated for life.

When W. C. Ralston, assistant attorney general, had completed his direct examination of Dr. Edgerton, Brinkley had been dubbed a quack, an imposter, and a fraud. The gland operation he claims to perform had been denounced, and his prescriptions broadcast in the air had been denounced as "incomplete, inaccurate, hazardous, and a menace to public health."

When Fred S. Jackson, attorney for Dr. Brinkley, had completed his cross-examination of Dr. Edgerton the record showed numerous medical authorities holding gland transplantation as practical but never an admission from Edgerton that the gland transplantation as claimed to be performed by Dr. Brinkley as in any way successful.

Established Facts Brought Out.

Using some medical text books previously quoted by Dr. Edgerton as authoritative Jackson established the following facts as accepted by the more advanced members of the medical profession:

Auto-transplantation—the transplanting of a gland from one place in the body to another place in the same body—is general and generally successful if the operation is properly performed.

Homo-transplantation—the transplanting of a gland from one human being into another human being—has been successfully done thousands of times.

"Properly performed it generally is successful," Dr. Edgerton admitted.

Hetero-transplantation—the transplantation of a gland from an animal into a person—has been successfully done from the higher apes into persons in some authenticated instances, but the results are not permanent.

Extracts Are Used.

Gland extracts of animals are commonly used to strengthen or rebuild similar glands in human beings.

"You mean that the animal glands cannot be transplanted into the human bodies, but they can be squirted in successfully?" Jackson asked Dr. Edgerton.

Edgerton demurred.

"You concede that human glands can be successfully transplanted from humans to humans?" demanded Jackson.

"I don't know myself," replied Dr. Edgerton.

Dr. Fishbein Quoted.

"You don't dispute home implantation or transplantation, do you?" Jackson asked.

"No," responded Dr. Edgerton.

"But you said Dr. Brinkley's claims were impossible," Jackson said.

"No," declared Dr. Edgerton, "I said his description of the operation he claimed to perform was impossible."

JAMES M. LYNCH, PRINTERS' UNION LEADER, IS DEAD

Headed Long Fight for 48 Hour Week.

Syracuse, N. Y., July 16.—(AP)—James M. Lynch, for many terms president of the International Typographical union and leader of that organization's nation-wide battle for the 48 hour working week, died in a hospital here this morning of blood infections. He was state commissioner of labor under Gov. Martin Glynn and subsequently one of four industrial commissioners.

Probably the outstanding feat in the long career of James M. Lynch, was his determined and diplomatic supervision of the famous fight of the I. T. U. in the early 1900's, for the 48 hour week.

Although this strike developed into a bitter feud, not one case of any attempted violence was reported. The battle won, Lynch was reelected by acclamation to the presidency of the I. T. U., the first thus to be honored. That was in 1906.

Mr. Lynch's most recent public activity was his work as a member of Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt's commission to investigate the subject of old age security against want. This commission's work resulted in the passage by the legislature of 1929 of the old age security law.

Born Jan. 11, 1867, at Manlius, N. Y., he came to Syracuse in 1881 as a "printer's devil" on the Syracuse Herald. He stayed with the newspaper until 1898 when he was elected first vice president of the I. T. U., after holding the presidency of the local union for seven terms.

In 1901 he was elevated to the I. T. U. presidency, continuing to hold that office until 1914 when he resigned to become commissioner of labor.

SEWER CAVE-IN KILLS TWO MEN; THIRD INJURED

Two workmen were killed and a third suffered serious injuries yesterday when a sewer excavation twelve feet deep which they were digging at Archer and Oak Park avenues caved in. Those killed were John A. Callahan, 22 years old, 7933 Langley avenue, and Dominick Sylvester, 43, of 915 South Marshfield avenue.

Michael Sabelcarti, 33 years old, 1801 Taylor street, was alive when dug out of the cave-in. Physicians at Holy Cross hospital said they believe he will recover.

Without warning the loose earth piled on the rim of the excavation poured down into the ditch, burying the three men. Other workers dug frantically while awaiting the aid of firemen, in their efforts to rescue the three.

DETROIT MAYORALTY RECALL CAMPAIGN USES ALL RADIO TIME

Detroit, Mich., July 16.—(AP)—Every available minute of radio time has been contracted for by opposing forces in the campaign to recall Mayor Charles Bowles, and a dozen or more speeches are promised during each of the six days before the special election on July 22.

As the day for deciding the issue nears, the campaign, conducted entirely by radio to date, has become increasingly bitter, with the injection of personalities.

The mayor himself is scheduled to continue making an average of two speeches nightly.

Most of the opponents of the mayor who are taking an active part in the campaign supported him when he ran for election last fall. They accuse him of mismanagement of municipal affairs.

The religious issue has crept from the background with charges that the Ku Klux Klan is supporting the mayor. Mr. Bowles vigorously denies religious prejudice.

CHICAGO RESERVE OFFICER THROWN BY HORSE; DIES

First Lieutenant Harry William Wilson, 336 North Menard avenue, was injured fatally yesterday at Camp McCoy, near Sparta, Wis., when a horse he had been riding in maneuvers of an artillery unit stumbled, throwing the officer and trampling him.

Wilson was returning from the maneuvers with a group of 61 members of the 487th field artillery, a reserve regiment. The artillerymen were riding across the rifle range south of the camp headquarters when the accident occurred. The injured officer was taken to the camp hospital, where he received treatment from Maj. A. G. Compton, army surgeon, and he was then taken to the Sparta hospital, where he died.

Funeral services will be held at the Camp McCoy chapel at noon today. The body will be sent to Chatham, Va., for burial.

Otto Kasch, 49, Druggist, 37th Ward Politician, Dies

Otto Kasch, 49 years old, 5800 Division street, a druggist prominent in 37th ward politics, died yesterday at St. Anne's hospital of lobar pneumonia.

STRIKE TROUBLE IS LAID TO REDS BY U. S. WITNESS

Says Funds Are Raised for Communists.

New York, July 16.—[Special.]—Communists at work among labor groups in the United States were pictured as chronic trouble makers, frequently starting strikes but never ending them, or permitting them to be ended, in testimony today before the congressional committee which is investigating the activity of Reds in this country.

Charles G. Wood, commissioner of conciliation of the federal department of labor, was the chief witness.

Commissioner Wood, who has had wide experience in dealing with communists and is the author of a book about Reds, described strikes in Passaic, New Bedford, and Gastonia, N. C., each of which was either started or influenced by communists, he said.

He said the strikes, like other activities in which Reds figure, were but a means of attacking the United States government. The strikers were used also as a means of raising funds for communist activity, he testified.

Lindy and Tunney Named in Will but Get Nothing

New York, July 16.—(AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and Gene Tunney, former heavyweight champion, were named in the will of Wylie P. Jameson, filed here today for probate, but the $20,000 which they were to have divided under certain conditions will go to another beneficiary.

The testament provided that if Jameson's son, Wylie B. M. Jameson, of Memphis, Tenn., should die before his father, the $20,000 should go to Lindbergh and Tunney, but the boy, who is now 9, survives his father and therefore will receive the money.

Mussolini Ill? Not So You Can Notice It! Says Rome

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ROME, July 16.—Reports spread by several foreign papers that Premier Mussolini's health is ailing again and that he is seeking surgical intervention against stomach ulcers by the hands of a famous Bologna specialist were officially denied this evening by the Stefani agency. The report was styled a "piece of bunk."

FREE DRUGGIST SUSPECT IN HUNT FOR FRED BURKE

Philip R. McDonnell, druggist at 501 West 79th street, was released yesterday after Chief of Detectives Norton announced that McDonnell had no connection with Fred Burke, the gang executioner, who was supposed to have killed Thomas Bonner last Thursday morning, after Bonner and McDonnell made a trip to Newaygo, Mich. Norton said he was convinced Bonner made a mistake in believing that W. A. Smith, friend of McDonnell, was Burke, but he had no explanation of Bonner's murder aside from the theory that Burke was the killer.

McDonnell was charged with the theft of an automobile belonging to Samuel Wagner, 7256 Aberdeen street. Wagner's car was found at Smith's home in Newaygo, it having been left there by McDonnell and Bonner. McDonnell said Bonner had furnished the automobile for the trip while he, McDonnell, supplied his own license plates for the machine.

Mexico Probes U. S. Dry Raid Shooting

[Copyright: 1930: By the New York Times.]

MEXICO CITY, July 16.—A group of armed United States customs agents entered Mexican territory a few days ago near Juarez to seize a cargo of contraband liquor, and are reported to have wounded Ignacio Garcia, a Mexican. Garcia's left leg was said to have been riddled with bullets. The case is under investigation by the Juarez district court. The invading customs agents were said to have been 150 feet past the boundary when the shooting occurred.

GUNMAN SHOOTS 2 MEN IN STORE; ONE NEAR DEATH

Two men were shot, one probably fatally, by a colored bandit who entered a hardware store at 542 East 47th street late last night and asked for cartridges for an automatic pistol. The wounded men are: William Ellman, 45 years old, 836 East 45th street, the proprietor, shot through the right hand, and Harry Feinblatt, 40 years old, 3535 Costello avenue, a clerk, shot below the heart.

Ellman asked what size cartridges were wanted, and the bandit pulled out the gun. "Never mind the bullets," he said, "just give me the money."

Ellman seized the gun and tried to wrest it from the bandit. One shot was fired in the struggle, the bullet passing through Ellman's hand and striking Feinblatt. The Negro ran out the door without the money. Police from 45th and Wabash station removed the two men to the Chicago hospital, where it was said Feinblatt had but little chance of recovery.

The Nine Hundred Block

BY KATHARINE HAVILAND TAYLOR

SYNOPSIS.

To the nine hundred block, with its sordid dwellings, moved gentle, lovely Theresa Ames and her divorced and remarried mother, Mrs. Colt, under the watchful eye of Mrs. Baum, neighborhood gossip. Theresa makes friends with Katie Warner, who lives upstairs, and B. Jones, a reporter; also Johnny Deane, who left a home of wealth to make good for the girl to whom he now regrets he is engaged. He has found employment painting automobiles. Theresa does typing at home to support herself and her mother. Mrs. Colt encourages Billy Treadway, a rich bachelor beau of her girlhood, in his attentions to Theresa. Johnny Deane takes Theresa to the movies. Mrs. Colt and Theresa go to Billy Treadway's for Sunday dinner. Billy realizes he is in love with Theresa. Theresa's father, Arnold Ames, who has also remarried, has a belated desire to help his daughter, but his wife threatens to leave him if he does.

INSTALLMENT X.

A NEW CUSTOMER.

Katie was making tea and setting out three cups and saucers.

"He'll be comin' along," said Katie, "I tole him I thought you might be runnin' up——"

Young Deane took the stairs as usual—two at a time—thinking of a very small box of candy that was clasped under arm against his ribs, and of all the money that he had spent so casually—another day.

Ways and means of managing: Arnold Ames scheming to help his daughter; his wife scheming to keep him from helping his daughter; Elsie Ames and Billy Treadway planning together; Frank Hillis brooding, alone and unwillingly, upon his secret; Theresa considering how to manage next month, to have something left—Christmas coming; Katy arranging so that they should meet.

No life an open book till life is done, and then some pages made illegible by tears or greed or shame, each of which finds what comfort may belong to it, in solitude.

. . . . . .

On Monday morning Theresa had a new customer named Gale; he was a smartly dressed young man who seemed destined for a sumptuous inner office, and to be near bells through which a caliph's touch could summon many servitors. He looked down at her rather thoroughly as he stood by the kitchen table with the amputated legs and Theresa was glad she had put on her "brown jersey." Usually Theresa wore a white house dress, which made B. Jones remember the aftermath of his departed appendix and the nurse with the prodigal supply of eyelashes, while it had made young Deane remember the time he had broken his collarbone while playing polo. Johnny had known that time, and for the first time, a little of how much his father cared for him; the old man had made a habit of mingling with the crowds as incognito as he could be (which was not very) and when Johnny had been thrown from his horse to lie limp on the turf, old John Z. had had to be helped, swaying, toward his son.

He selected a ridiculously ornate and expensive frame for it, now the treasure of all his possessions.

Mr. Harold Gale, who had taken a good deal of trouble about transacting the matter for Mr. Ames, and who had only that morning somewhat regretted the necessity of courting the whole Smith-Arnold-Ames family, was—looking at Theresa—resigned.

He took from a bulging briefcase a long mailing list that, already copied, was to be copied again.

"Two carbons," he said.

"When do you want this, Mr. Gale?" she asked; something of business diplomacy, she had learned, lay in catching a name at once and using it.

"At your convenience; there's no real hurry."

She counted the sheets. "I can have it ready for you by Wednesday noon," she said. "I really could get it out today but for the fact that I have other work that must come first——"

She was thinking of more notes upon Stiegal glass that had been brought to her by the depressed looking Mr. B. Jones. He had said, ponderously, that he was going to work the article up soon, after which she could copy it. Then he had sighed deeply and stared somberly at the rug.

Harold Gale thought, "If it wouldn't make talk—I'd like to take her out myself. But I suppose it's hardly safe. 'Ames would be hot if he heard of it, too.' Anyway, he reasoned on, the town was pretty small for that sort of thing, and that indubitable truth helped the Pennsylvania railroad to pay dividends. Because of it a great many of the cautious play-boy citizens manufactured fictitious "business" in New York.

He had never seen so much of loveliness in an oval face, features so perfect, nor so clear a skin.

She was obviously waiting for him to go. She did not know that her question, made of why he lingered, shone from her as clearly as did her gratitude, confusion or affection; that she, from a habit of truth, told truth wanting to or not. She only wondered—simply—why he lingered.

"I'll run in for it," he promised at length, "Wednesday, you said?"

"It'll be ready for you Wednesday noon, Mr. Gale."

"Very well, and—I'll have more work for you."

"Thank you very much," she answered. She was typing again as he paused beyond the door, but she looked up to nod and to say "Good morning, and—thank you!"

Outside young Gale got into a car that was for him another rung on the ladder which was his altar; and, lounging back as had a young man in a camera flash he had found in Town and Country, he drove toward Ames, and Ames, since the death of old Mr. Ames, meant Arnold.

Arnold was awaiting him and Gale was shown into the outer office immediately.

"Well?" Arnold prompted and harshly; Arnold who had not been sitting heavily behind his desk as was usual, but had been pacing the room. "Sit down——" he added. Gale dropped to a chair. "Cigarets by you," Arnold said next. "Tell me—everything. Is she—attractive?"

"I never saw a lovelier girl. She's here because Ziegfeld never was."

Arnold frowned. He didn't like it. Did Gale think—his daughter would be on the stage? He had retained his early, Black Crook viewpoint about the profession. And the woman who had started it all and made it possible for Elsie to run off with Colt had not softened him.

"What's—the place like?" he asked.

"Frankly, thoroughly rotten, Mr. Ames. Shoddy, ghastly hall; poor little rooms filled with unsteady, poverty-bitten pieces; worn thin rugs, gleaming yellow-oak woodwork, draughts and that odd, rather choking smell that comes from small, overworked radiators. The attempts to make—ah—the place—one might say—possible, rather got me."

"I see" (heavily, a pause), "she looks well?"

"Speaking frankly again—she doesn't look too well fed——"

"O, my God!" And with his words Arnold, unused to physical expression of a Latin sort, flung wide his short, thick arms.

"Poor devil!" thought Gale. He added quickly, thinking to cheer, "She was very grateful for the work."

Arnold Ames laughed bitterly.

At that moment, in New York, the proprietor of a Fifty-seventh street art shop had been summoned by an alert clerk. "J. Z. Deane's out there," the clerk confided in a whisper; J. Z. Deane, the one who advertised his wares with a simple crest on a blank, ten thousand dollar advertising page, "Deane Bodies" beneath the crest. The proprietor hurried forward eagerly; his manner and his smile. He envisioned, during his few short steps, the servile wish to please that is made by a gleaming heap of gold, oiling sale of the Goya. But the Big J. Z. wanted only to have a check framed, a check that held his signature and that was made out to his son.

He selected a ridiculously ornate and expensive frame for it, now the treasure of all his pictures.

Johnny, at the moment isolated in a small room and using a squirt gun on a body designed for a bus, thought, "I've got to keep my head——" He didn't want to get past a certain point with Theresa until all connection was severed with Collette. He had a certain idea that Theresa wouldn't forgive him if Collette's and her affairs impinged. Women of the world Johnny had known would have dismissed Collette with a shrug of shoulders, thinking youth bound to do "that sort of thing before settling." But Theresa was different. "That's one reason why I like her," he thought. "Big hearted great-aunts," but she would pin him to the straight and narrow path. Once or twice he had said, "God" and "My God," in the easy manner of his world. And she had said, distantly, "I do not like that." He now said, "Gosh." She had ironed him out as if she'd been a road roller. And he loved it.

He envisioned as he had many times, taking her to the decent restaurants, those that didn't go in for paper flowers and Chinese lanterns, The Piping Rock, Pierre's, such. And, too, he'd take her into the garden that she had thought could exist only upon a screen, to say, "It's yours." "I'll make her happy!" he thought. He didn't know it, but it was a prayer.

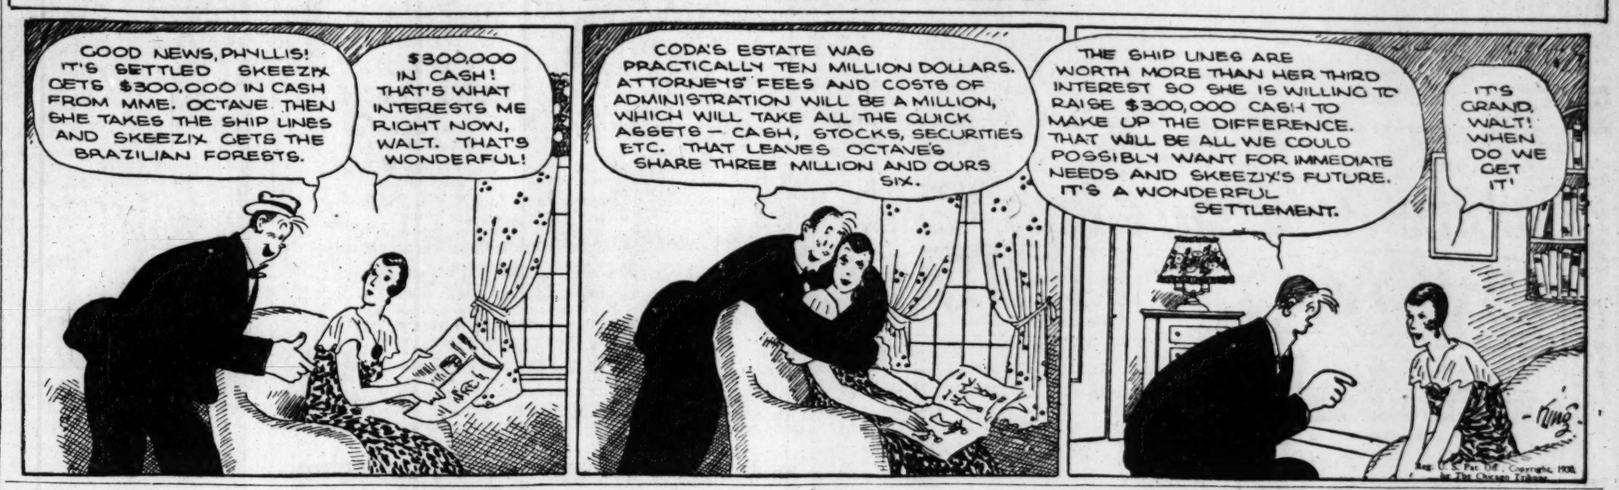
GASOLINE ALLEY—GLAD TIDINGS



GOOD NEWS, PHYLLIS! IT'S SETTLED. SKEEZIX GETS $300,000 IN CASH FROM MME. OCTAVE. THEN SHE TAKES THE SHIP LINES AND SKEEZIX GETS THE BRAZILIAN FORESTS.
$300,000 IN CASH! THAT'S WHAT INTERESTS ME RIGHT NOW, WALT. THAT'S WONDERFUL!
CODA'S ESTATE WAS PRACTICALLY TEN MILLION DOLLARS. ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS OF ADMINISTRATION WILL BE A MILLION, WHICH WILL TAKE ALL THE QUICK ASSETS — CASH, STOCKS, SECURITIES ETC. THAT LEAVES OCTAVE'S SHARE THREE MILLION AND OURS SIX.
THE SHIP LINES ARE WORTH MORE THAN HER THIRD INTEREST SO SHE IS WILLING TO RAISE $300,000 CASH TO MAKE UP THE DIFFERENCE. THAT WILL BE ALL WE COULD POSSIBLY WANT FOR IMMEDIATE NEEDS AND SKEEZIX'S FUTURE. IT'S A WONDERFUL SETTLEMENT.
IT'S GRAND, WALT! WHEN DO WE GET IT!

Mothers Glad; They Can Find Boys in Trees

The Younger Set Gayly Swings Amid Branches.

BY KATHERINE KELLEY.

The long arm of the law and the supplications of anxious mothers failed yesterday to chase the boyhood of Chicago and the middle west out of the trees where, for some unaccountable reason, they have chosen to sit during vacation time.

If a boy wants to sit it's his own business. If he chooses a tree to sit in, that's his own business, too. And if he wants to sit there one week, two weeks, or until school starts again, away from the pestering of parents and baby sisters, what's the difference? Such was the idea expressed by Chicago participants in the tree sitting marathon which has swept across the country since Jimmie Clemons, 10 years old, of Racine, Wis., climbed a tree in his father's back yard, on July 7, just to "sit and sit," and didn't come down until he had established a 12 hour record.

While Judge W. F. Haase was issuing an order at Marinette, Wis., tabooing tree sitting as "injurious to health and morals," and while Aurora mothers were curing the local epidemic by declining to prepare meals for their sons, Chicago mothers yesterday expressed relief. For once they knew where their sons were. For once they didn't have to send little Johnnie to all neighborhood haunts to return his older brother to weeding the garden.

"I wouldn't walk two blocks to see two boys sitting in a tree," Mrs. Harry L. Simpson, 6235 Wabansia avenue, confided as she watched her 13 year old son, Harold, aloft in his tree house across the street. "But I do think it's healthful. Lots of fresh air and sunshine. And he and his pal, Carl Carlson, 11 years old—they began sitting at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning—are having a lot of fun they'll never forget. They get their meals regularly, too. They don't go off and forget to come home."

The tree sitters meanwhile were the center of a half hundred admiring neighborhood children. The refueliers, Clifford Lundin, 12, of 1620 North Merrimac avenue, and Joe Leva, 14, of 1635 North Merrimac avenue, had established quarters in a tent beneath the tree ready for another night watch. A pop and ice cream stand was being erected to satisfy the thirsty visitors who were expected during the evening. Carl's mother, Mrs. Carl H. Carlson, 1732 Merrimac avenue, was to prepare a hot supper.

Marathoning alone, except for his white collie guarding beneath the leafy popular tree, sat Teddy Arvidson, 12 years old, in the vacant lot near his home at 5842 North St. Louis avenue. From his perch under a canopy of woven leaves he conversed good naturedly with his mother, Mrs. Theodore Arvidson, his brother, Alvin, 16 years old, who is his manager, and his grandfather, A. Arvidson, who had come over from Springfield avenue to keep him company.

"All the rest of the guys are doing it," offered Teddy. "I'm going to beat the Oak Park record of 115 hours at least. I like it up here. Why, I've had time to read 'Fifteen Days in the Air,' and I don't even mind mssing a swimming party Friday. I have an umbrella in case of rain, and an alarm clock to get up by, and if I get hot I look at a picture of a frozen river hanging on the tree. I came up here at 1 p. m., Tuesday."

"Teddy built his tree house himself," his mother proudly added. "We thought that since we aren't going on a vacation this year he could do what he wanted to do. As long as he doesn't fall out the tree's a good place for him."

Tree-sitting marathons were beginning to grow like mushrooms on the south side yesterday. Alvin Ralph, 15 years old, of 7218 South Paulina street and Francis Moretti, 16 years old of 7029 South Winchester avenue, mounted a tree at 7222 South Paulina street at 1:20 p. m., Monday. To make their bower more comfortable they wired it for an electric light and an electric fan. They spend their spare time playing games, reading the latest editions of the newspapers, and eating the food donated by neighbors and merchants.

At 69th and Wood streets sat the "Tree-sitting Kids"—Mike Defelice, 6945 South Hermitage avenue, and Mike Izzo, 16 years old of 6743 South Wood street. They began sitting Monday at 9 p. m. and expect to sit for two weeks. Previously they built a wooden house in the tree, passing the lumber up on ropes and doing the carpenter work in the tree.

If Jean Klauk, 13 years old, of 1607 Ridge road, Homewood, breaks the sitting record, and if he doesn't he gets a Boy Scout uniform. But in any case, he said yesterday, he expects to sit until he cares to quit sitting. Beginning Monday at 8:40 he had sat 57 hours up to 6:40 last night, and expects to keep on indefinitely with his radio for company.

John Gilmore, 12 years old, of 7001 Wolfram street, started out at 8:30 a. m. Tuesday to break the endurance tree sitting contest record when he climbed an oak tree in front of his home with James Murphy, Hugh Murphy, and Martin, his brother. The platform broke in the afternoon, spilling all but John, who clung to the branches.

Among other tree sitters reported in the surrounding states, Pat Murphy, 13 years old, Benton Harbor, Mich., who claims both Chicago and Oklahoma as his home, began his tree vigil Tuesday with 100 hours as his goal. At Niles, Mich., Wilbert Jann, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jann, Logansport, Ind., entered the contest at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Fred Schiele. Clarence Thornton, 11 year old son of Mrs. Ruth Thornton, also of Niles, started a three weeks' goal.

At Milwaukee Milton Engbring was hanging to his nest yesterday at 351 Barclay street to beat the record after George Yost got dizzy and fell out. The boys had been up since last Thursday, 135 hours, or four and a half days to last night.

Another marathon of a different type was progressing on the 4900 block of South Artesian avenue. Robert Klein, 13 years old; George Hoffman, 13 years old, and Victor Preisinger, 15 years, of 4931, 3958, and 5009 South Artesian avenue, had completed 325 miles last night in a bicycle marathon. Helpers established in a tent stood ready to aid in case of blowouts and other engine trouble.

Cahokia Reclaiming Old Courthouse Now Within Chicago

The Cahokia courthouse, the oldest building in Chicago and the first legal building erected in Illinois, is to be removed from its present site on the little wooded island in Jackson park and shipped downstate. There it will be reconstructed in the village of Cahokia, within 4 blocks of its original site, from which it was moved.

The courthouse, a log structure, 15 by 20 feet, was erected in 1710 in a small settlement called the Village of the Holy Family of Cahokias, which grew up in the shadows of the mission to the Tamarois and Cahokias created in 1683 under special order of the bishop of Quebec. Indians, fur traders, Jesuit missionaries, French, and Canadian trappers, and wandering hunters formed the population of the old settlement. Their personal and property rights were settled in the small courthouse.

TO WED BRITON

[Paul Stone-Raymor Photo.]

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Bosworth of Evanston announce the engagement of their daughter, Della, to Gordon Lawrence Padley of London, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry William Makin Padley of Madlack, Derbyshire, England, and Monte Carlo. The wedding is to take place on Wednesday, Sept. 3, at the Bosworth residence with only relatives and a few friends present. Miss Bosworth attended Mount Vernon seminary in Washington. Mr. Padley and his bride are to reside in London.

Honest Doubter Helps Religion; Preacher Says

Talks at Methodist Camp Meeting.

The "show me" gentleman from Missouri can make a real contribution to religion. This opinion was advanced yesterday at the Des Plaines Methodist camp meeting by the Rev. Dr. J. W. Langdale, book editor of the Methodist Episcopal church. He is giving a series of addresses at the meeting this week.

Dr. Langdale pointed out five kinds of doubters who loose all religious faith. The man from Missouri with his demand to be shown can be of religious value if he is not of these five sorts, according to Dr. Langdale. He stated that to doubters religion owes the debt for "disintegrating much superstition, for moderating much needless dogmatism as well as for causing faint believers in religion to find more convincing support for their faith."

The five kinds of hopeless doubters Dr. Langdale enumerated as the intellectual dillitantes, the unclean livers, materialists, the seekers after new knowledge, and those who cannot reconcile the ills of the world with the idea of a divine providence.

Approves Making Women Presbyterian Church Elders

The action of the 141st general assembly of the Presbyterian church meeting at Cincinnati in May giving women the right to act as elders was upheld yesterday by the Rev. William Chalmers Covert. Dr. Covert, who is the general secretary of the church board of education, is giving a series of addresses before the Presbyterian pastors' conference at the Presbyterian Theological seminary this week.

Dr. Covert pointed that Christ called to recognition and service the faithful women among his followers, and "paid tribute to women's intellectual faculties and spiritual perceptions. He put honor upon her intuitive knowledge of life."

Graduate Schools Are Under Attack During Meeting of Educators

Dissatisfaction with the methods of training of teachers given in graduate schools of this country continued to be voiced by speakers yesterday at the institution for administrative officers of institutions of higher learning. That group is concluding a three day meeting this afternoon at the University of Chicago campus.

"I believe that in the present courses, the student is wasting half his time," said Henry Gordon Gale, professor of physics and dean of the Ogden Graduate School of Science at the University of Chicago, "and that the present method of instruction frequently leads to boredom and faking of results. Medical students, in particular, spend most of their time in the laboratory and have no chance to do any real thinking."

Algernon Coleman, professor of French at the University of Chicago, lamented the fact that professorial wages were so low and pointed out that a rise in the quality of instruction might accompany a rise in salaries. The teaching methods of American colleges were characterized as antiquated and full of "blind groping" and "gross inefficiency," by Prof. Charles H. Judd, dean of the school of education at the south side school in his morning talk on "The Nature of General Professional Training Needed." Other speakers were Ernest H. Wilkins, president of Oberlin college, and William S. Gray, dean of the college of education at the University of Chicago.

Hoovers Greet Maimed Veterans of War at the Annual Reception

Washington, D. C., July 16.—[Special.]—Eight hundred guests, including several cabinet members and other high officials of the government, attended the White House garden party for disabled veterans given by the President and Mrs. Hoover late this afternoon. For the first time since she had a fall, Mrs. Hoover appeared today at a formal function.

The President and Mrs. Hoover greeted the veterans. Some of the men had lost legs or arms in the world war. These veterans were greeted first, the President and Mrs. Hoover walking slowly along the lines of invalid chairs in which those guests were waiting.

Some of the disabled veterans were wheeled up to the President by nurses in attendance. Most of the veterans, however, were able to pass the receiving party in the regular line.

Ice cream, cake, sandwiches and punch were served to all guests. The marine band played.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Question.

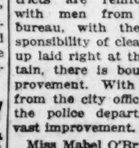
Have crime conditions in Chicago improved since the change of police administration?

The Answers.

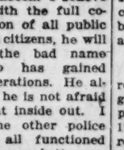
Ernest R. Tausk, 1140 North La Salle street, commercial artist.—It is too early to express an opinion, but taking the will for the deed, the present heads are to be commended for an earnest desire to improve conditions. Six months from now will tell more about conditions than is possible now.

Miss Jennie Gedwell, 5314 Kimbark avenue, statistician.—I can't say I have noticed much change. One reads about a murder almost daily; holdups and robberies, if anything, seem more numerous. The stores and homes in the residential districts are being robbed right and left. The present chief promised to have more men patrolling those districts.

J. P. Bergman, 4302 West 14th street, advertising.—Yes, I believe crime conditions have improved somewhat. As soon as the police districts are reinforced with men from the bureau, with the responsibility of cleaning up laid right at the door of each captain, there is bound to be some improvement. With proper coöperation from the city officials and the public, the police department should show vast improvement.



Miss Mabel O'Brien, 714 South Kenneth avenue, secretary.—It is interesting to watch the progress of Chief Alcock. I believe that with the full coöperation of all public spirited citizens, he will erase the bad name Chicago has gained through criminals' operations. He already has proved that he is not afraid to turn his department inside out. I also believe if all the other police systems in Chicago all functioned under one command, even better results would be obtainable.



S. J. Hein, 1101 Columbia avenue, salesman.—Yes, I thing there is an improvement. Since the last shakeup the police are on their toes, on the lookout for crime in their respective territories. Alcock's many years of service give him a fairly good idea where the worst crime centers are.

German Movie Forces Near Pact with Hays

Electric Interests Gaining Control Over There.

[Copyright: 1930: By the New York Times.]

BERLIN, July 16.—Prospects for coöperation between American and German movie producers and groups controlling talkie apparatus patents were viewed tonight as considerably brighter. This was the result of the four day visit to Berlin of Will H. Hays. He has been in active touch with leaders in all branches of German industry and officialdom.

That the German movie situation in its entirety is undergoing significant evolution, in reality reborn as the result of the intervention of big German electrical concerns and financial institutions, is plainly evident. As a result American interests, inclined for a year past to take a gloomy view of future prospects in the German market, now firmly believe the way has been opened up for closer coöperation with German official circles and private industry.

"The problems of the German film industry are not unlike our own and the transition from silent to sound pictures is definitely progressing here as in America. Difficulties will be met in the same way," Hays stated tonight before returning to Paris.

"The manner in which the German motion picture industry has met the challenge and completely changed its technique in this brief period is as remarkable as the marvel of the sound picture itself. Producers and electrical equipment interests in Germany are quite alive to the situation and I am very sure much mutual good will come from the coöperation of all branches of the industry in Germany and America."

The educational commission of the reichstag today approved new contingent regulations which allow the importation of 210 films for the year 1930-'31, whereof one-third are sound reels.

The new bill gives the minister of the interior wide latitude in the direction of amending the ordinance to conform to market conditions, and it is learned that Dr. Worth, minister of the interior, assured Hays the German government is not contemplating too drastic application of its protective regulations in view of the patent truce concluded between American and German groups and the active desire of both sides for closer coöperation.

"TALES OF HOFFMAN" UNUSUALLY GOOD IN ITS RAVINIA VERSION

BY EDWARD MOORE.

With due apologies to the world of sports for dipping into its vocabulary, that opera "The Tales of Hoffman" frequently has registered more as a wasted ball than a hit. Last night at Ravinia, however, it came closer to cutting the corner of the plate than it has done in a number of years.

They put it on with a good deal of care—care which included proper singing of the notes and the preservation of the fantastic atmosphere of the piece. It had good singing, too. Mario Chamlee in the part of Hoffman was nothing short of distinguished in his performance, giving an air of aristocratic grace to the faded music which possibly it did not deserve, but which added greatly to the evening.

There was Florence Macbeth as Olympia, as pretty as the mechanical doll she was representing and warbling the music with great brilliancy and assurance. There was Yvonne Gall, doing the rôle of the improper young person from Venice for the first time in her life, and continuing in the final act as the consumptive, a part with which she was more familiar. Though she and Ina Bourskaya were a bit unruly on the tempo of the barcarolle, they finished well. Mme. Gall was a lovely person to contemplate, as decorative to the stage with her presence as she was to the score with her voice.

Louis D'Angelo was immense as Coppelius, as good a one as has been seen in years, and Desiré Defrere, with unfailing fantastic sobriety, gave by far his best performance of the season. Following them were two brilliant and distinguished tours de force, one by Giuseppe Danise as Daphertutto, the final one by Leon Rothier as Dr. Miracle. Incidentally, Marek Windheim in three small parts showed three distinct and amusing characterizations.

Louis Hasselmans at the baton labored well and, when possible, effectively with the score.

Private Pools for Swimmers at Lake Forest

BY THALIA

When society goes a-swimming it does so in private swimming pools rather than in Lake Michigan.

Many of the large estates on the north shore and in the western suburbs and several of the country clubs have pools. The June issue of the American Landscape Architect has an article on "Swimming Pool Sanitation," illustrated with photographs of the pools on the William V. Kelley estate, Stonebridge, in Lake Forest; the Warren Wrights' place at Golf, Ill.; the estate of the Albert D. Laskers at Everett, Ill., and the Roy D. Keehns' residence, also in Lake Forest. The Kelleys' is naturalistically treated and banked with stratified rock. The Laskers' is at the end of a terraced walk from the residence proper, and beach chairs and tables and sun umbrellas are set around the edge. The Keehns' is a quite sizable oblong affair with a diving board and several of those large rubber floating animals that afford so much fun.

Knollwood Country club has a pretty blue lined pool set in a little formal garden. This is popular with the children of members and with their elders for dips after golf games.

At Onwentsia the popular swimming hour is late in the afternoon. On Thursday nights after the mixed golf games many of the players take a swim before the late buffet supper.

Mrs. Robert P. Lamont and her daughter, Miss Gertrude Lamont, were guests of Mrs. Silas H. Strawn at luncheon yesterday at the Post and Paddock club at Arlington Park. Others in the group included Dr. Julia Strawn, Baroness Ungern-Sternberg, Mrs. Richard Smith of Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. M. L. Randall. Mrs. John Wentworth had as her guests Mrs. William H. Mitchell, Mrs. Elliot Wheeler of Baltimore, Mrs. W. W. Keith, and Mrs. Clifford Rodman.

The Valentine Bartletts have joined the summer colony at Watch Hill, R. I., after a visit with Mrs. Bartlett's sister, Mrs. Joseph Frazer, at Newport. The Bartlett boys, Charles and Valentine Jr., have joined the Watch Hill Boys' club and are members of the swimming and tennis teams. Mrs. Frank Hibbard is to arrive at the Hill this week to open Cove End, Mr. Hibbard having preceded her by several days.

The Charles Deere Wimans were in New York City during the New York Yacht club races, in which Mr. Wiman's boat, Simba, was entered. The Wimans were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Alker at Brookville, L. I. Mrs. Louise De Koven Phelps has been chosen captain of the women's golf team and is arranging matches with the women's teams from the Fisher's Island Country club, the Narragansett Pier club and the Shenocosset club at New London.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Neilson of 4800 Drexel boulevard, who have been in Chicago for several weeks, sailed yesterday on the S. S. Columbus for England. Mrs. Neilson's brother, Charles H. Swift, is to visit them later in the summer. Mrs. Swift, who is to accompany him, will go to Poland to visit her father, A. H. Dux.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Woodruff of Diamond Kay ranch at Joliet and their small daughter sailed last night on the S. S. Majestic for Europe. They are to be gone for about two months and will spend much of the time at one of the seaside resorts.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graf and their daughter, Miss Barbara Graf, are at the H F Bar ranch at Buffalo, Wyo., for July and August. Robert Graf Jr. and Norman Eaton, son of Mrs. Marquis Eaton, are sailing tomorrow from Montreal for a two months' trip in England and France.

Mr. and Mrs. George I. Haight and their daughter, Valeria Elizabeth, are to sail on Saturday on the S. S. Statendam to spend the summer in Europe. While they are in Cologne they will be the guests of Dr. Hoerlein, the inventor of aspirin. They plan to attend the Wagnerian music festival at Heidelberg, and will also go to Vienna, where Dr. Otto Hauseks-Buechler will entertain them.

Mrs. Frank D. Fulton of Winnetka and her daughter, Miss Helen Fulton, are spending two or three weeks with Mrs. Fulton's sister at Eagle Grove, Ia.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Kent Tenney of Winnetka have returned from a motor trip in the east.

The Lester Armours of Lake Forest are up in Canada for a session of salmon fishing.

MRS. DONALD R. BROWNING.
[Bernie Photo.]

The marriage of Miss Laura Mather Luebke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jonathan Luebke of Glencoe, to Donald R. Browning of Winnetka took place last Saturday evening at Christ church in Winnetka. The bride wore her grandmother's wedding gown of eggshell satin faille.

Are You Longing to Motor Home to Show Baby to the Family

By GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS.

Are you just longing to take a trip home by automobile, to show the baby to your people?

Did you spend last evening going over your bank account to find that you can't go where you planned for your husband's vacation, but that, if you weren't afraid of the baby's food you could have a delightful time taking a trip in the car?

If your baby is from nine months to a year old you can travel with him and continue to feed him properly if you fix up for him a regular little kitchenette—and at a moderate cost, too. For a ten days' trip you can buy the food and equipment for the baby's meals for a little over five dollars.

Naturally, it goes without saying that although the baby will be properly fed he will not have the identical food he would have if you were stationary. He will have powdered milk for instance. His vegetables and fruits will have to be those recommended by physicians, which come prepared, sieved, and canned especially for babies. Water for the baby must be boiled, even that in which his utensils are washed. The one slogan of safety for the baby in summer is cleanliness.

When planning a trip like this the change of the baby's food should not be sudden. He should have had some of each at home first, to accustom his digestion to the change.

If you are interested in the details of what utensils and foods to buy and the cost, the information will be given on receipt of a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

NEW YORK SOCIETY

New York, July 16.—[Special]—Mrs. Everett Colby returned after spending the week-end with Mrs. Douglas Robinson at the latter's summer home at Herkimer, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Brokaw will give a supper-dance on Dec. 23 to introduce to society their daughter, Miss Marguerite Brokaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic R. Kellogg are at Dark Harbor, Me., for the summer and have in commission their steam yacht, Darcy, and the sailing craft, Squaw.

PATTERNS BY CLOTILDE

[Registered U. S. Patent Office.]

WOMAN'S AND MISSES' DRESS:

A shoulder cape and inverted plaits in the skirt are smart details of this pretty dress. The cross seaming of the skirt creates a charming, slender hipline, and the skirt plaits provide the necessary flare to the hem of this straightline model. It is a sports type that is equally suitable for town or resort wear. Tub silk, silk pique, Chinese damask and linen are smart material for a dress of this kind.

The pattern, 2559, comes in sizes 14, 16 and 18 years and 36, 38 and 40 inches bust measure. Size 36 requires 3¼ yards of 39 inch material.

10TH CENTURY GOSPEL MANUSCRIPT FOUND IN SOUTH SIDE CAFE

The acquisition of a 10th century gospel lectionary by the University of Chicago from Michael Potson, manager of Colosimo's café, 22d street and Wabash avenue, is described in the July issue of the University Record in an article by Harold R. Willoughby, associate professor of New Testament literature.

"The climax of the year's experiences in acquiring manuscripts came when the owner and manager of Colosimo's restaurant, a well known gangland resort, offered to sell the university a gospel lectionary written in uncial script," Prof. Willoughby wrote. "It dates not later than the 10th century. The owner also divulged the information that the manuscript had been used as an oath book by the patrons of his restaurant. This suggests that it may have figured strategically in the recent history of Chicago gangland."

The university purchased the manuscript for an undisclosed price, according to the article. Potson said that his great grandfather picked up the manuscript in a pillaged church in Argos, Greece, a century ago. It remained an heirloom in his family until it was brought to Chicago 15 years ago.

"From the standpoint of paleography, the Argos lectionary is the most distinguished manuscript in the university's collection," the article said.

A Friend in Need

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

Need Shoes?

"I have a pair of men's shoes, size 10 D, and an ice box in fairly good condition which I would like to give to some one. Do you know of a family needing these articles?

"MRS. C. G."

If 10 D is your size, here is an opportunity to do away with your shoe problem for a while. There's the timely gift of an ice box for some one, too. If you are in need of either of these, I shall be glad to have you let me know; please do not telephone, but write.

Asks for Clothing.

"I am an elderly man out of work. I have no family or friends to help me and I am finding it hard to get along. I've never had to ask for assistance before, but now my clothing looks so shabby I am ashamed to apply for a job. Can you help me get some others? I wear a suit size 42, pants length 31, and shoes size 8½ EE.

"W. H."

Poverty is so much harder, both mentally and physically, for the people who are not accustomed to it. Such is the case with this man who has always been able to earn a comfortable living. Have you any presentable clothing in this size which he may have?

Sally Seeking Young Fans for Movie Party

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

Every boy and girl who wants to join our R-K-O Palace theater party a week from today should have his or her letter reach me this morning for I shall select my hundred guests today. Judging from the large number of you who have written me, you all realize—as I do—that this party will be one of the biggest and gayest we've ever had. There will be so much to see and hear in the line of good entertainment that we'll be amused and interested every minute we are in the theater.

For the movie fans there's Helen Kane, that cute trick, who does some of her cleverest work in "Dangerous Nan McGrew." There's reel after reel of good comedy, marvelous scenery of the snow clad northwest, and excellent singing and dancing. And for those whose taste runs to vaudeville, there's the best to be had—Louise Groody, the charming and talented musical comedy star; Georgie Price, whose imitations of famous actors are terribly amusing, and several other acts that you'll be sure to enjoy.

Today's the day, too, for our big baseball party. My hundred young guests and I will be sitting out in Comiskey park this afternoon, rooting for our own White Sox and cheering them on to the victory we hope will be theirs. It should be marvelous baseball and if the weather man's predictions hold true we'll have a grand, sunshiny day. So get ready for a rip-roaring, good time, and—I shall be seeing you!

Son of Oak Parkers Weds Eastern Girl in Brazilian Capital

RIO DE JANEIRO, July 16.—(AP)—In the presence of leading members of the American colony here and staffs of the embassy and consulate, Miss Mary Katrina Follweil, daughter of S. Seymour Follweil of Maplewood, N. J., today become the bride of J. Winsor Ives, assistant trade commissioner at the American embassy. The religious ceremony was performed at Christ church, and the civil at the American embassy earlier.

The bride was a student at Rutgers for two years and later studied costume design at the Art Students' league, New York.

Mr. Ives is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Ives of Oak Park, Ill. He was educated at Illinois Wesleyan and the University of Illinois. In 1925 he was appointed American vice consul at Mazatlan, Mexico. He resigned from the consular service and joined the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce in 1928, serving in Chicago, Bogota, Colombia, and in Rio de Janeiro as assistant trade commissioner since June, 1929.

Gregory Bickoff of San Francisco, former trades commissioner in Rio de Janeiro, was best man. The bridesmaids were Julia Chapman of Swarthmore, Pa.; Charlotte S. Salmon of Ashland, Ky.; Ester Felter of Baltimore, Md.

Regularity Is Secret of Success in Exercising

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

A query was put to me personally the other evening by a young woman who had in mind enrolling herself with a certain beauty specialist for gymnasium, or body building work. The charges of the particular specialist are high. And, like a number of other women, the inquirer wondered whether the course is worth the time and money involved.

It is a question in the minds of many women—whether they would not be better looking for the work.

Now, I'm sorry that I have not more confidence about woman's stick-to-itiveness in matter of home setting-up work. You can get women worked up to the point of "going to do it, and regularly." No trouble getting them to invest in a festive little costume, if they can visualizee themselves as fairly effective in it. They'll even don the costume and work one morning, two, and in heroic instances stick it out for a week. Then, the alibis that can be offered for the demise of good exercise intentions are something marvelous to hear.

So, I have a theory that a woman, able to afford it, is well off if she is persuaded into a course of physical exercises under the supervision of one whose charge may seem excessive. It is not expensive if the result is that one does not attend the course regularly and performs the exercises prescribed. It would be expensive, however, if one brought to the specialist the usual tendency to drop out after a couple of lessons. But the advantage of the high charge is that one is more apt to stick, since we do like to get our money's worth.

As compared with the number of men you know, who take their morning setting up exercises with rigid regularity, how many women do you know with the same stability of purpose? I know only a couple. So that if one can be tied to some force that makes the exercise an established habit for three months, let's say, she should go to it, and be glad that some influence is working in her favor.

It does not follow, however, that one has to go to some high priced establishment to keep herself fit. But that's another story which we'll handle another day.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Washington, D. C., July 16.—[Special.]—Mrs. McClure Kelley arrived this morning from her home in Aurora, Ill., accompanied by her young daughter, Joyce, to spend a little time with Mr. Kelley's mother, Mrs. William Fitch Kelley, formerly of Chicago, in her country home, "The Knole," on the Rockville pike. They will be joined next week by Mr. Kelley, who will sail later with Mrs. Kelley for a two months' visit in Europe. Little Miss Joyce Kelley will stay here with her grandmother.

FARM AND GARDEN BY PAUL POTTER

Rare palms of startling value shown by the fact that one specimen of sugar palm tree alone is said to be worth $50,000 are on exhibit as usual this year to hundreds and even thousands of persons daily at Garfield park conservatory, announces August Koch, chief florist.

In the palm display house which is one of eight showrooms at the conservatory, the largest palms have reached a height of 65 feet which also is the ceiling height of the structure which keeps them in a tropical atmosphere twelve months in the year. Of the 16,819 plants growing in this display, some of them are said to be exceedingly rare and found only in the world's greatest conservatories.

Mr. Koch finds that the public evinces great curiosity in the palms when it is known that some of the tropical plants produce materials such as are used in making Hawaiian hats, Panama hats, Malacca canes and edibles. The sugar palm is a native of India while the Hawaiian is known as Pritchardia Gualichaudii. The cocoanut palm produces its well known large nuts imported for food as well as fiber for matting and cordage; other palms grow dates and are a source of date sugar; sago is produced from the pith of other varieties while ivory buttons are cut from the ivory nut palm.

Natives use the sap of some of the palms to produce an intoxicating wine. They also make clothing, but thatching and other necessities from plants native to their countries. The conservatory hours this summer, according to Mr. Koch, are arranged so that those who cannot view the exhibits during the daytime can come as late as 10 p. m. Doors open in the morning at 8 a. m., with no admission charged.

Food Talk.

More than any other fruit, apples seem to be a picture of the country. Pastoral poets have immortalized the apple in their songs of barefoot boys in the apple tree. And vividly have they described those boys stealing the first nearly ripe apples, scampering off, eating and then sooner or later repenting.

When you see new apples in the market for the first time do you have an impulse to grab some and rush home to make some apple sauce or a pie? In the midst of an abundant supply of summer fruits we find our sturdy friend the apple in his new coat, offering fair competition to any of them. Perhaps the slightly tart tang missing in the sweeter fruit is why we prefer the new apples.

The apples that are now on the market are either the Early Harvest or Red June variety. The cellular structure of either is tender. With little cooking we can secure a mush. This makes them especially suited to apple sauce. One-half cup is sufficient for one quart of peeled, sliced apples. If the apples are cooked slowly in a covered aluminum pan they will need scarcely any stirring. And the less stirring that is done before the apples are heated through, the fewer lumps there will be.

Apple pie is also a treat when apples are new. The tender apples are done as soon as the crust, and the same result is obtained when apple dumplings are made with new apples. Both pie and dumplings are more tasty when made with raw apples than when made with pre-cooked ones.

While berries sell at fancy prices, apples are usually inexpensive enough for every one. Many delicious concoctions can be made with them that will bring as many "Ohs" and "Ahs" as the most delicious mousse or cake.

STUFFED PEPPER RECIPE.

MACARONI STUFFED PEPPERS.

2 cups cooked macaroni.
1 cup canned tomato soup.
¾ cup grated cheese.
1 egg.
6 green peppers.
1 cup buttered bread crumbs.

Cut the cooked macaroni in small pieces. Add to it the undiluted soup, cheese, and the egg, which has been slightly beaten. Mix well. Cut a slice from the stem end of each pepper and remove the seeds. Parboil for five minutes in salted water. Drain. Fill with the macaroni mixture and cover with the buttered crumbs.

Bake in a moderate hot oven [375° F.] until the peppers are tender, about 30 minutes.

Yield: Six servings. One serving: Total, 185 calories; protein, 28 calories; fat, 74 calories; carbohydrates, 83 calories.

Precautions.

Cook macaroni in boiling salted water until tender. About twenty minutes is required. Drain thoroughly and add cold water. Then drain again. This makes the macaroni firm so that it will keep its shape. Never soak uncooked macaroni before cooking.

Paris Sprinkles Silver Stars Over Blue Faille

BY BETTINA BEDWELL.

PARIS.—[Special Correspondence.]—The latest thing in the printed summer dress is made of a silken fabric splattered with stars. Silver stars on a field of firmament blue faille transform the banal printed frock into something that is thrilling and different. The dress shown in our sketch is made of this fabric in the colors mentioned. Of course the silver is not metal. It is a lovely silvery gray. For evening clothes Paris stamps the stars in real silver or gold, but for daytime they are, perforce, less brilliant.

I saw the ensemble sketched here at Longchamps the other day, and it was by a substantial length the smartest and most unusual outfit there. The dress of firmament blue faille with its tiny silver gray star design is much pinched in at the waistline, then its skirt is flared by set-on plaited panels at the sides. The short sleeves and the neckline are trimmed with gray linen bands having scalloped borders.

Over this frock is worn a jacket of silver gray linen. The jacket is wrist length and is closely fitted to the normal waistline, with a generous flare below. A scalloped band is placed all around the closing, in lieu of collar and revers. The hat is made of silver gray linen trimmed with rows of stitching, and the flaring gloves are of gray linen. Fashionable women are beginning to wear gloves made of the same material as their summer wraps or frocks, and they make most attractive accessories, particularly when they are made of linen or cotton.

Wife Too Often Is Wet Blanket to Wit, Says Woman Writer

BY DORIS BLAKE.

Are conversations between married people as dull to the parties immediately involved as onlookers seem to think they are?

I remember one famous woman writer eulogizing the silences that are the privilege of married pairs as one of the nice things about being married. Neither party of the first or second part feels the need of being constantly up on his or her toes, conversationally speaking. Bright quips and merry are quite unnecessary to the scheme of marital tranquillity.

But some folk think otherwise, and in a current national weekly, Corra Harris hits upon a reason for the sudden silence fasts otherwise voluble women are apt to go on immediately they sight the face of their legally wedded mates.

"She falls into a state of meekly accusative or aggressive silence the moment her husband comes in," says Mrs. Harris of the wife in question. The husband's silence, in the well known writer's opinion, is due frequently to discretion. He is afraid of being put on the witness stand before the judge, his wife, who he is well aware is prejudiced by suspicion or jealousy.

Anyway, a good deal of conversational periods are devoted to silence in homes, whether it would be your pleasure to have it that way or not. Mrs. Harris observes that many a bright man, the delight of a surrounding group, suddenly falls flat and disappears on the scene," as if she were a visible, confounding accusation against him, or an oppressive weight."

The inference is, of course, that she has already imparted to him her suspicion that he is something of a fool. His friends may see in him a man fitted for leading success rôles.

That little pantomime of the silencing wife is familiar to almost every group. The only one unaware of the fact that the inference drawn from the scene is a reflection on the wife is the creature herself.

Tries On Hat.

The other day, while in the restroom of our office, I happened to notice a pretty hat which one of the stenos had recently purchased. As no one else was in the room with me I thought I'd slip it on and see how it looked. I posed for awhile and then, my eye catching an interesting piece of news in THE TRIBUNE, I sat down, wholly unaware that the hat was still on my head. I sat, thus engrossed for about five minutes reading the paper, when the door opened and in walked the owner of the hat. I certainly was embarrassed when she calmly took it off my head. I had no alibi to offer her. Never again! E. R.

WALTER P. CHRYSLER

PRESENTS TWO NEW STRAIGHT EIGHTS

All progress is change.

Only by change do man and the factors of his civilization move from the lower to the higher state; from the cruder to the finer development.

Our Chrysler engineers devote their lives to study, to analysis, to experimentation. And out of this constant searching and trying come the knowledge, conviction and decision that lead to progress.

In announcing two complete lines of New Straight Eights, in addition to our lower-priced Chrysler Sixes, we now register our most important change and progress —all designed, all worked for, all created to give the world better and more satisfying transportation.

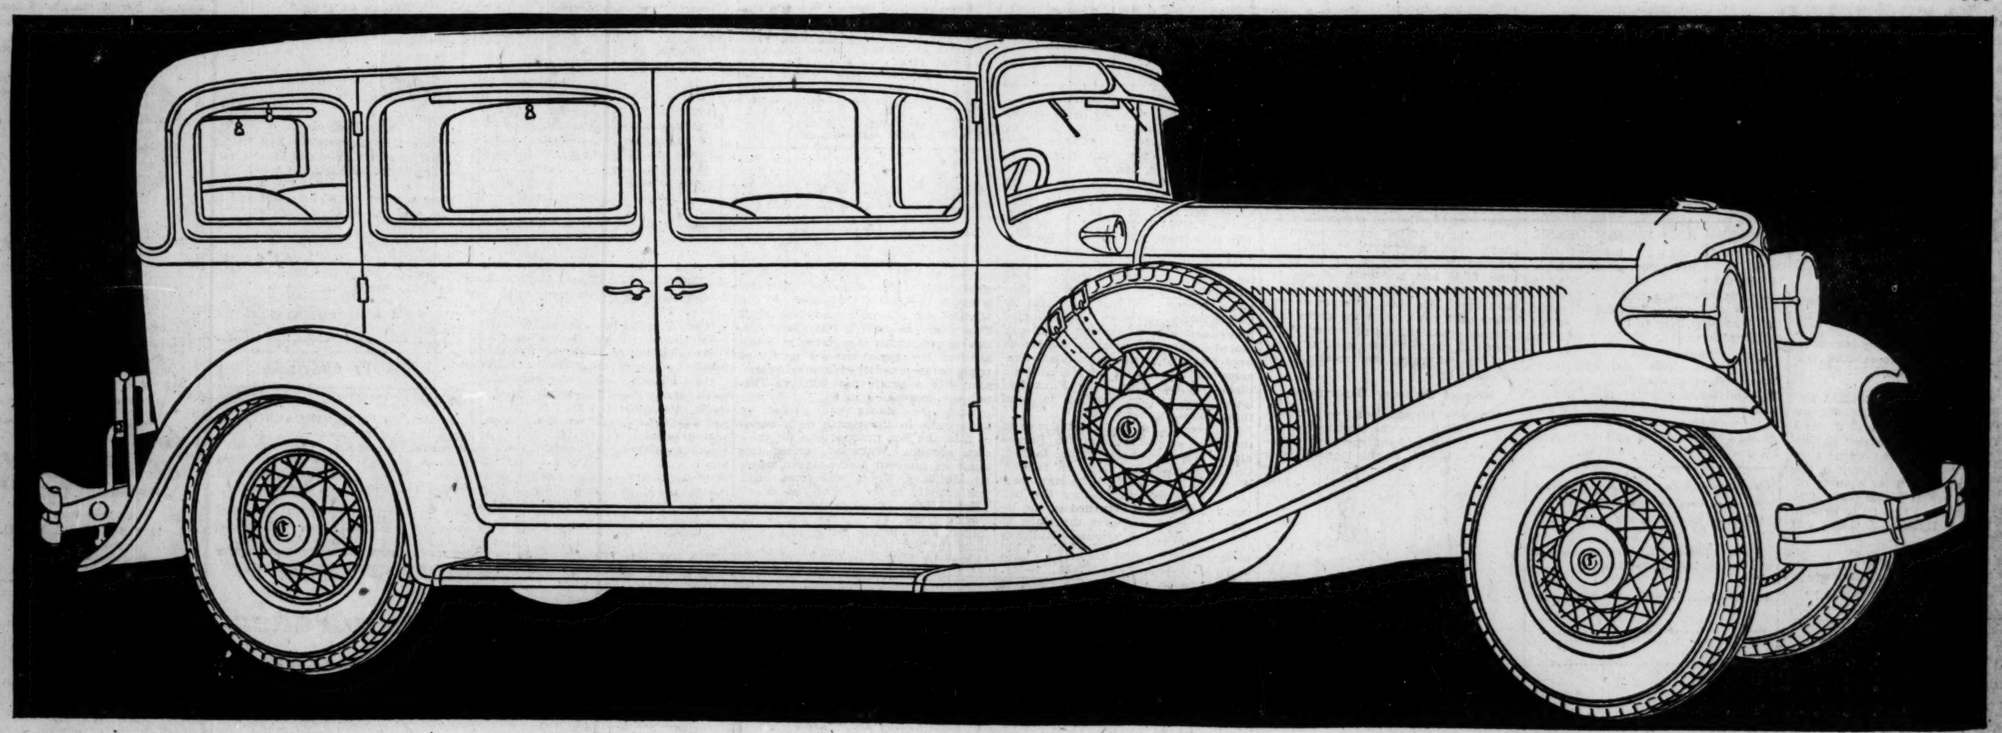
In our progress there is no departure from fundamental principles.

To maintain public approbation, we must give always finer, more dependable, more dynamic car performance—must offer always greater value, as well as cars better suited to the needs of modern transport.

Thus, our latest Chryslers — the new Chrysler Eight and the new Chrysler Imperial Eight — containing as they do, outstanding engineering and style improvements—are, we believe, milestones along the course of automobile progress.

We are proud and eager to submit these cars to the inspection and test of the public.

W. P. Chrysler



CHRYSLER EIGHT

A Straight Eight of silky, flashing speed. Designed, like its companion car, with extremely low center of gravity. Multi-Range four-speed transmission. GALLANT FOX WITHDRAWN FROM ARLINGTON RACE

BLUE LARKSPUR FAVORITE FOR $35,000 PURSE

Uncommon Gold Is Shore Acre Victor.

BY FRENCH LANE.

Blue Larkspur's stock for the $35,000 Arlington cup to be decided on Saturday was booming last night following a day filled with developments having to do with the running of the all age championship stakes.

The Arlington cup plot thickened fast and furiously and the items of most interest can be grouped as follows:

1. Gallant Fox, 3 year old champion, continued to sulk in training and was definitely declared out of the race by Trainer Jim Fitzsimmons.

2. Blue Larkspur, 3 year old champion of last year, in his final difficult training effort for the cup ran the cup route of a mile and a quarter with 126 pounds up in 2:04 3-5, faster than most mile and a quarter races are run.

3. Rumors were spread that Misstep has broken down in his preparation for the cup race. The rumors were denied by Trainer Mose Lowenstein.

Victorian Out of Money.

4. Victorian, the $100,000 Agua Caliente handicap winner and a leading candidate for the cup, was left at the post in the Shore Acre purse at a mile, the feature of yesterday's Arlington program, and finished out of the money.

5. J. R. Macomber, the eastern sportsman, was endeavoring to secure Earl Sande to ride his famous horse Petee Wrack in the cup race. Petee Wrack is a half brother to Gallant Fox.

Blue Larkspur's drill for the cup was the most sensational of the year on any race course. Only the more conservative clockers caught him in 2:04 3-5. Trainer Dick Thompson said he ran the mile and a quarter in 2:04. Other clockers caught him in the fast time of 2:03 2-5.

Blue Larkspur was particularly good near the end of his rehearsal and finished the last furlong in :12 1-5. The fractions for his move were: Quarter in :24; half in :49; three-quarters in 1:15; mile in 1:39 4-5, and the mile and a furlong in 1:52 2-5.

"The horse that beats Larkspur on Saturday is the horse that will win the cup," was Trainer Dick Thompson's remark after the son of Black Servant-Blossom Time had cooled out after his fast gallop, apparently as sound as a dollar.

To Ship Fox to Saratoga.

Gallant Fox was even in a more temperamental mood yesterday than he was the day previously, when he refused to gallop under Sande's urging. The Belair stud board of strategy lost no time in declaring him out of the race and arrangements were made to ship the Fox to Saratoga on either Saturday or Sunday.

Despite the fact that Victorian ran unplaced in the Shore Acre purse, he looms as a dangerous Cup contender. After he failed to leave with the others he was away some 15 lengths behind the pack and made up much ground. Uncommon Gold won the race in the fast time of 1:37 1-5. Victorian was beaten little more than three lengths by the winner. Victorian must have run the mile in close to 1:36 after he got started.

Victorian was the odds on favorite at 7 to 10 and when the field was away with the once famous Whitney racer still in his stall at the gate the crowd groaned. There had been a late plunge on Uncommon Gold and he became a contender from the start.

Uncommon Gold Takes Lead.

The week hearted Cantankerous was the early leader and Jack Crane was

How will he answer questions like these:

1. Where is the old time golfer who could match Bobby Jones' consistent brilliancy?

2. Who was the old time gal who could play tennis like Helen Wills Moody?

3. Has baseball ever developed an all around hitter comparable to Babe Ruth?

4. How far back would you have to go to find a 3 year old colt to match Gallant Fox?

5. When was there a greater trio of sprinters than Frank Wykoff, Eddie Tolan and George Simpson?

6. Who among the old time swimmers would rate with Johnny Weissmuller?

FIGHT FOR CROWN

(Champion.)

(Challenger.)

NEW YORKERS BET SINGER'LL BEAT MANDELL TONIGHT

Tub Thumping Fails to Bring Big Gate.

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, July 16.—Although the Sammy Mandell-Al Singer prize fight involves the only really competitive championship left in the ring nowadays, the bout at the Yankee stadium tomorrow evening will be a small affair commercially and hardly worth while all the tub thumping and the show of bunting with which the Garden corporation has endeavored to create an illusion of importance.

The gate receipts probably will not exceed $200,000 and, by the time the federal and state taxes have been deducted from the gross receipts and the fighters' pay and the rent have been subtracted from the net, there will not be much left for the stockholders of the Garden corporation.

The United States government nowadays exacts one-fourth of the gross revenue from tickets selling for more than $4.99 and one-tenth of the receipts from tickets selling for less than that. The state government also skims off 5 per cent of the gross and, roughly speaking, the promoters must write off about 30 per cent of their business, of which they merely serve as collectors.

Respect Treasury Department.

In some jurisdictions, very likely, it is possible for the producer of an important prize fight spectacle to deceive the agents of the United States department of internal revenue by chewing up some of the ticket stubs or dropping them into false compartments of the ticket cans, but most of those boys seem to have been born of a long line of Caledonian ancestry and they are very McTavish about money matters.

Perhaps some of them can be reasoned with as the state overseers are supposed to be reasoned with in the pari-mutuel departments of some race tracks, but the promoters hereabouts have had great respect for this department of the government since that time some years ago when one of the chaps quite forgot the government's share, and, for his negligence, was sentenced to a term of confinement at hard labor.

Mr. Carey Can't Be Changed.

Aside from all such considerations, Mr. Will Carey, present president of the Garden firm, has a curious aversion to many of the business practices which are characteristic of the prize fighting trade, and he always is refusing to take part in various dealings on the ground that they would not be honest. This is an odd turn of mind, and the members of the profession cannot understand Mr. Carey's strange moral processes. But that is the way he is, and there is no changing him.

Assuming that the gross receipts will be $200,000 the taxes then will account for $60,000. Then Sammy Mandell, as defending lightweight champion, will receive 37½ per cent of the remaining $140,000 and Al Singer, as challenger, will take 12½ per cent. The understanding is, of course, that Singer is paying Mandell some or all of his 12½ per cent for the business opportunity which this bout affords him, but that is a private matter between the boys.

At any rate when the fighters have had their pay only $70,000 will remain and out of this the Garden firm must pay Col. Jake Ruppert $17,500 for the use of the stadium, leaving only $52,500, out of which the firm must pay for the preliminary bouts, the advertising, the ushers, referees, judges, and publicity.

Net Profit Small.

Thus, when all the help has been paid off and all the technical charges, peculiar to the science of accounting are laid against the Garden corporation's portion, the net profit may

Mrs. Jones Breaks Record in Open Golf

BY HOWARD BARRY.

Mrs. Melvin Jones of Lincolnshire set a new course record in defeating Mrs. J. H. Indig, 6 and 4, in the quarter finals of the women's western open golf tournament yesterday at the Acacia Country club. Mrs. Jones' score was 43—41—84. Others to reach the semi-finals were June Beebe, Rena Nelson, and Mrs. Lee Mida.

In defeating Mrs. Lillian Zech, state public parks champion, Mrs. Mida made the most decisive score of the day, 7 to 5. She was 6 up at the turn after Mrs. Zech had three putted twice, hit several traps, taken one bush penalty and shot a ball into the woods.

Rena Nelson had little trouble in her match with Helen MacMorran. She was 4 up at the turn and held a safe advantage the rest of the way.

Plays Out Round for Record.

Mrs. Jones was never in danger throughout her encounter with Mrs. Ingrid and after going 6 up on the 14th, she continued to play and finished out the 18 with her new record.

The most bitterly fought battle of the day was that in which June Beebe was forced to the 18th green before defeating Virginia Ingram, 1 up.

Miss Ingram took the first hole and the next four holes were halved. The match was squared on the sixth.

Miss Beebe Takes Lead.

Then Miss Beebe forged ahead on the seventh, when Miss Ingram's tee shot was trapped, and she went two up on the ninth.

Miss Ingram picked up one on the tenth after Miss Beebe was in the rough, but the latter got it right back on the eleventh.

Miss Ingram won the 12th by laying her approach dead to the pin and putting for a birdie four, but on the 13th Miss Beebe chipped from a bunker to within eight feet of the pin and holed the putt for a birdie to go 2 up once more. Then she went three up on the 14th.

Miss Beebe was trapped on the next two holes and Miss Ingram won both to stand only one down, but the next two were halved, giving Miss Beebe the victory.

Lyons Attempts 14th Win; Athletics Vote No, 14 to 7

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

What had been planned as Ted Lyons' fourteenth triumph of the season came to an early and disappointing finish yesterday. The young man who is rightfully entitled to be rated 90 per cent of the White Sox staff was blasted off the mound in less than two innings, and eventually the champion Athletics took the series opener by a bulky 14 to 7 score.

Lyons' troubles started with two Philadelphia runs in the first round. They continued in more violent fashion in the second, and by the time Hal McKain could come to the rescue there were three more runs scored and as many runners were waiting on the bases. McKain finally got the situation in hand, but not until after the inning had netted a cluster of seven tallies. That ruined everything for the afternoon and thereafter there was nothing of interest except that the Sox chased Bob Grove to the showers in the home second, and that McKain, in the midst of various mishaps, rolled up a total of nine strikeouts.

Thomas and Mahaffey are due to pitch today.

A's Open Attack Early.

Two runs off Lyons in the opening inning were brewed from a pass to Bishop, a double by Cochrane, and a single by Simmons, the impersonator of Ty Cobb. That was just a warmup for the second chapter. Miller singled and so did Boley and Grove. That much scored one run. A pass to Bishop loaded the bases. Haas singled Boley and Grove across. Mulleavy booted Cochrane's grounder and Lyons went away. With the bags filled, Simmons scratched a hit off McKain and Bishop tallied. Then after Foxx had fouled out, Miller doubled to send three more runners home.

The removal of the great Grove in the home second began with Barnes hitting for one base. Ryan fanned, Crouse singled, and McKain fanned. Watwood lined a hit to the right center field corner and before the ball was retrieved and returned to the infield Watwood was over the plate, as were Barnes and Crouse. Mulleavy then tripled and Reynolds walked, but they didn't score because Jolley flied out. However, the demonstration was sufficient to induce Manager Mack to let a pinch hitter appear for Grove in the third.

McKain Hits a Couple.

Bush's workmen melted down the A's lead a bit more with a run in the fourth. McKain nicked Shores for a single and scored a minute later on a hit by Reynolds. The lead of the Macks shrank some more in the sixth. This also was due to McKain's desire to perpetuate his claim to being a hitter. He opened the inning with a triple to deep center. Watwood scored him with a single past Bishop. This put the score at 9 to 5.

After the Macks had picked up three runs in the eighth on a series of hits, the Sox grabbed one for their own account. Watwood carried this home on his own double and a single by Mulleavy. There was more needless activity in the ninth. Two champions scored on Cochrane's double, Foxx's triple, and a two bagger by Miller. Then before ending the spectacle the Sox counted one on a three bagger by Barnes and an infield out.

GALLANT FOX—MAN O' WAR.

CHICAGO racegoers naturally are disappointed that Gallant Fox, champion 3 year old, will not start in the Arlington cup Saturday. This is a weight for age race in which the son of Sir Galahad III., had he started, would have met Blue Larkspur, champion year old of 1929. Sun Beau, a good distance performer; Misstep, and others in the older division. Under the scale older horses carry 126 pounds and 3 year olds 114 pounds.

GALLANT FOX.

Thus Gallant Fox would have had a twelve pound pull in weight if Jockey Earl Sande could ride at 114 pounds. Any other pilot than Sande would have seemed unwise, as Earl knows his colt and has guided him in all victories this year.

Owner William Woodward, in talking with The Wake while here, said he did not think Gallant Fox had been "overcampaigned." He said that while the Fox has been on edge for nearly three months, there have been short rest periods between his stake engagements. Of course, the Fox may have other ideas on the subject, as he did not seem quite as keen Saturday as previously, although his tendency to loaf when in front was nothing new.

Since the Gallant Fox connections have decided not to start their colt, they are simply following the example set by Man o' War, which raced in his class during his 3 year old form in 1920. He won eleven straight races, two of which were handicaps for 3 year olds. Gallant Fox already this season has won more money than Man o' War did as a 3 year old. Stakes now, however, are materially higher in value.

The Wake regrets Gallant Fox will not start. On the other hand, we would not have liked to see him run unless in his best condition. His trainers know best about that.

Poor Boy!

Great Shires, they say, is making hay
While Washington makes whoopee—
Meanwhile the Sox are on the rocks,
With spirits damp and droopy.

Great Shires was keen and made a scene;
They sold him down the river
To teach the lad that he'd been had—
It fairly makes me shiver.

Great Shires, it seems, has pennant dreams,
And pennant cash may stuff
Into his pants. I think, perchance,
They've punished him enough!

Do You Remember 'Way Back When:

ALEXANDER, ONCE THE GREAT, WAITS DECISION ON FATE

Yearns for Glory of Past, Careless of Future.

Dallas, Tex., July 16.—(AP)—Facing baseball oblivion after 23 years of yeoman service unless he was claimed at the waiver price by nightfall, Old Grover Cleveland Alexander sat in his hotel room here today, apparently indifferent to his fate.

Suspended by the Dallas Steers last night for continued infractions of the training rules, "Old Pete," who can remember when he used to receive a thousand dollar bonus if he won 25 big league victories a season—and collected the bonus for eight straight years—was not particularly bothered by his baseball "future."

He didn't know whether he would care to try a hitch with another Texas league club even if he were claimed at the bargain price of $1,500.

The Old Zip's Gone.

"May be I've had enough," the veteran said. "Ever since 1907 I've been tossing 'em up there. The old arm isn't what it used to be. I used to turn a ball loose and watch it flit by a batter. Now I watch it go up there and wonder what's holding it back."

Like a legion of baseball stars who have given their best years to the game, Alexander is without a surplus of worldly goods. He has made plenty and has spent most of it. He has a home in St. Paul, Neb., but little else.

"One thing I can say," he remarked. "I've given more to baseball than it's given me. I've never been a 'goody-goody' boy, but I stayed in there and pitched."

The Glory That Was His.

As he sat disheveled, rapping the Dallas club for cutting him loose and uncertain of life in general, the old war horse fingered a handsome ring surmounted by a diamond and bearing the following inscription:

"St. Louis Cardinals, World's Champions, 1926."

It must have recalled memories of that day in New York, the last game of the 1926 world series, when he went plodding to the hill and struck out Tony Lazzeri to give the Cardinals a world title. The ensuing three years have carried him from the baseball heights—a world series hero—to the outskirts of the game he loves.

Like the old fire horse which grows restless at the sound of a gong, "Old Alex" still loves the game. Asked if he still felt the old urge to get out there and fire it past 'em, he answered longingly:

"Yeah, I do."

And he buried his face in a pillow.

Ankle Won't Stop His Bat, Rajah Says

If Rogers Hornsby's right heel, irritated since last season by a bony growth, is healed, as he thinks it is, he doesn't expect his weakened left ankle to interfere with a speedy return to his topnotch batting form.

He said as much yesterday as he fielded a few rollers and batted balls at Wrigley field in preparation for his return to the Cubs at Philadelphia on July 24. As his workout was light, nothing much could be determined about the condition of his left ankle, which was fractured on Memorial day.

"I use my right foot in batting, while the left is a pivotal point only," he said. "If the growth on the right heel is entirely healed, as I think it is, I can get along with a weakened left."

Hornsby was puzzled by recent rumors that he is just about through with the Cubs because of his reported propensities for making trouble.

"I can't understand why they call me a troublemaker," he said. "So far with the Cubs I haven't had an argument with Manager McCarthy or any player. No one realizes more than I do that I was far off form during the early season with my sore heel. I tried hard, but I couldn't field well, and with the strength gone from my right foot, I had a tough time hitting. I'm not worried. I'm just puzzled. That's all."

Lipton Ill of Lumbago; Shamrock Sails Saturday

[Copyright: 1930: By the New York Times.]

LONDON, July 16.—With the announcement that Sir Thomas Lipton's America's cup challenger Shamrock V. is sailing for America from Gosport Saturday, it was learned today that her owner has had an internal chill followed by a severe attack of lumbago. Lipton, who is 80, said he expected to be well enough to sail for America in the middle of August.

MALONE PITCHES 5 HIT VICTORY; ROOT POUNDED

Fans Hurl Bottles at Hartnett.

BY EDWARD BURNS.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Brooklyn, N. Y., July 16.—Pat Malone and associate Cubs performed valiantly this afternoon to whip the league leading Robins, 6 to 4, in the first game of a double header. But homers by Riggs Stephenson and Gabby Hartnett were insufficient to inspire our boys in the second game, and Adolfo Luque was returned the victor over Charley Root, 5 to 3.

So the Cubs this night still are three games behind the Robins and can leave Flatbush with no better than a tie for first place even though they sweep the remainder of the series.

The contests were played before a capacity assemblage of 30,000, a thrilled and noisy mob, whose tenseness quite exceeded the rabidness of last October's world series partisans. Hartnett was the target of pop bottle throwers. The crowd held him responsible for the fact that Del Bissonette was injured in a close play at the plate in the first game.

Get Lead at Start.

In the first contest, the Cubs won by jumping on Ray Moss at the outset, with Cuyler, Wilson and Grimm, the long dormant sluggers, functioning in a great big way. And while they were doing their stuff in these early innings Malone was holding the Robins hitless, the first safe blow off Pat being recorded after two were out in the fifth.

In the second encounter, the leaders had amassed their five runs before the Cubs had come near getting a man around. Then Stephenson broke the ice with a homer in the seventh, and Hartnett led off the eighth with his No. 21 circuit smash of the season. Pinch Batters D. Taylor and Heathcote came through with singles, and one of those big innings seemed in the making. A double play slowed up the technique and caused the banishment of Manager Joe McCarthy and his first assistant, Jimmy Burke. The game proceeded and another run came across, but our nine died hard when a potential score knotting homer was nipped inches short of the desired terrain.

Teachout to Hurl Today.

The series will continue tomorrow with Bud Teachout pitching against Ray Phelps.

Blair opened the afternoon's program by walking on five pitched balls. English fouled out, but Cuyler singled to left, Blair stopping at second. Hack then cracked a double to right center, Blair and Cuyler scoring. Stevie was called out on strikes, but Grimm lined a single to right, Wilson scoring.

English started the third with a pop fly to short left, and it fell for a double. Woody was driven home by Cuyler.

Deberry made the first Robin hit after two were out in the fifth. It was a single just out of Beck's reach. Immediately thereafter Blair threw out Moss to end the inning.

Crowd Cheers Opening.

The Robins broke through in the sixth midst great ecstasy on the part of the assembled 30,000. Frederick, first up, walked and held on while Finn flied to Cuyler. Herman shot a double over first. Frederick scored on the hit, and when Cuyler's throw in evaded the infield. Babe went to third and Ki drew an error. Herman scored on Bissonette's sacrifice fly to Stephenson.

The Cubs' endeavor in the seventh was blighted by an unusual double play. After Beck had bounced out, Malone singled to right and went to third on Blair's single to center. English then sent a hot grounder to Moss, who threw to the plate in time to make Malone back up. Blair attempted to reach third during the run down on Pat, but just as Clarence approached the bag, Gilbert diverted the play long enough to tag him. He then ran down the line toward home and tagged Malone.

Hartnett Drives in Two.

In the eighth Cuyler and Wilson walked and moved up on Stevie's running second, but as the field neared the last turn Jockey Swigert took Uncommon Gold to the front and from there on home he never left the result in doubt. He wound up by beating Canaan by two lengths; Suitor was third, and Victorian, running faster than any other horse in the race, was making a bid for third place as the struggle ended. Victorian pulled up without a limp, something he did not do in his previous start here.

Victorian's unexpected defeat was no more of a shock to the big crowd than was the beating which Insco took in the Pine Grove purse, which was fashioned for the leading 2 year olds and was at 5½ furlongs.

Pittsburgher, a Kentucky colt, was the winner after a furious drive in the stretch with Boys Howdy from the Edward R. Bradley stable. Hyman finished third and Insco was fourth.

The crowd heaped jeers on Jockey Fronk after he was beaten on both Insco and Victorian, the two shortest priced favorites of the day.

Pirates Lose to Boston, 4-3; Then Win Second, 9-5

Boston, Mass., July 16.—(AP)—Pittsburgh got an even break in today's double header with the Braves by taking the second game, 9 to 5, after Boston won the opener with a two run ninth inning rally, 4 to 3. Wally Berger of the Braves made his 25th circuit clout of the season in the fifth inning of the night cap. Scores:

CLOSE MATCHES MARK 1ST ROUND IN TRIBUNE GOLF

Announce Second Set of Pairings Tomorrow.

Results of the first matches in THE TRIBUNE'S public links golf tournament are coming in at a lively rate and a new set of pairings will be announced tomorrow. Those who have already played will be matched a second time and new entries will get their first chance at competition.

If your name appeared in the first pairings and you have not yet played your 18 hole round, do so at the first opportunity, as in all probability your opponent already has sent in his card and is waiting to find out whether or not he has beaten you.

When your card is received by THE TRIBUNE golf editor it will be compared with that of your adversary and the one who comes closest to par will win the match. This competition will continue throughout the summer and in the end prizes will be awarded those who have won the most matches.

When you send in your card be sure to write on it legibly the name of your opponent as well as your own. Many of the cards received are almost unreadable and as a result have to be thrown out of consideration.

If you have not already entered this tournament there is still time to do so. Play 18 holes on any course you wish and send in your card to THE TRIBUNE golf editor. Then you will be matched against another golfer of equal ability and can play your part of the match any time you get a chance on any course you wish while your adversary is doing the same on his favorite links.

Here are the results of the first matches. Most of them were close because the system used in pairing brought together players of equal skill:

Mathew Jiracek, 242 South Park avenue, Berwyn, beat Jack Miller, 1027 Greenwood avenue, one stroke.

Hal Doherty beat William Kipp, 4722 North Kenneth avenue, five strokes.

P. J. Sutherland, 7702 Saginaw avenue, beat Richard Chorley, 8347 Anthony avenue, twelve strokes.

C. Haight beat Ed Lavicka, two strokes.

Leonard Hill, 4725 Malden street, tied Walter Janusch, 10053 South Lowe avenue.

Fred Wiglesworth, 8204 Blackstone avenue, beat George Glomski, one stroke.

George Wiersema, 1619 Morse avenue, beat Joseph Polter, 1316 East 54th street, two strokes.

Frank Stack, 5229 South Winchester avenue, beat A. J. Fleisig, Lyle, Ill., eight strokes.

T. MacCorkindale, 8142 Drexel boulevard, beat M. T. Meurer, 6046 Kenwood avenue, seven strokes.

C. F. Alberts, 2505 Herndon street, beat Charles Frazier, 7243 Constance avenue, two strokes.

Michael Yansick, 4729 South Damen avenue, beat R. M. Comfort, 9304 South Bishop street, one stroke.

Bruce Smeed, 1409 Hood avenue, beat Charles Sandelman, 5100 Cornell avenue, three strokes.

Marshall Lewis, Rockford, Ill., beat George Hill, 4725 Malden street, six strokes.

J. J. Vail, 7887 Emerald avenue, beat R. Hasler, 5319 Glenwood avenue, two strokes.

H. E. Brown, 2919 West 65th street, beat Lee Eccles, 6230 Dorchester avenue, eight strokes.

A. L. Prindle beat T. S. Dozois, 2921 West 59th street, two strokes.

Henry Karasinski, 4714 West Superior street, beat Clarence Dubsky, 2327 South Clinton avenue, six strokes.

George Ditchie, 1513 South Harding street, beat Milton Boiskou, three strokes.

Charles Rack, 5482 Higgins avenue, beat W. C. Draper, 6710 South Claremont avenue, three strokes.

Mrs. C. Haight beat Mrs. Phillips Houghton, 8600 Seeley avenue, three strokes.

MOON MULLINS—LEADING A FAST LIFE

WHAT, MAY I ASK, PUT THAT DENT IN THE FRONT FENDER OF MY CAR?
UNCLE WILLIE'S HEAD DONE THAT.
WELL IT SERVED YOU RIGHT, WILLIE MULLINS. YOU HAD NO BUSINESS IN THE FIRST PLACE TAKING MY CAR OUT AND SPEEDING AROUND.
SPEEDING? IN THAT! HA! MY DEAR MISS SCHMALTZ THE TROUBLE WAS I WAS GOING TOO SLOW, ENTIRELY TOO SLOW-SLOW?
YES MAM- A FELLER ON FOOT CAUGHT UP WITH ME.

New York Bets on Singer to Beat Mandell

amount to less than $40,000. Considering that Mandell is an actual champion, that Singer is widely expected to beat him for the title, and that the lightweight championship always has been one of the fighting titles of the ring, this sum seems scant.

In fact it is, but the government's tax is the most burdensome item in the bill against the pet, and the Garden firm is full of an indignant sense that the prizefighting trade is being picked upon by the United States treasury. The amateur tennis tournaments which are conducted for the profit of corporations, the ball games, the races, and all manner of other commercialized indoor and outdoor sport shows pay no such proportion of their receipts to the government.

Hears of Brisk Wagering.

I am told that there is brisk wagering on the contest with Singer the favorite at odds of 9 to 5 and even 2 to 1, but in all my efforts to verify betting quotations on prizefights I have obtained only circumstantial accounts of some guy's having offered to bet some other guy a thousand dollars. But I have never seen any appreciable money on display except along the sidewalks of Broad street, Philadelphia, the night before Tunney beat Dempsey. Anyway, betting is contrary to law and I do not like to have knowledge of the same as this might make me an accessory to wrongdoing.

Mandell confesses to 26 years, but he is old in the ring. He has been punched about in some hard fights since he boxed here two years ago and he looks tired, as though he had boiled off some fundamental meat in making the weight, 135 pounds at 3 o'clock tomorrow. The theory is that in 15 rounds Singer will reach him with his right hand and either beat him flat or force him into a defensive fight with no hope but to stay and loose the title on his fight.

Entries Near 600 in Tribune Water Meet

BY WILFRID SMITH.

Marlys Lapin, 14 years old, will be a contender for the bronze championship trophy in the senior girls' division of THE TRIBUNE'S 100 yard races in Lincoln park lagoon Sunday afternoon, July 27. Marlys swims for the Lincoln turnverein. She will enter Senn High school this fall.

Her records mark her as one of the best young swimmers in Chicago. Last winter, competing in the Amateur Athletic federation meet, she won three titles in the senior group. They were the 40 yard, 100 yard and 220 yard free style races. Marlys also finished second in the Central A. A. U. 50 yard free style event for juniors at the Lake Shore A. C. pool. The race was held in conjunction with the national indoor swimming championships.

Her best time in a 20 yard pool for the 100 yards is 1 minute 6 2-5 seconds. Arthur Marthaler, swimming instructor at the Lincoln turnverein, also plans to enter a large squad in the four TRIBUNE races.

Almost 600 boys and girls have sent in their names. Each will reieive the merit badge. The first race will start at 2 o'clock. Contestants numbers will be given out after 12 noon. These will correspond to the numbers in the program.

CHICAGO STOCK PRICES EDGE UP ANOTHER NOTCH

Auburn Features with 15 Point Gain.

For the third day this week the closing gong at the Chicago Stock Exchange yesterday sounded with generally improved prices the order. Some profit taking developed toward noon, but as the afternoon wore on prices generally advanced.

Auburn struck a stride reminiscent of the hectic days of last autumn when it made a spectacular rise of fifteen points, closing at 132 on a turnover of 3,650 shares Cord, in sympathy with the advance, went up 1⅞ to a finish of 9¼. Other automotives, including Bendix and Borg-Warner, scored fractional gains.

Utilities Stronger.

Utilities for the greater part finished in a strong position. In extremely light trading Central Indiana Power made a 4 point gain and Pacific Public Service advanced 3 points. Middle West Utilities was up ½ in a turnover of 20,400 shares. Insull Utilities went up fractionally, while Public Service of Northern Illinois advanced 1½ to close at 275½.

Missouri-Kansas Pipe Line was under pressure and tumbled 4⅛ to close at 19⅝, with 15,300 shares traded in. United Public Utilities slipped 6 points to a close of 75.

In the general list Monighan went up 4 points to close at 24 and Reliance Manufacturing, in closing at 12, made a 3¼ point gain. Electric Household was up ½, closing at 44. Balaban & Katz took a 3 point jump to close at 75. North American Car advanced a point, closing at 46.

Raytheon, among the radios, rose to 18. Grigsby Grunow and Zenith suffered fractional recessions. Grigsby encountered its customary activity, with a turnover of 18,800 shares. Majestic Household, its teammate, went up a point to 37.

Allow Canadian Members.

The investment trusts closed with slight changes from Tuesday's prices. Corporation Securities and Contienental Chicago were off fractionally. United corporation closed at 15⅞. Chicago corporation finished at 37¾.

Following a recommendation by the governing committee of the stock exchange, the constitution of the organization has been amended to permit Canadians to become members. The governing committee has approved the transfer of four memberships to the following: John J. Griffin, with J. S. Bache & Co., 231 South La Salle; Frederick P. Mullins of A. E. Masten & Co., Pittsburgh; Luther S. Hammond Jr. of Lake Forest, and Lauren J. Drake, 209 South La Salle.

The exchange also approved the listing of 340,000 voting trust certificates of Inland Utilities, Inc., to represent no par value common stock.

CHICAGO CURB EXCHANGE STOCKS

Few important changes appeared in the Chicago curb list at the finish of yesterday's session. Rustless Iron was in good demand and moved up to 1⅞ for the first time in over a month and American Corporation held steady. Reliance of Ohio advanced over a point. The exchange admitted to trading on a when issued basis 25,000 units of Interstate Petroleum, each unit consisting of one share of class A convertible preferred and one share of class B stock. First trades were at 25½.

News and Gossip of Stock Markets

Continental Can Bulls.

Those bullish on Continental Can cite the fact that transfer records of the corporation show that a good deal of stock has passed into investment hands. Common stockholders increased 43 per cent in the period covering the last two major declines.

6.5% on Skelly Oil.

There seems to be considerable justification for the improvement in buying of Skelly Oil around current levels. The stock has reached a level where it is yielding almost 6.5 per cent from the dividend of $2 annually, considerably more than most of the other oils. Skelly has large potential earning power in its expansion in the natural gas industry.

Katy Rebuffs Bears.

The bear crowd which had been working against Missouri - Kansas - Texas are somewhat discouraged over the action of directors in paying a second dividend of $1.00. This would indicate confidence of the management in the future and leads to the belief that the stock may be on a permanent $4.00 annual basis, although the company has not officially established this rate.

CITY GROWS IN IMPORTANCE AS FINANCE CENTER

May Challenge N. Y., Review Says.

BY O. A. MATHER.

Chicago is growing up as a financial center and its tributary territory, the great middle west, is becoming "financially minded." In fact, within two decades, the western metropolis is likely to challenge New York for financial supremacy of the world. All this is pointed out in a survey of investment conditions by Lawrence Stern & Co., investment bankers.

"Despite unfavorable market conditions," the survey says, "Chicago's importance as a great investment center registered a remarkable increase during the first six months of this year. The total of $719,605,500 in stock and bond issues underwritten by investment houses having their main offices in Chicago comprised 17.52 per cent of the entire volume of securities offered the American public. This represents a gain of about 4 per cent over last year when Chicago houses underwrote only 13.54 per cent of the nation's securities.

Tribute to Resourcefulness.

"The consistent increases in the proportion of the nation's financing handled by Chicago houses is significant both of the growing importance of Chicago as a financial center and the energy and resourcefulness of Chicago business. If Chicago continues to increase its proportionate financing at the present rate for the next twenty years it threatens to overthrow New York's financial supremacy.

"In addition to issuing a great proportion of securities, total financing originating in the Chicago market was also 12¼ per cent greater in volume than the record breaking total of $632,460,030 reported during the first six months of 1929. Excepting New York City, the volume of Chicago financing is almost equal to that of all other cities of the country, which totaled only $733,891,918, or 17.88 per cent of the nation's financing in the first half of 1930. In this period last year these other cities underwrote $1,357,231,005 in new securities, or about 29 per cent of the nation's total.

"Five cities, New York, Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia and Cleveland, underwrote more than 92 per cent of the total financing of the entire country during the first six months of this year. New York maintained its leadership as the world's greatest financial center with a volume of new financing totaling $2,653,076,707, which comprised about 64.60 per cent of the nation's entire financing. In 1929, New York underwrote $2,679,809,545, or 57.39 per cent of the total financing that year."

Views on the Steel Industry.

Just when the steel industry will pick up is a matter of divergent opinion in the mid-week steel trade reviews, which appeared yesterday. The Iron Age sees some signs of improvement now and larger recovery next month but Steel, formerly the Iron Trade Review, doesn't expect much betterment before September.

"Industrial activity, influenced both by business depression and by seasonal reaction, is at a low ebb," the Iron Age says, "but the iron and steel trade, always highly sensitive to change, sees signs of recovery. Automobile makers, as well as other important manufacturers, have shut down for a fortnight or more. Yet most of these suspensions are taking place this month and resumptions in August will of necessity result in renewed requirements in materials. Even now, the mills are commencing to feel the effect of this rebound in demand. The situation as a whole shows that lack of definite trend which frequently precede a turn."

Steel points out that a further recession of 14 cents in composite prices has lowered this index to $33.18, or the lowest point since March 22, 1922.

Canada Dry Co. Reports Best Quarter in History

New York, July 16.—(AP)—Canada Dry Ginger Ale today reported for the quarter ended June 30 net income of $1,170,365, equal to $2.29 a share and the largest for any single quarter in the history of the company. Net income in the preceding quarter was $447,898, or 88 cents a share, and for the June quarter last year $1,107,827, equal to $2.18 a share.

Says "Create the Demand" Is Newer Trade Doctrine

BY SCRUTATOR.

More than at any time in the past, business men are confronted now with the problem of creating demand for commodities and services rather than with the problem of supplying the demand that exists.

It has been so often repeated that there is an overproductive capacity in the manufacturing plants, the mines and the farms of the United States that it seems to be a chestnut. Yet few of the practical economists who manage our great businesses and banking institutions have ever discussed the deeper meaning of this.

Overproductive capacity means overcapitalization. One recent writer has called attention to the fact that "production is more fully financed than consumption," and adds: "We enormously expand our productive capacity with bank credit, without regard to a proportionate expansion of consumer purchasing power needed to sustain that enormous superstructure of productive bank credit."

Traditional Viewpoint.

The traditional bankers' viewpoint has been that capital should be used to build up more productive capacity, which in theory would pay itself out with a profit. It may be—at least it is the plausible theory of a great many—that there should be for some time to come a greater effort to encourage the masses to spend more freely for immediate gratification than to withhold savings for capital investment and future enjoyment.

To support this view it may be pointed out that it is unlikely more than three billion dollars of installment credit stands on the books today in the whole country, while the annual savings may run up to ten or twelve billions.

The opposite view is that matters are taking care of themselves; that the addition of productive capacity has brought its own adjustment. We know that things which took no part in the budget of the masses years ago have developed. There is the amusement industry in all its branches. Motion pictures are not weathering a depression now; they are making as good a showing in times that are not so good generally as they did in boom periods.

Workers' Age.

A furthur good result of the machine age has been a raise in the average at which workers begin to earn. Nine times as many, proportionate to population, are in high school now as there were forty years ago and perhaps three times as many in college. Hours of labor are somewhat shorter by the standard work week and a great deal shorter if involuntary unemployment is counted in.

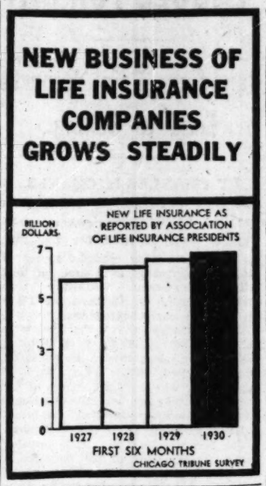
Whatever the viewpoint of the individual may be, the facts are incontrovertible. There is enough capacity and enought available labor in the country to raise production to almost any height that may be called for. There is, on the other hand, enough potential desire on the part of the masses to call for it all, if the income were available. Or there is enough being laid away in savings each year to call for a great deal more of it

Has Two Angles.

The creation of demand, then, has two angles. Those who have not enough income, through short working time or unemploment, must have more. Those who have savings may be persuaded to immediate expenditure rather than holding off for future increment. The first cases are difficult. To solve them means the abolition, virtually, of all poverty.

As for the second sort, nothing to equal intelligent advertising has been found as a solution. THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE Business Survey has discoverel that four companies in various lines who refused to be bluffed by depression talk and increased their advertising expenditures for 1930 have been doing better than they did in 1929.

NEW BUSINESS OF LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES GROWS STEADILY



U. S. BULLETIN CITES LABOR SURPLUS IN NEARLY ALL TRADES

Washington, D. C., July 16.—(AP)—Although there was an increase in demand for certain classes of labor in the United States during June, there was, nationally, a surplus of workers above jobs in practically all trades.

The United States employment service, in its monthly bulletin on industrial conditions, today attributed such additional demand for labor as became evident in June to municipal and state improvement programs, and to the seasonal increase in farm operations. Factory organizations in general showed part time and part force programs, with some curtailment because of inventory and vacation periods.

The department reviewed the general situation as follows:

"An increase in the demand for certain classes of labor developed in June. There was little change in the industrial situation in the country and quite a number of plants and factories worked on part time schedules with curtailed forces engaged.

"Seasonal influences, such as midyear inventory taking and the commencement of vacation periods, were responsible in some instances for this reduction in industrial activity.

"Building continued in fair volume, but with a plentiful supply of building trades men available in all localities. The 1930 municipal improvement programs are now well under way and have provided employment for many skilled and unskilled laborers in the various cities and towns.

"There was an increase in the volume of road construction and a large number of men, previously unemployed, were absorbed. The demand for labor increased in the agricultural sections and many migratory workers were given employment in connection with the grain harvest that started in the wheat belt.

"Public utility work, including telephone and power line extensions, continued in good volume, affording employment to quite a number of men. The installation of natural gas pipe lines created a demand for some laborers. A surplus of labor prevailed throughout the month, embracing practically all trades."

Purnell Tells Advantages of Bethlehem Co. Merger

Youngstown, O., July 16.—(AP)—Bethlehem Steel corporation waived an excess property account of $170,000,000 when it offered to merge with Youngstown Sheet and Tube company on a basis of one and one-third shares of its own stock to one of Youngstown, Frank Purnell testified today in the suit brought by the Cyrus S. Eaton interests to enjoin the deal.

EUGENE G. GRACE.

One of the issues in the suit on which he was questioned at length concerned his own expose of the merger terms before the Youngstown board of directors on March 12, this year, when they approved the deal. The Eaton interests charged the officers of the Youngstown company concealed the true facts on the values of the two concerns, and by so doing effected the merger fraudulently.

Expect Clash Over Salary.

President Eugene G. Grace of Bethlehem is scheduled to take the stand tomorrow. Attorneys are expected to clash over the admissibility of his salary into evidence. The Eaton interests charged he received $1,600,000 annually from Bethlehem and that the fact was concealed from Youngstown stockholders.

Relating his part in the Youngstown directors' meeting, Purnell said:

"I told the directors without any question the Youngstown company could probably work out its own salvation but it would take a tremendous amount of money and it would not give us the diversification of products and locations."

Purnell said they discussed the question of merging with the Inland Steel company, pointing out that Inland had a Chicago location and that since the Inland first deal broke up in 1928 Sheet and Tube had spent $12,000,000 for bar mills and steel plants in the Chicago district, part of the products "we originally expected to get from Inland," Purnell said, "and that with the combination it gave us the Chicago location in the west; the Youngstown location to be used for the two main products, and Bethlehem's location in the east, which gave us all the seaboard situation in the United States."

Excess Property Account.

"I also called attention to the board that Bethlehem's property account was in excess of our property account to the extent of about $170,000,000," Purnell added.

Judge David G. Jenkins, presiding in trial of the suit, took over the defense witnesss and questioned him at length as to the manner in which the audit of the two firms was checked after error had been charged.

The audit, which came into evidence for the first time yesterday, was prepared by Price, Waterhouse company of New York. Purnell testified Hoyt Moore and George May were authorized to select three firms to make the check after Cyrus S. Eaton of Cleveland, foe of the merger, accused Price-Waterhouse company of making a serious error in its report.

Former Secretary of War Newton D. Baker, chief of defense counsel, told the court the auditors were jointly employed by the two steel firms.

"I understood they were employed to safeguard the stockholders of Youngstown Sheet and Tube," said the court. Then, later: "I still want to know about the charges for the work of these firms."

Attorney Baker said he would try to obtain the information.

BY FRED HARVEY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, July 16.—Something that sounded mighty like a horse laugh went the rounds of dignified Wall street in the quiet aftermath of today's trading activities. For the 'steenth time in as many days the more or less inscrutable stock market had gone up when the signals were all set for it to go down, thus forcing a lot of the wise ones dead sure of a "corrective reaction" to stand and "pay through the nose" for overstaying their short accounts.

The street is used to little jokes like that, of course, but today's struck a particularly high chord in the bull camp, in view of the unanimity with which "best minds" have been predicting an "inevitable setback" for the forward driving market. Evidently a considerable element of the professional trading element leaned to this conviction, for they made repeated attempts during the course of the day to unsettle the list and get prices pointed downward, but support was forthcoming always, and they were never able to make very serious inroads on prices.

Close Higher.

As on other days fixed upon for the "reaction," the close found virtually all the leaders at higher levels, with lesser lights registering gains of anywhere from a fraction to ten points.

Trading was a bit lighter than in the previous session, sales amounting to only 2,585,140 shares.

There was nothing of importance in the news anywhere. The weekly report on freight car loadings showed a large decline for the Fourth of July week, but this was to be expected, and cut little ice in speculative sentiment

WILLARD SEES NO BASIS FOR REVENUE GAIN

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, July 16.—Tariff statistics of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad have found no basis for the estimate that the recent revision in eastern freight rates would increase railway revenues by $40,000,000 to $60,000,000 annually, it was said yesterday by Daniel Willard, president.

Willard said it would be about eight months before the actual effect of the rates could be determined, and he specified the same length of time in determining how the revision would affect New York in respect to Baltimore.

The effect of the interstate commerce commission's recent revision of class freight rates in eastern trunk line territory was to put them on a basis of distance. This brought them into harmony with the system used in New England and central territory. The revision increased rates in some instances, but decreased them in others. The estimate of a $40,000,000 increase in railway revenues to result from the revision was made in Washington, and was said to have been approved unofficially by members of the commission.

N. Dakota Joins Minnesota in Opposing Rail Merger

Washington, D. C., July 16.—(AP)—North Dakota's railroad commission today joined Minnesota in opposing the proposed merger of the Great Northern and the Northern Pacific railroads. The interstate commerce commission was asked to withdraw its permission to unify the lines. In its brief the North Dakota commission said it subscribed wholly to the arguments of the Minnesota commissioners against the merger. Consolidation of the roads has figured in numerous congressional debates.

WARNER BROS. TO TAKE OVER THEATERS HERE

New York, July 16.—(AP)—Further expansion of Warner Brothers' Pictures, Inc., was disclosed today in an application to list 156,710 additional common shares on the New York stock exchange. The properties being acquired for the stock consideration include the Federal Theaters company, operating eight theaters in Chicago.

The theaters are the Stratford, 63d and Halsted; the Grove, 76th and Cottage Grove; the Jeffery, 71st and Jeffery; the Highland, 79th and Ashland; the West Englewood, 63d and Ashland; the Shore, 79th and Kingston, and the Cosmo, at 79th and Halsted.

New Berryllium Process Seen Boon to Aviation

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, July 16.—Discovery of a process to manufacture beryllium, a metal hitherto costing $100 a pound, on a large commercial scale at $4 per pound, which promises to bring about a new era in the construction of lighter and stronger dirigibles and airplanes, was revealed today by Alfred Schwarz, president of the Wing Aeronautical corporation. Beryllium also known as glucinum, was first isolated by Woehler in 1828. It exists in large quantities all over the world.

Declares Foster Wheeler Business Satisfactory

New York, July 16.—(AP)—Louis B. Nutting, president of the Foster Wheeler corporation, manufacturers of steam auxiliary machinery, said today before sailing for Europe that the trend of the company's business continues highly satisfactory and that a substantial gain over last year could be looked for, although the ratio of increase in earnings over 1929 would not be as gratifying as the 100 per cent increase shown last year over 1928.

Western Electric's Sales Gain 3.5% for Six Months

Sales of the Western Electric company for six months ended June 30 totaled $201,620,000, an increase of 3.5 per cent over sales of $194,694,000 in the corresponding period last year.

Automobile Output for 6 Months Set at 2,300,000

New York, July 16.—(AP)—Preliminary production figures for June indicate that from 2,300,000 to 2,350,000 passenger cars, trucks, and taxicabs were built in the United States and Canada during the first six months of 1930, a current survey by Standard Statistics company says. This total represents a decline of about 32 per cent from the 3,413,800 units produced in the like period of 1929, with the June output around 39 per cent smaller than in June last year.

Smelters Cut Domestic Copper Price to 11¼c

New York, July 16.—(AP)—Custom smelters today reduced the price of domestic copper to 11¼ cents a pound delivered, a reduction of one-quarter of a cent from the previous level and the lowest price the metal has sold for in the domestic market since 1921. Large producers, however, continued to hold copper at the 11½ cent price.

The American bureau of metal statistics reports world output of copper in June at 145,556 short tons, against 148,788 tons in May, and 174,586 tons in June last year.

Stover Co. Plans Boost in Common to 200,000 Shares

A meeting of the stockholders of the Stover company, Inc., has been called for July 28 to consider a recommendation by the board of directors that the common shares of the company be increased from 100,000 to 200,000 shares. The directors have authorized the exchange of preferred stock for common stock on a basis of three shares of common for one of preferred. The directors also recommended a twenty-five per cent dividend payable in common stock.

Wm. Wrigley Jr. Co. Net for Quarter Is $3,014,455

The William Wrigley Jr. company reported for the second quarter of 1930 net profits of $3,014,455, as compared with $2,690,091 for the same period last year. The 1930 earning was at the rate of $1.50 a share on 1,999,974 shares outstanding. For the first six months of this year the net earning was $5,657,881, in comparison with $5,211,990 for the same period last year.

City of Chicago 6% School Building Tax Warrant Notes, Dated July 1, 1929, and Issued in Anticipation of the Collection of 1928 Taxes are hereby notified to deposit such Tax Warrant Notes for collection, with either the Guaranty Trust Co. of New York, or Halsey, Stuart & Company of Chicago, Ill.

These Tax Warrant Notes will be redeemed, at par, plus accrued interest, from time to time, as the 1928 Taxes now in collection are received by the City. Funds are now available for payment of warrants of above descriptions Nos. B-1 to B-1,375, inclusive.

Compliance with the above request will greatly expedite the redemption of these Tax Warrant Notes, and holders are therefore requested to follow these instructions.

GEORGE K. SCHMIDT,
Comptroller.

Top yesterday, $11.00; average, $10.40.

Estimated receipts at Chicago today, 7,000 cattle; 23,000 hogs, and 12,000 sheep.

Prices in all classes of live stock broke sharply under heavy supplies yesterday. The largest Wednesday run of cattle since October, 1926, at 19,000, was dumped on an already semi-demoralized market, bringing most kinds to new low levels for the last three years.

Liberal arrivals at all points suggested liquidation of steers which were being carried along in hopes of some price improvement. Losses of 50c were cited in most sales, with bids off 75c@$1.00 near the close. Thousands were carried over unsold, many almost without bids.

With the exception of 1926 top prices were below any corresponding day since 1924. Well finished 1,262@1,381 lb steers topped the list at $11.10, while choice 913@1,061 lb yearlings sold at $11.00. Cows and heifers shared in the break, selling mostly $1.00 under the close of last week. Calves came down mostly $1.00 in sympathy with the break in all other classes of live stock. Stockers and feeders were slow and weak to 50c lower.

Hog Futures Are Dull.

The sharp decline in the cash trade has cut the volume of trade on the hog futures market lately. A few transactions were made in September mediums at steady to 10c lower prices, the market opening at $9.40 and closing at $9.45. Bids of $9.25@9.30 were made for July and August light and mediums and buyers were willing to pay $8.75@9.00 for July and September heavy.

December contracts were offered at $8.50, but $8.35 was the highest bid at the close. On the "to arrive" market light weights for today were bid $9.50 and light weight packing sows $8.00 for today and tomorrow.

Hog receipts at 21,000 on the cash trade were augmented by 9,000 over from the previous session and greatly exceeded trade requirements in face of a declining market for fresh pork. Losses of 10@30c were recorded and there were 9,000 still in the pens at the close, the low spot of the day.

The extreme top came down 25c, at $9.50, while the general average, at $8.45, established a new low for the last year and a half. Light weight pork loins are selling 2@4c per pound lower than at the close of last week, which accounts for the sharply narrower demand for light and light butchers on recent sessions.

Receipts at Chicago for the first three days of the week at 101,300 compare with 77,380 a week ago. The month to date total at 315,000, however, is 51,000 behind a year ago.

Lambs Break 25c.

Declines of 25c were general in the lamb market, with some sales considered as much as 50c lower on the dull close. Closely sorted natives went to packers at $10.50, while odd lots were "hand picked" by city butchers as high as $11.00.

"Tops" from nearly 8,000 western range lambs sold at $10.75@11.00 late in the day. Aged sheep and yearlings continued scarce and sold steady, best light ewes bringing $4.00 and top yearlings $9.25. The few feeding lambs available were listed at $7.50 @8.00.

Receipts at Chicago for today are estimated at 7,000 cattle, 23,000 hogs, and 12,000 sheep, against 6,799 cattle, 29,024 hogs, and 9,366 sheep the previous Thursday and 5,253 cattle, 22,010 hogs, and 10,106 sheep a year ago.

AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE.

OUR USED CAR SALES ARE HEAVIER THAN EVER!
BECAUSE OUR PRICES ARE $200 UNDER COMPETITION!

Studebaker Sales Co. is now running a PROSPERITY SALE! In the face of conditions, our business is better than ever. The reason is, we cut our prices drastically to meet the present situation. The public realizes this, and the result is our showroom is always crowded.

Why not drop in and investigate our remarkable bargains? The famous Studebaker Used Car Pledge protects you, no matter what you buy.

STUDEBAKER SEDAN, 1930 President 8 with wire wheels, fender wells and hundreds of dollars worth of extra equipment. Actually run only 272 miles and so it carries a new car service guarantee. Offered at an exceptional discount.

FORD 4 DR. SEDAN, 1929 with very low mileage. Every feature is in the original new condition. Offered at a big saving.

PIERCE-ARROW LIMOUSINE. Model 33 that was chauffeur driven, is in marvelous condition, considering our low price, $85.

STUDEBAKER SEDAN. Std., six that will make an ideal vacation car. Has many valuable extras and dandy tires. $125.

FLINT TOURING. Here is a sporty car with khaki top, tonneau windshield, windshield wings, practically new tires, trunk, 4 whl. brakes, snubbers, spare tire, bumpers, etc. Runs fine. $165.

HUDSON COACH. A demonstration and inspection will convince you that it's in dandy condition. Has very attractive appearance. $185.

STEARNS-KNIGHT COUPE. 5 pass. with 4 whl. brakes, shock absorbers, bumpers, spare tire, etc. Has a sweet running motor. $195.

CHRYSLER SEDAN. It's equipped with 4 whl. brakes, shock absorbers, bumpers, spare tire, etc. Has a sweet running motor. $285.

PACKARD SEDAN. Equipped with 4 whl. brakes, spotlight, shock absorbers, spare tire, bumpers, etc. The upholstery, finish and motor are in splendid condition. $285.

ESSEX SEDAN. One of the very latest models that's de luxe in every respect. 4 whl. brakes, shutter front, bumpers, spare tire, etc. The appearance and performance will please you in every respect. $295.

PONTIAC COACH. Looks and runs better than many cars selling for twice this price. Equipped with spare tire, snubbers, bumper, etc. $125.

NASH BROUGHAM, Adv. Six 4 dr. that we sincerely believe is the best Nash buy in Chicago. Motor is A1 and the finish is bright and shiny. Equipped with 4 whl. brakes, snubbers, bumpers, trunk, spare tire, lights, etc. $385.

BUICK SEDAN. This late Mast. 6 was owned by a prominent manufacturer. The finish, upholstery and tires are in the original new condition and the motor runs very smoothly. Equipped with 4 whl. brakes, shock absorbers, bumpers, spare tire, etc. $450.

STUDEBAKER PRESIDENT, 1927 Big Six 7 pass. sedan that will please the most exacting. Unlisted prestige goes with 100 miles by the original owner, so it's in wonderful condition today. 4 whl. brakes, snubbers, bumpers, spare tire, etc. $485.

CHANDLER SEDAN. One of the very last models with 6 wire wheels, side mounts and a wealth of extras. This car certainly looks and runs as though it were direct from the factory and it will not remain long at our price of $495.

WILLYS-KNIGHT SEDAN. 1928 that was driven only Sundays and evenings for pleasure purposes, so it's in marvelous condition today. This car is the last word for snarkling performance and attractive appearance. Special for $550.

GRAHAM-PAIGE CABRIOLET. 1929 conv. model. We defy anybody to tell this from a brand new car. It has an unusually smart sport job, 4 wire wheels, side mounts, trunk, driving light, shock absorbers and other extras. Roomy rumble seat. This car is a classy and it's a real bargain at our price of $695.

REO BROUGHAM. 1929 2 dr. 5 pass. that's absolutely 100% throughout. Equipped with shock absorbers, bumpers, trunk, driving light, spare tire, etc. It's a beauty and will not remain long at our price of $795.

AUBURN CONV. SPORT SEDAN. A late model 8 that's the classiest car of its kind in Chicago. Has 6 wire wheels, 4 whl. brakes and a wealth of extras. The interior is spotless and the finish is bright and shiny. Has a smooth, powerful motor. Priced for almost $3,000 a short time ago. Now $1,085.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HEN
[Chicago Tribune Press Servic
Washington, D. C., July 17, cation of the navy limitation is at hand. The vote is now for not later than next Tuesd

it may come as early as tomor
Saturday.
The treaty limiting the na
the United States, Great Brita Japan until Dec. 31, 1936, will proved by the senate by a larg gin over the requisite two-thir jority. Not more than ten or votes will be cast against it.
By holding the senate in nig sions and invoking cloture as resort if necessary, administ leaders plan to bring the deb an end by Tuesday. It is ap however, that the opposition s are now fighting with their b the wall, with Senator Hira Johnson [Rep., Cal.] virtual only one disposed to go to t ditch.
This Is Crucial Day.
Tomorrow will be the cruc for the opposition. If Senato son should be left waging a handed battle it would be only tion of hours before a vote w forced.
With the approval, if not at press direction, of President the cloture petition, which presented tomorrow, was cir today and signed not only, w 16 names required for its sub but with nearly the two-thirds ity required for its adoption.
With this instrument for fo
